

HUGHES GAMING, HEARST WEAKER

Local Feuds Between Democrats and Independence League.

HAVE RIVAL LOCAL TICKETS

While Supposed Supporters Fight and Knife Him, Hearst Tours State and Hughes Gathers in Labor Vote.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special).—With three weeks of the campaign over, Hughes seems to be growing stronger, while Hearst is undeniably weaker.

The Republic is a gratifying success upon the stump. Unbiased reports from the different sections which he has visited, go to show that the good effects of his calm, dispassionate arguments are lasting.

So far as the Democratic end of his fight is concerned, Hearst is in a mighty bad way, principally due to the fact that he has so many hungry lieutenants on his staff.

In Erie County, which comprises Buffalo, the Democrats and League men are both running tickets, and the Democratic leaders have openly issued orders to cut Hearst, although he leads their ticket.

On the other hand, the Independence League has no time to assail Hughes or the other Republican candidates, for they are too busy attacking the Democrats.

In Queens County, a part of New York City which includes Long Island City, there is also a feigning riot. Joseph Bernier carried the county at the recent primaries as an anti-Hearst man, but Murphy promptly had him kicked out of the state convention and seated the delegates of Joseph Cassidy, who was beaten at the polls by over 900.

In Queens County, a part of New York City which includes Long Island City, there is also a feigning riot. Joseph Bernier carried the county at the recent primaries as an anti-Hearst man, but Murphy promptly had him kicked out of the state convention and seated the delegates of Joseph Cassidy, who was beaten at the polls by over 900.

Nicholas Muller, the old-time boss of Staten Island (Richmond County) had an anti-Hearst delegation at Buffalo, but later announced that he was resigning. He has not returned to any great extent, for the League men have put up nominees for all county offices.

The situation in Richmond is further complicated by the fact that the Democrats who fought Muller at the primaries express an intention of voting for Hughes.

"We want to show that we can't deliver anything and put him in a bad odor if Hearst should be elected," they explain. None Pleased With Judges' Ticket.

The Murphy-Hearst Judiciary ticket in this county does not please anybody. The rank and file of Tammany resent the selection of Seabury and Ford, two of Hearst's biggest law attorneys. Ford, who always was a Republican, was named by the Independence League state convention for Attorney General, and promised at the convention "that he would be taken care of."

It was said at the time that a promise was made that "it would be taken care of," and it resulted in this result by being named for Supreme Court Justice, an office carrying with it a 15-year term and an annual salary of $12,500.

Tammany men, publicly say that they will "support Hearst loyally," but grave doubts are expressed on the subject, although the organization has always proclaimed itself "Republican."

With Independence League candidates running in nearly every Congressional, Senatorial and assembly district, there is confessedly a clamor upon Tammany candidates.

Hearst men are angry because three distinguished patriots were refused nominations by Tammany Hall, Clarence J. Shearn, Theodore Tilton and John Palmeri. Shearn and Palmeri wanted to be Supreme Court Judges, and Palmeri was willing to be any old kind of a Judge.

Murphy objected to all of them, however, and stuck to it. In fact several of the leaders told him they could not stand for this.

"Hearst is Hearst's personal counsel," Murphy told an emissary from the Glenside House. "He has had absolutely no legal experience except in newspaper law work. It would be an outrage to put him on the bench. Gillevan was formerly a Tammany man and put up a fight for district leader. He sold out and I can prove it. That is something we can never stand. Palmeri has always been a Republican, and if he had enough to make us take Ford, without adding to the burden. Besides, Palmeri is better fitted to be a minister than a Supreme Court Judge."

With all the various interests pulling every which way, Hearst would be badly worried if he knew exactly what is going on, and realizing how many knives are aimed for him, but his managers have given him a train of cars to play with, two private cars, and he is busily engaged in chasing about the state, making speeches everywhere. He is thoroughly satisfied that everybody is going to vote for him, and will be surprised election day if his majority isn't considerably over 30,000.

On the other hand, Hughes and Republican State Chairman Woodruff, who is a veteran campaigner, are thoroughly satisfied with the outlook, and they wouldn't be if they thought Hearst had a chance to be elected.

THE STORE'S 181st GRAND FRIDAY "ECONOMY SALE"

Bargain Friday Specials

Interesting Doings Today at Portland's Greatest Store!

"The power of words is immense. A well-chosen word has often sufficed to stop a flying army, to change defeat into victory, and to save an empire." Emile de Girardin

Would that we might use such words on this page today as would adequately express the real values told of—the ACTUAL bargain worths—would that we might fasten a sample of each article to the paragraph which tells of it!

Perhaps you haven't seen that wonderful exposition of Hood River apples from the "Beulah Land" orchards of Mr. Oscar Vanderbilt that's in a Washington-street window of the store.

President Roosevelt's Box of Apples Is There! Also the box that was to be sent to William Jennings Bryan. Mr. Vanderbilt says the Roosevelt box contains the finest apples ever grown on earth.

Split in Two Big Cities. The only places where the Democratic party has any real organization and any real adherents in New York City and Buffalo, and the "Fingy" Conners pledge, apparently, was not meant to apply to those places.
