NEW PASTOR TAKES CHARGE—The services of Rev. E. S. Bollinger at the Highland Congregational Church will commence tomorrow, and the pastor of that church are pleased with the prospect of renewed activity in church work in that part of the city. The growth of the church has been rapid in the past, and with the upbuilding of this part of the city the enlarged population and the increase in the number of homes established here is every reason for hope for great enlargement in the future. Rev. E. S. Bollinger was at one time pastor of the Congregational Church at Astoria, where the work he did was very successful. Later he removed to Oregon City, where for the past eight years he has labored energetically. The Congregational Church there has been built up into a strong and active organization under his care, and the regret at its removal from that city was strong and mutual between pastor and community. However, the need at Highland Church was pressing and of a nature that required such ability and energy as are possessed by Mr. Bollinger. He accepted the call and has already established his residence in Skidmore street, close by the church.

BOY HIT BY TRUCK—While his mother was at the bedside of her dying husband in a ward at the St. Vincent's hospital yesterday, Murley Walling, 17 years old, was taken into the same hospital unconscious, after being struck by a heavy truck wagon at Second and Pine streets. Walling is an A. D. P. messenger, and lives at the family home, 717 Kerby street. He was on his bicycle yesterday, going to the office, when a Second and Pine streets he collided with a heavy truck and was thrown several feet on the pavement, striking it with his head. He was stunned and as he did not regain consciousness he was rushed to the hospital in the patrol wagon. There his injuries were pronounced not serious and last night it was said he will be able to leave the hospital today. Walling's stepfather, Ben Willis, is at the point of death.

WIDOW WILL BURY WHITE—Learning of the tragic death of her husband in this city Thursday afternoon, Mrs. J. White hurried from Walla Walla to take charge of the funeral arrangements and who is here to attend to the funeral services to be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Finley undertaking establishment. White was attacked by heart failure while at work about a mile from the Warren Construction Company, and fell headlong into the machinery, being badly injured. He died almost instantly. Mrs. White resided in Portland yesterday and the two sons now at La Grande, Or., are expected to arrive this morning to be in attendance at the funeral services. Interment will be at the Greenwood cemetery. Mrs. White had recently sued for divorce.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB—The East Side Business Men's Club was permanently organized at a meeting held last evening on Grand avenue and East Washington street. As set forth in the call the objects are to secure protection and to make known the advantages of the East Side, to see that streets leading to the business districts are kept in the best possible condition, to provide for suitable fire and police protection, and to promote the welfare of the East Side business interests. Meetings will be held the first and third Wednesday of each month. The following officers were elected: President, W. B. Hall; vice-president, H. A. Califf; secretary, C. A. Bigham; treasurer, C. H. Reddy.

The topics and dates for the series are as follows: October 5, "Shall Thinking Men Follow the Teaching of Reason or Authority?" October 12, "What is the Use of a Creed?" October 19, "What is the Use of a Church?" October 26, "Can a Priest Forgive Sin?" November 2, "What is the Meaning of the Word 'Epicurean'?" November 9, "What is the Catholic Church?"

LENTS CHURCH PROSPERS—Grace Evangelical Church, of Lent, has been remodeled and generally improved at a cost of more than $1000. Rev. H. O. Henderson came to this charge a little over two years ago. At that time there were 12 members and no parsonage. Now the church has 100 members, a fine manse and modern church, and for all these improvements there is not a dollar of indebtedness on the property. The interior of the church has been tinted and attractively arranged, and a furnace is being installed.

WARNING GIVEN SALOON-KEEPERS—The Estacada Council has notified the saloon-keepers of that place that they must keep better order hereafter. There have been numerous disturbances in the saloons, which the Council says must stop, or the licenses will be revoked. The Council is now looking for a new City Marshal, J. F. Lovelace having just resigned. One applicant wanted $50 per month, but this salary was considered more than the city could pay.

A.—The Young Women's Christian Association will hold its regular Sunday "at home" tomorrow and will be assisted in entertaining by Miss Gladys Grenier and John Kilpatrick, vocal soloists; Miss Corinne Barker, violinist; Claude Hicks, elocutionist; and E. CHURCH JANITOR IN DEMAND—Peder Pederson, janitor of the White Temple, had them all going yesterday from Chief of Police Gritzmacher to Rev. J. Withcomb Brougher, the distinguished pastor of the big church at Twelfth and Yamhill streets. Peder was "in" with a vengeance, and all because he had successfully passed a civil service examination for a position as patrolman in the Police Department. More patrolmen are needed, so Chief Gritzmacher recently notified three men, among them Pederson, to appear for duty. Pederson resigned his job as janitor at the White Temple, but the church considered his services indispensable, so his salary was increased and he decided to remain. He did not appear at police headquarters for instructions, and Chief Gritzmacher recently notified three men, among them Pederson, to appear for duty. Pederson resigned his job as janitor at the White Temple, but the church considered his services indispensable, so his salary was increased and he decided to remain. He did not appear at police headquarters for instructions, and Chief Gritzmacher recently notified three men, among them Pederson, to appear for duty.

T. A. Goff presided. Mr. E. Thompson took charge of the program. An orchestra furnished music.

A. building fund, work for subscriptions to the steamship line has been temporarily suspended. Up to date there has been about $5000 subscribed, and there is more money in sight. It is the plan of the Board of Trade to have the $100,000 needed to start the line in hand by January 1, so that plans can be made for the 1907 business.

GRAND SNARK RETURNS HOME—After several weeks' absence from the city, Robert D. Inman, of Corn, returned home yesterday. Mr. Inman is the Grand Snark of the Universe, and while away he presided over the National convention of Hoos Hoos in Oklahoma. HENRY TO SPEAK HERE—Dr. Alexander Henry, secretary of the Presbyterian board of publication and Sabbath school work, is visiting the Synod of the Pacific Coast states and will be in Portland and Corvallis. Events of the Day on Oak Street
 Wedding of Young Oak-Street People—Interesting Athletic Event. Mr. Levondowski Visits the Cameron—Mr. Smith's Perennial Report.

WEDDING BELLS RANG yesterday at the Cameron for two prominent young Oak street leaders, Miss Elizabeth and Mr. Lee Bailey. The wedding was the fashionable event of the season on Oak street and was witnessed by a brilliant assemblage. Back of it there is a pretty romance, for the young people did not meet until a few weeks ago, and it was a case of love at first sight. It is whispered about that the match was made by Mr. Cameron himself, who has quite a reputation for aiding Cupid in his pranks.

The marriage ceremony occurred promptly at low noon. The bride party was attended by Messrs. Kay and Burke, who were attired for the occasion in long blue frock coats, handsomely set off in brass buttons. Mr. Kay acted as best man.

The bride appeared leaning on the arm of a chair. She wore a gown of Scotch plaid, with complexion to match. Mons. Walter Wolf played Mendelssohn's enchanting wedding march in rag-time on the Cameron's splendid new Jennings piano. Immediately after the ceremony congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey then left at once on a wedding trip to Lower Albion, where they will make their future home. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bailey, who is an extensive and successful young pick-and-shovel operator. His allied interests are reported to net him a monthly income of nearly $50.

OAK STREET IS GOING IN for athletics in earnest this year, and many interesting speed events may be confidently looked for during the next few months. There appears to be a great deal of rivalry against Oak street gentlemen of leisure, over the sprinting record for the two miles intervening between the Cameron and city limits, a distance of some three miles. That Mr. Boxcar Kelly's record of 17 minutes, made by him last season, shall not stand unbroken, is the general determination.

Messrs. Mark Dennis and William Harris made the initial attempt to beat the record yesterday forenoon, and it has leaked out that they were backed in the endeavor by Mr. Cameron. Mr. Hennessey, in a jovial attempt to undermine the gentlemen's running powers, asserted that

HAVEN'T GIVEN UP

Y. M. C. A. Hustlers Hope to Complete $350,000 Fund.
TODAY IS THE LAST DAY
 Nearly $135,000 Still Needed—Business Women's Committee Makes Good Pledge to Raise $10,000—May Extend Time.

Yesterday's additions to the Y. M. C. A. Y. M. C. A. building fund were: Business women's committee, $45.00; Young men's committee, $54.20; Citizens' committee, $35.80.

Total, $135,000.
 Raised previously, $216,331.33.
 Grand total, $351,331.33.

The end of the three-weeks whirlwind campaign to raise funds for a new $350,000 Y. M. C. A. building is at hand. Today brings it to a close. If the money is raised on time there will have to be tremendous activity on the part of the public, today, in supplying funds. While the workers in the cause will be in the field from daylight until dark their efforts, unsupported, can hardly bring the brief campaign to a successful termination. The public will have to volunteer its co-operation. People who have money they can spare, whether it be a few dollars or a few thousand dollars, are urged to take it to headquarters voluntarily and thereby lend aid, doubly, to the cause.

While yesterday proved a comparatively small day and there yet remains nearly $135,000 to be secured, the campaigners intend, nevertheless, to take the field today with the intention of completing the fund and will accept no such thing as failure until it becomes a condition rather than a possibility.

But there can be no failure, they say. The workers have eliminated the word from their vocabulary and inability to secure the funds by tonight will constitute failure only tentatively. The situation, as presented tonight, will be taken in hand by the four working committees and by those directing the campaign. They will apply such measures as then seem necessary. If an extension of time is needed it will undoubtedly be settled upon.

That the campaign has been a success for the prevailing sentiment among those directing the work. Chairman Reed, of the citizens' committee, and General Secretary Stone, of the Y. M. C. A., have learned from the reports of other campaigners that this has been the briefest of all for the raising of so great an amount of money, and that the comparative progress thus far is all in Portland's favor.

The figures of the campaign show that fewer than 1000 people have subscribed, but fewer than 100 workers have been in the field every day. For those who have subscribed there is an average of approximately $150 for each person, not including the Ladd estate subscription of $5,000.

The business women's committee has raised the total sum apportioned as its share of the fund. When the work of this committee was checked up last evening it was found that the plucky young women had raised a few dollars more than $100,000. This money all came in small amounts from girls and women who earn their own livelihood. No small part of the amount represents self denial—possibly the giving up of a new dress or some little thing that was needed. The young women are being highly complimented for this exceptional showing and while they have accomplished the task assigned them they have decided to go right ahead with the work and try to double the amount already raised.

The chairman of this committee is Miss Clara Clarke, D—Miss Martha Case, E—Miss Gertrude Metcalf, F—Miss Marie Rockwell, G—Miss Mary Stenzel, H—Miss N. B. Townsend, I—Miss Ella McBride, K—Miss Ella Gage.

There was but one more large subscription yesterday, the Tull & Gibbs Company contributing $1000. There was a subscription of $250 from Seld Back, Chicago.

SUITOR FOR THREE YEARS AND AIL IN VAIN
 One Case Where True Love and Perseverance Are Rewarded by Threatened Arrest.

TO BE pursued for three long years by a man who seeks her heart and hand is the unusual experience of Mrs. F. Kiser, a comely woman living at Third and Salmon streets, who appeared before Municipal Court officials Thursday and secured a warrant for the arrest of A. Robinson, the alleged pursuer.

To the authorities Mrs. Kiser declared that Robinson had for three years dogged her footsteps, against her desire and pleasure, and she said she had become so wrought up over his continued attentions that she could bear them no longer. She was given a warrant for his arrest, upon a complaint charging him with using profane and abusive language, but she was unable to state where the police could find him and he has not been arrested as yet.

Mrs. Kiser swore that Robinson cursed and made divers threats against her Wednesday morning, when he met her and she refused to talk to him.

Up to this morning the sessions have been given up to the reading of communications from the various church boards and to other routine work. E. B. Jones of the Albany and Tule River district is secretary of the conference, and Bishop Atkins is the presiding officer. A powerful address on the work was delivered by Bishop Atkins.

OFFERS HILL THE GULCH

East Side Citizen Grows Sarcastic Over Peninsula Trench.
 Thomas Hielop, a prominent resident of East Portland waxes sarcastic over the big trench that Portland & Seattle Railway Company proposes building across the Peninsula between the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

"Why don't the railway company build a tunnel and not cut a big trench through that part of the city?" declares Mr. Hielop. "Here in East Portland we have Sullivan's Gulch, which we are trying to get bridged or filled up, but down there on the Peninsula they are going to cut a bigger trench, which they will have to bridge half a dozen times. Why don't McKenna stop that trench and make the company bore a hole instead of digging a trench?"

"We will let him have Sullivan's Gulch if he will pull it up and carry it down on the Peninsula."

Drunk Man Thinks He Is a Monkey
 Tries to Get Into Cage at City Park, But Lands Behind Bars in City Jail.

NOT every man who drinks himself full of intoxicating liquor believes himself to be a monkey, but this was the opinion C. E. Smith held of himself yesterday afternoon. He succeeded in wending his way to the City Park, where he stood by the zoo, the monkey cage being directly in front of him. He demanded to be allowed to enter and take his place with the rest of them. But was restrained when he put up a fight.

Chief of Police Morgan, of the City Park, arrested Smith, but so indignant was the prisoner with his fate and feet that the priests of the parish and the Chief and four assistants to subdue and hold him until the arrival of a patrolman from police headquarters, with reinforcements in the persons of Police-men Robson and Price.

The officers unceremoniously lifted Smith into the wagon, and he fought all the way to the City Jail, but when he saw the bars within, he thought he was again in front of the monkey cage and became calm.

"Here you go into the cage with the rest of the monkeys," said Policeman Price, as Smith was ushered into a cell, to await the coming of the morning police and arraignment in court for drunkenness.

PRIESTS AND NUNS FLEE
 Fire Destroys Catholic Parochial Residence in Bay City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—A fire which menaced the whole Western Addition for several hours broke out in the parochial residence attached to Sacred Heart Church, at the corner of Fell and Fillmore streets at 5 o'clock this morning, and spread with such alarming rapidity that the priests of the parish and the Dominican sisters attached to the church barely had time to escape from their beds before the flames enveloped them. The priests' house is a total loss, the church of the Sacred Heart is badly damaged by the flames, and the parochial school is gutted.
