VILLA AVENUE IMPROVEMENT.—It is probable that Villa avenue will not be made a 70-foot street, although a resolution was introduced by request of Councliman Benneit to that effect. A strong remonstrance is being circulated against the widening by members of the Montavilla Board of Trade and the Center Addition Fush Club. These two organizations favor the widening of Villa avenue to 60 feet, but not to 70 feet. They want the street extended to the city limits at Montavilla immediately so that a large water main may be laid for Montavilla. The question of opening the avenue through the Ladd tract westward will come up later. Beyond Montavilla to Fairview the farmers are willing, according to reports, to open a county road 60 or 70 feet wide, whichever may be determined upon, and will assist with all their power. They want a direct street to Fortland.

WORK BEGINS ON NEW CHURCH.-Contractor Bingham has started work on the atons walls of the new Methodist Church South at the corner of Union avenue and Multnomah street. Concrete foundation Multnomah street. Concrete foundation for the building was completed several months ago and recently the stone contract was let. Stone comes from the Phoenix Quarry, near Cakland, Or., and is shipped in great blocks, which have to be chiseled into shape. In some respects this will be one of the handsomest spects this will be one of the handsomest structures of the sort on the coast. There will be a number of beautiful memorial windows. Electric lights will be used, but the fixtures will be invisible. It is hoped to have the walls up and the roof on by the first of the year, but it will probably take a year to complete the building.

BUTS INVINGTON RESIDENCE.-The fine BUTS IRVINGTON RESIDENCE.—The fine home of W. T. Turner in Irvington was sold yesterday to J. W. Strowbridge for $11,000 through the agency of J. C. Henry. The residence is of beautiful colonial architecture and occupies three lots at the northwest corner of Twenty-first and Hancock streets. The grounds surrounding the dwelling are attractively set of ing the dwelling are attractively set off with shrubbery and the property is one of the finest in that portion of the city.

Mr. Turner recently purchased the Silverfield flats, where he will make his home. CITY HALL FIGHT ENDED.—The bitter City Hall fight at St. Johns was brought to a close at the adjourned session of the Council held yesterday morning. The bid of Youngderhaf & Son, of Portland, in the sum of $7932, was accepted and ground will be broken for the basement ground will be broken for the basement this week. The building will be housed, but no interior finishing will be done. Councilman Norton opposed it bitterly, and says he will make it his business to see that the contractors live up to the letter of the contract.

ALBINA FILL UNDER WAY.-The Pacific Bridge Company has started filling up Montgomery Slough to take the place of the elevated roadway on Goldsmith street. At present dump-cars are operated from int Tabor, since the machine for tearing down the dirt from the Foster block is not ready for operation. It will take fountain all about 75,000 cubic yards of material to for liberty. complete this embankment. The roadway is now torn up and used only by street-cars and pedestrians.

MAN WHO STABBED ANOTHER BOLTS FROM OFFICERS.

Fleeing Prisoner Recaptured After Hard Chase by Police, Who Have Desperate Fight.

Availing himself of an opportunity to escape, J. Hogsel, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon upon John Hastings, dashed from the central police station at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was pursued by officers and recap-tured, after a terrific struggle at Second and Stark streets, and is being held, pending the outcome of his case.

Running at top speed along Second street, Hogsel was closely followed by Policemen John Price and Jim Anderson. As he approached the intersection of Stark, Patroiman Courtney saw him com-ing, with the blue-coated figures hot after him, and joined in the chase.

Hogsel evidently saw he could not escape, and stopped. He placed his hand in his hip pocket, and the officers feared in his hip pocket, and the officers feared he was going to draw a weapon. As he was under arrest on a charge of attempting to kill Hastings with a knife during a quarrel at St. Helens the previous evening, the policemen decided he was desperate and closed in on him with drawn clubs. He fought hard for a time, but was overpowered and handcuffed.

"Why did you try to get away?" asked Policeman Price.

"You don't blame a man for escaping if he can, do you?" replied Hogsel.

Hogsel was returned to the City Jall and placed in a cell. He will be held pending the outcome of his alleged victim's injuries. Hastings, who, worked in a logging camp conducted by S. Chapman at St. Helens, was stabbed and beaten by Hogsel during a quarrel Tuesday evening. It was at first thought a beaten by Hogsel during a quarrel Tuesday evening. It was at first thought a murder had occurred, and a posse was quickly organized by Sheriff White and search made for Hogsel.

"I started for Portland right after the fight," said Hogsel. "I saw the posse coming with lanterns. I stepped into a clump of brush by the road and waited until they had passed me, when I took another route for this city. The trouble was carted by abuse heaped upon me arm, it is alleged, by Hogsel. Hogsel went to the office of the logging company in the Lumber Exchange building yesterday morning, and the police were notified of his presence. He was taken to headquarters, and asked to be allowed to get a drink. Captain Moore

DISMISSAL IS CONFIRMED

EX-PATROLMAN THOMPSON IS NOT TO BE REINSTATED.

Civil Service Commission Finds He Insulted a Number of Young Women.

The Civil Service Commission yesterday afternoon confirmed the action of the Executive Board in the dismissal of Pa-trolman E. Thompson, recently dis-charged from the police force on the charge of insulting women. Testimony was taken yesterday morning and after-noon, and it took the members of the Commission about 15 minutes to decide the matter.

cinity of Twenty-third and Thurman streets testified that Thompson had grossly insulted them. Thompson yesterday denied that he had ever seen any of the young women, but they were positive that it was he who had accosted them on the street. It is understood that there Warren bears the reputation of an in- are several other women who assert they also were insulted by the ex-patrolman, and that their testimony was available.

The Civil Service Commission proposes to make the position of harbormaster a more responsible one than it has been, and yesterday a new classification was made. As yet no one has been appointed to fill the position of Captain Biglin, who was suspended last week. It is planned by the Commission to raise the standard of the examinations for the position, and to provide the occupant of that office with a deputy. "Our importance as a port requires that "Our importance as a port requires that we have a harbormaster who is not mere-ly a watchman," said Mayor Lans yes-terday. "We should have a man who is thoroughly conversant with the laws of navigation, and who can work in conction with the Government engin looking after the interests of the port and in keeping it in first-class condition." Hereafter the harbormaster and his aselstant will work under the direction of the Mayor and the Executive Beard. The members of the Commission believe that the salary of $100 per month is too small to secure a suitable man as harbormas-The salary cannot be increased unless the city charter is amended.

Men Soon to Come Up.

The charges of violation of rules governing acceptance of money by policemen, made by John A. Mears, exsecretary to Captain of Detectives Bruin, will be the subject of a thorough investigation by the police committee of the Executive Board at their next meeting. Chief Gritzmacher is declared by Mears to have had knowledge of fees being received in criminal cases by his officers. Mears has in his possesion, he states, the names of numerous pollcemen who are said to have received fees from the county for their services as witnesses in cases tried at the Courthouse. He declares the fees were accepted by the officers with the knowledge and consent of Chief Gritzmacher, but the latter denies the allegation, saying he only instructed that fees should be
