FLOUR FOR ORIENT

Export Trade Is Assuming Larger Proportions.

BUT MORE IS EXPECTED

Heaviest Orders Now Coming in Are From North China Ports. Prunes Going to Waste. The Butter Market.

The export flour trade is sessiming fair proportions, but there is still room for much improvement. The best inquiry from the other eids now comes from North China ports. The liner Aragonia, sailing the latter part of this week, will take, among her other ehipments, 22,500 barrels for Tientsin, Taku and other Pe-chi-ii ports. The steamer's cargo will be a large one, but it is understood there is some pace still available. A few good orders are reported from Japan, but the buying is not 151 ret up to expectations.

The prune market continues in a rather unsatisfactory condition, according to local jobbers. As one of them remarked yesterday. Some of the large packers have announced to their Eastern connections that the Oregon crop is a failure this year, and that the quality of the few prunes saved is poor. Speculators evidently think better bargains can be driven by waiting. In the meantime, growers are showing a firm front and prices therefore are moving neither way. A few small sales are taking piace in the country at prices that vary according to quality. Nothing over 15 Bettle of the country of the country at prices that vary according to quality. WANT A PERIOD OF QUIET

Railroad List Is Conspicuously Neglected - Money Continues to Work Easier and Time Loans Are Shaded.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 .- Stocks falled to re and to the leadership of a few issues which showed strength today, and the condition of the market became lethargic during the latter part of the day. The ground for the neglect nto which the market fell was not clear, but the way stocks were supplied on any advance and the absence of large transactions fostered the impression that the controlling powers in the market desired a period of speculative quiet. Traders professed to see in some of the selling a character that intimidated them from any attempts to contest the indifference thus signalized.

SCHOOL FOR MOLDERS.

Strikebreakers Are Taught the Trade in Secret.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.— (Special.)—A school for strike-breakers was discovered at 182 Dearborn street by representatives of the Iron Moulders' Union tenight. Members of the union, who have been on strike for six menths, have been puzzled by the ease with which the employers have filled their places with fairly well-trained men.

Tonight reports of the school gained currency, and Business Agent Joseph Brown, of the union, with several followers, visited the suspected buildings, where, peering over the transom, they saw a room fitted up like a miniature foundry and 15 to 20 men at work as molders. work as molders,
"This seems to be a closed shop," said Brown, trying the door and finding it locked. An effort will be made to induce the strike-breakers to give up their practice. Passenger Agents in Session. WEST BABEN, Ind., Oct. 9.-The 34th opened here today.
