PORTLAND, OCT. 1, 1906.

RECORD MERITS CONFIDENCE

A record of 20 years counts for something, and the safe and conservative management that has been inaugurated by our officers and directors merits the confidence of depositors.

This bank was established in 1887, and is the

"Oldest Trust Company in Oregon"

Its officers and directors pride themselves on the reputation it has established—always conservative, yet a certain amount of liberality is injected into its business, which inspires a healthy growth.

We issue interest-bearing special certificates of deposit in sums of $500 or over, paying from 2½ to 4 per cent interest that can be drawn at any time by giving a certain number of days' notice. Call on us for further particulars, or send for our books of
