REPORTS SHOW GROWTH

Allegiance Renewed With Anti-Saloon League, Also Declaration in Favor of Total Extermination of Liquor Traffic.

NEWPORT, Or., Oct. 14 .- (Special.) -The synod opened with devotional service, led by Dr. Wright, of Eastern Oregon. Elder P. C. Kinney was elected vice-moderator. The report on the college board was made by Rev. Henry T. Babcock, of Salem. Thig was followed by the report of the committee on visitation of Albany College by Rev. George Gillespie, showing the college to be in a promising condition as regards buildings, an able faculty and a goodly number of students, but sadly needing an endowment fund. President Crooks gave a forcible address before the synod regarding the importance of the institution and also of Christian educa-

Average of Three Censuses Taken as a Working Basis in Securing the Figures on the State's Inhabitants.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Labor commissioner O. P. Hoff has made a careful estimate of the population of the State of Oregon, and places the figures at 504, 649. This estimate was made with the census of 1905, the school census of 1906, the school enrollment and school attend-ance for 1906 as a basis for computation.

His table is as follows, the census for Curry, Grant, Lake and Morrow Countles for 1905 being omitted, as they have not been received:

Sheriff Beatle went to his home at Lents. Sheriff Beatle went to the scene of the reported holdup and made a thorough investigation, but upon learning that Davis had given several different descriptions of the alleged bandit the officer seriously discredited the holdup story and returned to this city. The only evidence of an attempted robbery is offeged in the wound Davis received, but the bullet barely penetrated the flesh, so it is not considered at all serious.

Congressional Campaign Begins in Earnest.

JONES TALKS IN SEATTLE

Expected to Accept the Gage Thrown Down by Samuel Gompers, President of the Federation of Labor.

SEATTLE, Oct. 14 .- (Special.) -- The Republican campaign will be opened in earnest tomorrow. There have been desultory attempts in several of the counties to start the Fall fight, but the state committee has not yet plunged into the work of the campaign. Temorrow night all the members of the Congressional campaign will be on the stump, and from that time on they will be kept out until the election.

Senator S. H. Piles is to open in Bellingham. He spends a week in the Northwest, incidentally campaigning in the San Juan-Clallam-Jefferson Sen-atorial district, where William Bishop Is making an independent fight against John L. Blair, of Friday Harbor, who won the Senatorial nomination away from him. Senator Piles is to plead party regularity, asking support for Blair.

Congressman W. L. Jones will open in Seattle, Congressman Cushman at Spokane, and Congressman Humphrey at Burlington. Interest will naturally center in Jones' opening speech, for he is expected to accept the challenge that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has issued. Congressman Jones, at the state convention, defended his position, and he will likely recall the correspondence with Gompers from the stump.

The American Federation of Labor has sent to the Workingmen's League, the political organization of the labor leaders, a statement that Jones voted against the Panama eight-hour bill, Cushman and Humphrey being absent. It is added that Humphrey belonged to the committee that reported against the Labor Union Indorses Fight.

Managers of the Workingmen's League have succeeded in securing an indorsement of their fight in King County against the Republican ticket from the Central Labor Union. Several of the delegates to the central body asked to be recorded as opposing this indorsement, but a majority not only carried the motion, but voted $100 of Central Labor Union funds to help the labor leaders' fight.

With this action as a precedent, an attempt will be made to enforce a levy upon union men to make a fight for the Democratic ticket. The principal effort will be made on legislative can-didates, but there will be an effort to at least carry through C. A. Reynolds, candidate for County Attorney. This candidate for County Attorney. This fight will not have any serious effect, for it is believed by politicians that the Republican nominee is the strongest candidate on the ticket. F

It is probable the Socialist vote will pull a big following from the Workingmen's League. The Socialists have been organizing systematically throughout the state, and are considerably stronger in Seattle than they erably stronger in Seattle than they have ever been. It would not be sur-prising if the vote of two years ago

ings, the Socialists forced the police to arrest their orators and then demanded immediate trials. This has been refused, and the Superior Court here has declined to issue a writ of mandate compelling the Police Court to hear the Socialist cases. As a result, the Socialist orators will be kept off the streets until after election.

This will not interfere seriously with the Socialist crusade, for they have leased vacant lots and halls to carry or a systematic campaign. This is the first time the Socialists have ever been able to make a systematic political fight in King County, and is the best indication of their growing strength. The Carpenters' Union is the strong-est hotbed of Socialism in Seattle, and there may be some significance in the fact that the Democrats nominated two members of that union on their legislative ticket. Both are declared to be Socialists, though Socialist leaders profess that their men will not accept nominations from other parties.

None of the members of other parties believe there is any question about the election of the Republican state ticket, and it is generally conceded that the Republican county ticket will win in King. The fight here, and as a rule throughout the state, will be on the legislative ticket.

-Campaign funds have been hard to collect, because of the feeling that Resublican success is guaranteed already, t is declared that county candidates are being over-assessed to aid questionable legislative districts. Whether this is true or not, the actual help given legislative candidates has not yet been strong enough to guarantee their success. They will have to depend largely upon their own resources. The announcement that B. A. Sea-

The announcement that B. A. Seaborg has withdrawn as an independent Senatorial candidate from the/district comprising Wakhlakum and Pacific probably guarantees the election of John W. Kleeb, the regular Republican nominee. Seaborg's candidacy was inspired by a demand on the part of the fishing interests that a man of their class be sent to the Senate. Henry McGowan, the Democratic candidate, is Gowan, the Democratic candidate, is a canneryman, but the two countles are overwhelmingly Republican, and Kleeb should be elected.

Split May Elect a Democrat.

In San Juan, Jefferson and Clallam there is a strong probability that the independent candidacy of William Bishop will elect Dr. Mead, of Port An-BOY'S HAND TORN BY A BOMB the Democratic nominee Blair, named by the Republicans, an old farmer living near Friday Harbor in San Juan County, Dr. Mead is a dentist and very popular in Clai-lam. Bishop will cut deeply into the Republican vote of Jefferson and Blair will have a very hard fight to get through. Senator Piles' mission to the three countles may aid him materially. Senator Piles, by the way, will be pretty careful not to interfere in the San Juan County fight for Repres tive between 'Gene C. Gould and William Shultz. The former is the regular Republican nominee, but Shultz' delegations did not go into the Republican convention, and Piles will avoid choos ing between two Republican candidates. The Shultz-Gould fight is an outgrowth of the bitter warfare being made against State Railroad Co sioner John S. McMillin by political
