

MAGOON ARRIVES TO GOVERN CUBA

Havana Welcomes Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon With Flowers.

AMNESTY COMES TODAY

Taft Ends Prosecution of Offenses Growing Out of Revolution and Orders American Troops to Keep Out of Feuds.

HAVANA, Oct. 9.—Charles E. Magoon, the newly appointed Provisional Governor of Cuba, arrived here this afternoon. Coincident with his coming, Governor Taft gave out a general decree proclaiming amnesty not only to the rebels, but to all persons charged with political offenses, or crimes in any way connected with the revolution.

The steamer Mascotte, with Mr. Magoon, General J. Franklin Bell, Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon, entered Havana harbor at 4 o'clock this afternoon. In the wake of the Mascotte came the battleship Texas with a detachment of 300 marines from Norfolk.

A launch carrying Mr. Taft, Assistant Secretary of State Bacon and Captain McCoy and Martin, aides to Mr. Taft, hurried out to the Mascotte. There followed another launch with General Funston and his aide, and a third with a committee of Cuban newspapermen, who carried huge bouquets of flowers which were delivered to Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon with a brief address of welcome.

After the presentations to the mayor and the city council, the party entered carriages and was driven to the palace, where Mr. Taft and Mr. Bacon and Mr. Magoon had a long conference in the governor's office.

Following this conference Mr. Magoon received the members of the press. He declined to discuss his plans for the future. He said he had expected, upon arriving at Washington, to have 30 days' leave of absence prior to his departure for the Philippines. He did not regret, however, the change in programme and he declared himself gratified with being in Cuba. He said he would take up his residence with Minister Morgan as the minister's guest pending the departure of Mr. Taft.

General Bell will reside at the army headquarters at Marianao. General Funston will make his headquarters at Camp Columbia.

AVOID MEDDLING WITH FEUDS

Taft's Orders to Troops Accompany Amnesty to Rebels.

HAVANA, Oct. 9.—W. H. Taft, as Provisional Governor of Cuba and Secretary of War of the United States, tonight issued an order to General Frederick Funston outlining the duties of the American forces in Cuba.

The officers of marine stationed at various localities are advised that they are not expected to take part in an active way in the suppression of disorder unless extreme emergency arises, in which it is absolutely necessary for them to protect life and property. The duties of the marines are generally limited to rendering their good offices between the conflicting elements and the prevention of that disorder which, in the present state of tension between the political parties, is inevitable during the present crisis. The order concludes as follows:

Do Not Meddle in Conflicts.

The President of the United States deems it of the utmost importance that the American forces do not engage in conflicts with Cubans, but that disorder by Cubans be suppressed by Cubans. It is also expected that the officers and men, both of the army and marine corps, will exert every effort to show all courtesy possible to Cubans of all parties and avoid in any way injuring their sensibilities.

An amnesty proclamation of the most sweeping character, possible, pardoning every serious crime which has been an outgrowth of the recent revolution, will be issued by Mr. Taft tomorrow. Complete pardon is granted to all persons involved in the killing of Congressman Villaverde at Cienfuegos in September, 1906, as well as to everybody implicated in the killing of several rural guardsmen at Guantanamo last February.

The proclamation serves notice that armed bands breaking the law after tomorrow will be proceeded against and denied the benefits of amnesty.

Full Amnesty and Pardon.

The proclamation, after reciting that the insurrectionary forces have been disbanded; that active and organized hostilities have ceased, and that it is the purpose of the provisional government to promote the restoration of normal conditions of peace favorable to the early re-establishment of Cuban self-government, declares as follows:

Without reservation or condition, except as hereinafter provided, there shall be full and complete amnesty and pardon to all who directly or indirectly participated in or took part in the insurrection in Cuba, or who gave aid or comfort to persons participating therein, and for political offenses committed in the course of said insurrection.

The amnesty is declared to cover rebellion, sedition and conspiracy. It gives immunity from prosecution for seizures and expropriation of property for military use by the insurrectionary forces, and proceedings already under way for offenses which are amnestied are ordered to be discontinued forthwith. Prosecutors are ordered to have the proclamation applied to cases in which judgment has been already rendered, and further to those in which sentence is being served. After declaring that the procedure set forth in the last preceding clause is to be followed in the prosecutions now pending on account of the assaults on the rural guardsmen at Guanabacoa and in the Villaverde case, full and complete pardon is granted to all persons named in each of these cases. The proclamation says:

Pardon is here granted to ordinary cases of crime not completed within the terms of this amnesty, but crimes punishable under the existing laws by correctional or light penalties and committed prior to their disarmament and abandonment by members of the insurrectionary forces, who complied in good faith with the agreement of disarmament made by the subject of special application for pardon.

Rebels May Keep Houses.

In order to facilitate the re-establishment of normal conditions of peace, it is ordered that in every action where the plaintiff, by proper evidence and identification, proves his title, it shall nevertheless be sufficient defense if the possessor of a horse by lawful evidence shall establish that he was a member of the late force of insurrection and had possession of the horse on October 1, and that he received a certificate from his brigade commander turning over the animal to his custody.

Mr. Taft today ordered that the law declaring railroads must make connections for shipments on through bills of lading become effective.

STEINHART CHANGES CHIEF

American Consul Restores Peace in Cienfuegos by Quick Action.

CIENFUEGOS, Oct. 9.—According to authorization given by Governor Taft, Consul-General Steinhart today discharged the chief of police of this city and appointed a Havana man, Captain Landu, commanding the rural guards, as his successor.

After a joint conference between Mr. Steinhart and Mr. Figueroa, the latter told Mr. Steinhart that, as chief of the local Liberal party, he would use his influence toward promoting peace and goodwill, and also promised to co-operate with the Mayor of the city in preserving order.

A statue of Jesus Marti, the Washington of Cuba, was to have been unveiled here tomorrow, the anniversary of the beginning of the ten years' war, but the event has been postponed because of the fear that it might result in political demonstrations. Large crowds from the country districts will not be permitted to enter the city tomorrow.

ALL EMBARK BY SATURDAY

More Troops Sail for Cuba and Newport News Is Busy.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 9.—The Eleventh Infantry and Eleventh Cavalry arrived here late last night, and the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Batteries of Field Artillery arrived this morning, completing the quota of troops to arrive here for the first Cuba expedition. These are the only troops now here in camp except two companies from Fort Monroe, now doing provost duty.

The transports Antilla and Zealandia have arrived and will take coal before the end of the week. It is expected all the
