

HEARST'S POSITION BY NORMAN MACK

Democratic Leader Declares Against Fusion With Independents.

SPRINGS NEW CANDIDATE

Asks Mayor Adom, of Buffalo, to Run and Gets His Consent. Jerome Pours Forth Another Wordy Torrent.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Norman E. Mack, member of the National Democratic committee for the State of New York, addressed a letter to Mayor James Noble Adom today requesting a frank answer as to whether he would accept the Democratic nomination for Governor if tendered him. In his letter Mr. Mack says: For some months, as you are aware, I have been favorable to the nomination for Governor of Congressman William B. Hearst, believing that he was the strongest and most available man for the party to nominate. Up to Wednesday night of last week I favored Mr. Hearst's nomination by the Democratic convention, but the Independent League nominated Mr. Hearst and a full state ticket and adopted a platform of principles.

I am therefore now, and have been, opposed to the nomination of Mr. Hearst by the Democratic convention which is to meet here next Tuesday. No matter how much I or others might try to make it appear that this is not a legal nomination, it has been made to appear so and it is so for all intents and purposes and the press reports from Maine to California have put the construction upon it—and should the Democratic convention to meet here Tuesday next nominate Hearst or endorse the action of the Independence League, as many people would say, it would in my mind be a surrender of Democratic principles which would be a lasting humiliation to the great Democratic party of this state and Nation.

Therefore, in common with other Democrats in this state who favor the nomination of a full Democratic ticket from top to bottom by the regular party convention next Tuesday in Buffalo, I respectfully ask you, if the convention tenders you the nomination for Governor without pledging the endorsement of any nature beyond the performance of your duty as you see it, if elected, will you accept the same? If you will accept the nomination, as the head of the party organization in the state I will at once proceed with other leaders of the party in this state to enter to bring about your nomination, not only for the reason indicated in this letter, but because I believe you could lead the party ticket to victory.

The Democracy of the Empire State must stay with the Democracy of the Nation and the Democratic party will never die or surrender. In replying to this, Mr. Adom wrote: I would say that, if the Democratic party in convention assembled demands of any true and loyal Democrat that he serve his party and the people, it is his duty to respond, even against his personal preference, to stand or fall fighting in the good old-fashioned way for his party's principles. The Democratic party knows its own mind and will express its own choice and, if compelled, it is the duty of every Democrat to aid in the battle and assist in winning it. Whosoever the Democratic party, from the time of its organization to its standard-bearer, that man should accept and fight to a finish for true Democracy.

OFFERS TO SHELVE HEARST

Chairman Mack Will No Longer Favor Nomination by Democrats.

BUFFALO, Sept. 19.—The letter addressed to the district delegates of the second district of the Democratic convention by National Committeeman Norman E. Mack and read this afternoon in each of the six assembly conventions held here for the election of delegates to the Democratic State Convention follows: You are undoubtedly well aware that I have been favoring the candidacy of William B. Hearst for Governor on the Democratic ticket for several months past. I thought it was justified in taking the attitude that it was for the best interests of the Democratic party.

However, since the nomination of Mr. Hearst by the Independence League convention held in Carnegie Hall in New York City on September 12, where a full ticket, which Mr. Hearst at its head and a platform of principles was adopted, making it appear from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the press that Mr. Hearst is a candidate, no matter what individuals may say to the contrary, I am convinced that I cannot with propriety or justice in my position as the official head of the Democratic party in this state any longer favor the candidacy of Mr. Hearst as Governor on the Democratic State Convention to be held in Buffalo next week.

As I understand it is the intention to elect me as one of the delegates to the state convention from the second Assembly District at your convention to be held this afternoon, I feel that it is but proper you should know my exact position at this time, in order that there may be no misunderstanding. However, I feel that it is but proper you should know my exact position at this time, in order that there may be no misunderstanding. However, I feel that it is but proper you should know my exact position at this time, in order that there may be no misunderstanding.

JEROME'S LAST DELIVERANCE

Bewails Loss of Popular Liberty and Roasts the Bosses.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—In a long interview given out tonight District Attorney William Travers Jerome, a candidate for the Governorship of New York, gives his attitude on various issues and differs views on political men and matters in the present gubernatorial campaign. He says: There are, in my judgment, some very serious issues which seem not to have been touched upon at all in the present discussion of political questions. I have always contended that there was practically little political liberty for the people; that there were simply given a choice between candidates, none of whom was their own selection.

The first step of paramount necessity is for the people to gain control and fight to the last ditch for the ballot used in Massachusetts, namely, a ballot on which there is no party column. If we had the Massachusetts ballot in this state, together with the privilege of nomination by petition, the decent people of the state always would have it in their power to correct the mistakes and wrong-doing of a political party.

The stretch must be put back into the civil service to the very limit. The decent people of this state, irrespective of party, do not desire that their appointive public office should be used as bribes to perpetuate political power. There should be a great extension of the corrupt practices act and a rigid enforcement of these principles.

I believe thoroughly in home rule as a Democratic principle. I believe that every municipality should have the power to perform for itself all these services, which involve the granting of public franchises, such services as are now usually performed by what are called public service corporations. For instance, I believe that New York City should have the right to own and operate gas, electric and all car lines.

Asked as to his opinion of the present strength of the state of W. R. Hearst, Jerome said: I think precisely what I have always thought about it—that the strength of Hearst rests entirely on the cowardice of the men who assume to be Democratic leaders, but who do not and cannot lead the Democrats of this state. This state is naturally as normally Democratic as Pennsylvania is Republican. But the Democrats up the state are men of probity and intelligence and are moved by appeals to patriotic principle, and they would no more think of following the riff-raff which sets itself up as the Democratic organization than they would of following Pontius Pilate or Judas Iscariot.

If at the Buffalo convention it should appear that Hearst had great strength, you would find the great majority of delegates would be faithful to the original Hearst man. If, on the other hand, the preliminary conference goes to show that Hearst is a weakling, I estimate, the state that would sell out the Democratic party for their own self-interest would run to cover so fast that it would take a microscope to discover a Hearst man in Buffalo.

Mr. Jerome bitterly assails Norman E. Mack and W. J. Conners, of Buffalo, who he said would ruin the Democratic party merely out of Tammany Hall and pays his respects to C. F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. A very considerable part of the interview is devoted to an uncompromising review of W. R. Hearst's political career.

MURPHY HAS CLEAR MAJORITY

May Force Unit Rule to Secure Hearst's Nomination.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—According to the returns and the reported affiliation of the leaders elected at the Democratic primaries, Charles F. Murphy will be in control of 24 votes in the executive committee of Tammany Hall, representing 20 districts, and will control 80 of the 105 delegates to the Democratic state convention.

These 80 votes will enable the Tammany leader, if he so desires, to apply the unit rule and cast the vote of Tammany Hall solidly for the candidate determined upon by a majority of the delegates. Up to the present time Mr. Murphy has made no statement as to his intentions in this respect, but during the primary campaign it was generally understood that Mr. Murphy was friendly to Mr. Hearst.

In Brooklyn, State Senator Hackett and Mr. McCarron retain control of the county Democratic committee, and will control 61 of the 69 delegates to the state convention. In the Republican party, Herbert E. Parsons, president of the county Republican committee, carried 23 of the 35 districts.

There was no opposition to William R. Hearst in the Democratic primaries in Erie County yesterday, and the full county delegation, including Buffalo, will be instructed for him. Ex-Governor Benjamin B. Odell does not appear to be discouraged by the result of the primary election in New York. He said: "I see no reason to feel discouraged, looking at it from our standpoint. It was a battle against tremendous odds, and the state organization has won a substantial victory. While a few of the leaders have lost their leadership, we have retained a majority of the delegates to the state convention. I figure that from Greater New York there will be about 180 Odell delegates, while Parsons, Higgins, et al will have 18. With a few things to hear from up state, we have nearly half the votes in the state convention—within 20 or 30, I think—certainly enough so that now there is no question about the state convention being opposed to the re-nomination of Higgins."

"The time has gone by for personalities. I want to make it clear that I am not saying this against Higgins because of any personal feeling. I merely mean that there must be a far stronger candidate to carry the Republican party to victory." "Murphy was asked today if he thought the result of yesterday's primary indicated the nomination of W. R. Hearst on the Democratic ticket for Governor. "I cannot say," he said. "Tammany Hall is not committed to any candidate." "Murphy said he thought the unit rule would prevail at the Buffalo convention.

In many sections in up-state counties, the results are still in doubt. Former Mayor McGuire, of Syracuse, claims all three Onondaga districts for Hearst, but State Committeeman Haven declares Jerome has carried one and possibly two districts. Mayor McClellan, in commenting on the result of the primaries, said: "I am content with the result."

Complete Result in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 19.—Complete unofficial returns from yesterday's nomination in the nine Congressional districts of Minnesota show that the following ticket will be voted in the November campaign: First district—James A. Tawney, Republican; Andrew French, Democrat. Second district—J. T. McCleary, Republican; W. B. Hammond, Democrat. Third district—C. R. Davis, Republican; no opposition. Fourth district—F. C. Steven, Republican; Gustav Scholl, Democrat. Fifth district—F. M. Nye, Republican; Frank Larrabee, Democrat. Sixth district—Charles Lundberg, Republican; M. C. Taft, Democrat. Seventh district—A. J. Valstead, Republican; no Democrat. Eighth district—J. Adam Bede, Republican; no Democrat. Ninth district—Valvor Steenerson, Republican; no Democrat.
