The most notable feature of yester-day afternoon's matince at the Vaughn-street ball grounds, when the local aggregation annexed a 3-to-1 victory over the Fresno outfit, was the burn-ing of Mike Fisher's lid, which marked the making good on a bet wagered the the making good on a bet wagered the day before in which the Fresno leader guaranteed to cremate his bonnet if his tribe of baseballists failed to annex the opening game with Portland Mike made this same wager once before, and the lads drawing their monthly salaries from his jeans made good and saved the sky-piece by winning the only game they captured in a two-week series with Pop Van Haltren's crew at Onkland

rew at Oakland.
Fisher's namesake, Mike Mitchell, cherished a grudge against the ex-King of Tacoma and made it necessary for the Fresno magnate to purchase a new cady by rapping a home run and winning the opening engagement for Portland.

True to his promise. Fisher appeared on the field with the doomed sky-piece carefully done up in wrapping paper, and escorted by a funeral cortege, composed of Happy Hogan, Pearl Casey, Truck Eagan and Jack Fitzgerald, which quartet also acted as pallbearers. Business Manager Higgins, of the Portland team, displayed his generosity by donating the played his generosity by donating the funeral pyre. On account of the numerous ingredients used by the Fresno magnate as tonic, with which he hopes to sprout extra locks on his toupee, all persons were warned to keep a healthy distance owing to the danger of an explosion.

of an explosion Fisher, shedding copious tears for the doomed bonnet, walked slowly to the hier and struck the match that sent his time-honored heargear up in smoke. Smoke was not all that ensued from the flames, for many of the sensi-tive mass! appendances in the vicinity from the flames, for many of the sensitive nasal appendages in the vicinity of the operation became cognizant of the fumes familiar to the burning of Chinese punk, and one inconsiderate personage shouted, "Take away the Chinese funeral."

The hat went up in smoke, and Umpire Mahaffey called the players to order and announced the batteries amid the calls for a speech from Fisher, but the genial Fresnoite was too overcome to respond.

Previous to the game, Harry Wol-ters, the clever young outfielder of the visiting club, suffered a severe sprain, and was unable to take his regular position in the lineup, and it is prob-able that he will be out of the game for the balance of the season. Aside from the cremation ceremony, there was not much to the game except from a local standpoint, for Portland had it on the visitors seven ways from the deuce and won in a walk.

Fisher ordered a young chap named Mosg out on the hill to do the pitching stunt, and he lasted just long enough to allow the bases to become populated by the first three men to populated by the first three men to face him. Captain Doyle chased him at this juncture, and brought a south-paw named O'Banion into the box from right field and sent Fitzgerald to the pasture, while the youngster was given the option of decorating the bench or the king to the trolleys.

Organion walked McCredie, forcing

THEY HASTEN TO DECLINE Candidates Never Asked to Run for Mutual Life Trustee.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.-Protests against the unauthorized use of their names from several nominees on the "selected fusion ticket" for trustees of the Mutual Life Company were made public here today.

Mayor J. N. Adoms, of Buffalo, originally nominated on the "United Cotee's ticket," telegraphed to Judge Alton B. Parker, chairman of the executive committee of the International Policy Holders' Committee, that the use of his name on the fusion ticket was against his wishes. A similar message from James T. Phelan, former Mayor of San Francisco, was received. William L. Guillaudeau, of this city, wrote to the committee to the same effect.

Replying to notifications that the names had been placed on the "third ticket," President Charles A. Peabody, Second Vice-President George T. Dexter and Su-perintendent of Foreign Agencies Henry E. Duncan, of the Mutual Life, addressed Albert S. Bard, counsel for the promoters of the fusion ticket, today. Mr. Peabody said that the question of his acceptance must depend upon the character and pur-pose of those who brought about his nomination. When advised as to the personality and purpose of the movers he would reply as to his acceptance. The two other officials of the Mutual stated that the by-laws of the Mutual Life would prevent their serving if elected
