PARIS, Oct. 14.—Georges Villiers, the writer, discussing the memoirs of the late Chancellor von Hohenlohe in the Temps, makes the following statement, which he declares Bismarck made to an intimate friend, Moritz Busch, regarding the Chancellor's dominating influence over William I. in 1870:

versal suffrage and war. I would not have hesitated a minute. Rather, Germany than the Hohenzollerns. I should have created Germany through a republic.

Economy in British Navy. LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Standard this morning says the government proposes, before the end of this year, to remove 20 efficient ships from active duty, in order to economize on an active fleet. Four battleships of the Majestic class will be removed from the Channel fleet and two of the same class from the Mediterranean fleet. All of these will be placed in the home reserve, each with a nucleus of a crew on board.

Redmond Preaches Conciliation. COAL ISLAND, Ireland, Oct. 14.—John Redmond, in a speech here today, said he believed an overwhelming majority of the opponents of home rule for Ireland were honest, and, according to their own sense of the word, patriotic. To these he would preach the doctrine of conciliation, and he would not object to any safeguards in the home rule bill to allay their fears; but the home-rulers, he declared, would never surrender their principles nor their weapons.

MURDERS ENTIRE FAMILY YOUNG MISSOURI FARMER IS ARRESTED AND CONFESSES. Barney Parsons He Shot, and Wife and Three Children He Clubbed to Death in Brutal Manner.

HOUSTON, Mo., Oct. 14.—Barney Parsons, a farmer, his wife and three children, aged 11, 4 and 3 year, were murdered Friday near Licking, Mo. Judah Hamilton, a farmer, aged 20, has been arrested, charged with the murder. He is said to have confessed. The body of Parsons was found, shot to death, and the mother and three children had been clubbed to death. Parsons had sold his farm crops to Hamilton, and it is alleged that the men quarreled over the terms of the sale. Parsons and family got out from their former home in a covered wagon, bound for Northern Missouri. Judah Hamilton, the alleged murderer, is in the Houston Jail, strongly guarded to prevent lynching. He is said to have made a complete confession, of which the following is a summary: A timber-bordered place in the road, as Parsons and his family were driving along, they were confronted by Hamilton, armed with a shotgun. Deliberately aiming at Parsons, Hamilton discharged both barrels of the gun and Parsons fell to the ground. Hamilton then advanced upon him and clubbed him over the head with the butt end of the gun several times. He then beat the head of the mother almost to a pulp, and after killing her, clubbed him over the head with the butt end of the gun several times. The bodies of all of the five were then loaded into a wagon and taken to Big Piney Creek and dumped into the water. A party of fishermen from Houston discovered bodies of two of the children Saturday. A further search brought to light the bodies of both parents, and the body was sent to Houston. The baby's body was found today. Soon after the news had been received in Houston Hamilton rode into town on a mule that was recognized as one that belonged to Parsons. He was arrested and locked up in jail.

MARRIED, BUT DENIES IT MISS DECKER, OF PORTLAND, SAYS SHE IS NOT MRS. MANN. Daughter of Well-Known Evangelist Has Been Living at Spokane Under Two Names.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Mystery surrounding the supposed wedding of Dr. G. Burwell Mann, of Spokane, and Miss Winnie Decker, of Portland, Or., at Colfax, Wash., August 22, deepens, as both of the young people persist in denying the marriage in the face of almost conclusive circumstantial evidence. Miss Decker is the daughter of Rev. Mr. Decker, of Portland. Miss Decker is now living at the Clare rooming-house, Lincoln street. Until three weeks ago she lived at the rooming-house of Mrs. C. D. Cramer, Fourth avenue. After coming to Spokane last May she attended the Blair business college for several weeks, when she gave her correct name. Later she quit attending school and took employment at the Palace department store in the ribbon department, where she was known as Mrs. Briscoe. It was while working at the Palace that she lived at the house of Mrs. Cramer, where she was known as Mrs. Briscoe, a young widow, whose husband had been dead for two years. She is known as Miss Decker at the Clare. Miss Decker denied today that she and Dr. Mann are married, but admitted that they are engaged. She also admitted that she had lived at Mrs. Cramer's house and had worked at the Palace department store under the name of Mrs. Briscoe. "I did not want my friends in Portland to know that I was working here," she explained, "and for this reason I gave an assumed name. I had to do some kind of work to keep people from talking about me. It was not necessary for me to work for my living." "You will not admit your marriage to Dr. Mann?" she was asked. "Certainly not. According to the morning paper he denies it, and a young woman could hardly admit that she is married to a man who denies it."

QUEER RECORD IN SPOKANE. Acts There Indicate Gibson Is Mentally Unbalanced. SPOKANE, Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Captain Coverly of the Spokane police, says Will C. Gibson, about a year ago, entered Dunn's saloon, at Spokane, when Barney Boyd was the only man in the place. Gibson asked for a sheet of paper and a pen and as Boyd was stooping over the desk to get it, Gibson struck him over the head with an iron bar, knocking him to the floor. Gibson's motive for the act has never been revealed. He subsequently fled to the city, saying everything was a blank to him. Gibson was convicted, fined $50 and costs and paid the amount, or says he did, according to a conversation he had with Captain Coverly while the latter was visiting the Portland Fair.

Thousands of Freshly Unpacked Things For the Home Ready for Inspection Today in

The Homefitting Shops

On Fourth Floor. At no period in the world's history has the art of interior furnishing and decorating reached its present high standing. Art, both as to color and design, dominates the fabrics of the finer grades that go to make a room beautiful, such as carpets, rugs and drapery stuffs. The magnificent lines produced both at home and abroad, from which we have made our selection (and the lines are never shown to other dealers here until our selection is made and the goods are absolutely confined to us for Portland), augmented by our own private lines, make it possible for us to show the biggest and best assortments in the history of this store.

EXPLANATORY OF VALUES. It is a fallacy to think that, from the fact of our carrying splendid lines of the choicest merchandise, our prices are necessarily high. They are not. They are just the opposite. We sell the best of quality and the choicest of designs at exactly the same prices, if not lower, than goods of like quality are sold for elsewhere.
