

ARMY AND NAVY
ON WARP FOOTING

Preparations to Occupy Cuba Complete Except as to Transports.

AWAIT ORDERS TO START

First Expedition Will Go From Atlantic Coast When Work Comes.
New Orleans Embarking
Point of Second.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Both the War and Navy Departments have been practically on a war basis today, and tonight at many of the offices in the departments, advices from Cuba were anxiously awaited. The cruiser Des Moines was ordered from Havana to Cienfuegos to assist in protecting property at that point. This was the only naval order of importance during the day, although the General Board of the Navy was in session several hours.
In the War Department there were many conferences, but few orders of consequence were issued. The hiring of transports is the detail necessary to complete preparations.
The first expedition would probably leave Newport News, made up of 5300 troops, gathered from posts near the Eastern seaboard, and the expedition would go from points further south in case the Government can arrange for the suspension of troublesome quarantine regulations.
New Orleans is mentioned as the probable point from which an expedition made up of troops from stations adjacent to Louisiana would be sent.
It is the purpose of the General Staff to avoid railroad travel wherever possible.
The departure of President Roosevelt from Oyster Bay for Provincetown caused many officers to believe that he does not expect any emergency in Cuba before Monday, when he is due in Washington.

JACKIES AND MARINES ENOUGH

Taft Will Not Call for Troops if He Can Avoid It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—It is generally believed in Washington that the Secretary of War will find the marines and bluejackets now in Cuba and preparing to go there capable of guarding Havana and neighboring cities pending the holding of a new election and the placing of the Cuban government on a satisfactory basis. Keeping in touch with their ships by rail, the marines can do guard duty very satisfactorily at points where the insurgent leaders may threaten the property and lives of foreigners.
The Army always smacks of a foreign invasion, but marines and bluejackets do not cause so much alarm. Consequently it is believed that Secretary Taft, who is pre-eminently a diplomat, will not call for troops until all hope of handling the situation with the Navy is lost.
Plans for the sending of marines from Southern states to Cuba have been seriously interfered with by the storm along the Gulf of Mexico. Colonel L. L. Waller, who was ordered from Norfolk to Cuba, where he is to assume command of the 10th Marine Battalion, is delayed at Jacksonville, Fla.
Brigadier-General G. F. Elliott, commanding the marine corps, received a dispatch today from the War Department, saying that he hopes to get from Jacksonville to Miami, Fla., on Saturday, and will proceed to Havana on the first boat.
Efforts to get in touch with the marines stationed at Pensacola and New Orleans have been unsuccessful, and it is feared that the detachment of marines ordered from Pensacola to New Orleans to sail from that port tomorrow for Cuba will be unable to reach the vessel because of wauhsouts along the Gulf railroad.
Neither the Army nor Navy has been able to get any reports from Gulf points, and it is feared that much damage has been done to Government property in the path of the Gulf storm.

HORSES AND MULES COSTLY

Government Cannot Get Them Even at High Prices.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Difficulty is being experienced by the Quartermaster General's Department in obtaining horses and mules. Even at high prices, good cavalry horses are scarce, and nearly impossible to procure. The scarcity extends throughout the country. A few weeks ago a contractor in the State of Washington was awarded a contract to supply 500 cavalry horses for the Army at his bid of $92 a head. Thus far he has been unable to fill the contract, and may be financially ruined in his efforts to do so.
A short time before General Funston was ordered to Cuba he requested authority to purchase in an emergency, 50 cavalry horses at $150 a head. The request was refused by the department because of the contract mentioned. On account of the scarcity of horses, animals suitable for the cavalry are now worth about $140 a head.
Mules are even higher than horses.
Good mules are worth about $125 a head, and are difficult to get at that price on account of the great foreign demand. Returns from the West for cavalry horses and mules have not been received at the War Department yet, but it is expected that the prices will be high, particularly as the specifications required delivery within 15 days of the award of the contract.

Hancock Will Be a Transport.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Orders have been received from Washington by Captain William H. Reeder, acting commandant at the Brooklyn Navy-yard, to prepare the receiving ship Hancock to be used as a transport. The Hancock, which was formerly the transport-Atlantic liner Arizona, was purchased by the Government in the Spanish-American War.

Excelsior Sails Today.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 28.—The storm has not interfered with the scheduled sailing for Havana of the transport Excelsior, which leaves for Havana today. The Excelsior, which was stationed at the Virginia yards has been ordered here.

More Marines to Sail Soon.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—The coaling of the cruiser Brooklyn has been completed and she will sail on Sunday or Monday. The Tennessee will be ready to sail as soon as her equipment of men is complete.
Marines have been arriving for the last few days, and a big detail came from Norfolk today. All the marines stationed at the Virginia yards have been ordered here.

Refuses to Answer Questions Asked by Negro Lawyer in Cruelty to Animals Case—Stands
Pat Under Fire.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Annie P.
Thomas, an estimable young woman, said to be a cousin of President Roosevelt, faced a prison cell this afternoon.
She was given the alternative of spending two days in jail or paying a $10 fine for contempt in refusing to answer questions asked by a negro lawyer, in Police Court, today. It was a cruelty to animals case, and she was a good witness for the prosecution.
When Attorney Rice, a negro, representing the defendant, tried to cross-examine her, she balked.
"I refuse to answer questions asked by a darkey," she said, turning to the court.
"He is not a darkey," Judge Mullowway stated. "He is an American citizen and a member of the bar. He is defending this man, and he has a right to ask you questions."
"I refuse to answer a negro," she replied.
"You must answer," his honor insisted.
"I won't answer the questions he asks, even for you," the witness retorted.
"Madame, you had better be quiet," his honor cautioned.
"Keep quiet, yourself," said the witness.
"I shall be compelled to fine you unless you are quiet."
"You won't fine me," the witness declared.
"Madame, I fine you $10, in default of which I will send you to jail for two days," Judge Mulloway announced.
Miss Thomas was then escorted from the stand, and through help of C. T.
Masse, agent of the Prisoners' Aid Society, her fine was paid. She departed laughing.

ROOSEVELT JR. "PINCHED"

Boston Police Release Teddy, Jr., and Three College Chums.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 28.—Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., is today the most popular man in Harvard. "Corralled," in company with three other students, for skulking with a policeman, against the policeman's will, young Roosevelt enjoys the distinction of having humbled one common enemy—a "cop." He and his friends were released after being taken to the Station-House. Teddy and some of his friends were frolick-ing on the common when a policeman noticed their antics. The students noted the objection by taking away the policeman's club and revolver, after which they playfully bowled him over and sat upon him. Upon seeing the cop's rotund and outraged form, the college boys lifted their voices and yelled: "Rah! Rah! Harvard!" etc., until the attention of other policemen was attracted. All the students ran but four, including young Roosevelt.
The police hustled them off to the Station-House. The Sergeant nearly fell off his chair when Teddy told him his name. Roosevelt said he had intended to do with the policeman's troubles, and the Sergeant let him and his friends go.

NEW EAST SIDE CLUB.

Retail Merchants Take Steps to Form Permanent Organization.

About 30 East Side business men gathered in the office of J. L. Bell, Grand avenue and East Washington street, last night, and initiated a movement which is expected to result in a large and influential organization among the retailers on that side of the Willamette. Only the preliminary steps were taken, but it was decided to perfect a permanent body, which shall work for the welfare of the merchants of that section of the city. It is possible that a club feature may also ultimately be added.
A committee on permanent organization was appointed, consisting of W. H. Markell, R. A. Wilson, Charles Strawbridge, W. M. Taylor and Dan Kallher. W. B.
Hall was selected to head the promotion committee, and will choose his own assistants. Another meeting will be held at the same place at 8 o'clock next Friday night, when it is expected to form the permanent organization.

Two Citizens Patrolmen Who Shot Bay City Merchant Acquitted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Malcolm T. Vance and George Simmons, charged with the murder of Heber C. Tilden, a commission merchant, in San Francisco on April 29 last, were acquitted today. Both defendants were members of the citizens' patrol, organized after the earthquake and fire, and were charged with shooting Tilden for refusing to halt his automobile when ordered to do so.
They claimed that they thought the car was under martial law, and that a shot was fired toward them from the automobile.
