GROWS ON THE TRAIL

Band of 100 Start for Renegade Utes' Camp.

PEACE IS THEIR MISSION

Settlers Say Trading Indians Know the Strength of the Whites and They Will Reason With the Runaways.

BUTTE Mont., Oct. 29.—A special to the Miner tonight from Sheridan, Wyo., states that considerable apprehension has arisen there over the disappearance of a band of 100 Crow Indians, who are reported to have left in the direction of the camp of the renegade Utes. What the mission of the Crows is can only be conjectured, but well-informed settlers are of the opinion that the Crows, who are traders, are well informed as to the strength of the whites, and their mission to the Utes is to dissuade them from attempting to fight the troopers.

CANNOT LIVE ON RESERVATION Utes Left to Get Food—Army Will Use Diplomacy.

GILLETTE, Wyo., Oct. 29.—Three hundred and fifty Utes, whom the United States troops have been sent to intercept, are still camped on Powder River, north of here, but are making preparations to move northward to join the Northern Cheyennes on the Crow Reservation. The Indians have already sent messengers ahead to select camping grounds and to notify the soldiers and ranchmen that they mean no harm. It is believed by old Indian fighters here that if proper diplomacy is used there is no chance of a battle with the redskins, who are inclined to be peaceable, but recent action of the Government in demanding their return to their reservation. They assert they will starve because they were dissatisfied with conditions there and would starve if compelled to remain on the reservation. They simply left for self-preservation and are going to "big water, wood, big game and live happy," as Chief Appah expresses it.

Major Grierson, in command of the Tenth Cavalry, has recommended that Indian inspectors and Sioux Indian diplomats be sent here by the Government to hold a pow-wow with the Utes and in connection with the Army to try to induce the Indians to return. Major Grierson is confident the Indians will not return to their reservation unless confronted by an overwhelming force, and will resist any small force sent against them. When the Indians are routed they will be escorted to Fort Meade, to be held pending further instructions from the War Department.

SIXTH CAVALRY ON TRAIN. Overland March Abandoned and Tenth Will Be Joined Today.

DENVER, Oct. 29.—A special to the Republican from Sheridan, Wyo., says that delay in the arrival of a part of the military will defer the expected clash between the wandering Ute Indians and soldiers. Colonel Augur, who, with the entire Sixth Cavalry, was ordered to go overland from Fort Meade, abandoned that plan and is coming over the Burlington via a part of his command. The destination of the troop train is either Sheridan or Arvada, and from train reports received tonight it should arrive some time before morning.

It is the opinion among military men here that nothing will be done until Colonel Augur arrives. It will require the Sixth until Tuesday evening to join the Tenth, now following the Indians, unless a forced march is made, and unless this is done it is not expected that a meeting between the Indians and the soldiers will happen before Wednesday.

A special messenger who arrived from the Indian camp this evening says that as he rode away from the Indians a body of 12 white civilians rode up, dismounted and were received by the Utes as though expected. They were and their purpose is a matter of conjecture here. The messenger talked with the Indians and says they are more sullen than ever and are cursing the soldiers of the Tenth Cavalry, now camped close upon their trail.

The other military commands marching overland are expected to reach the neighborhood of the camp some time tonight. TOWN SCARED BY TWO INDIANS Sturgis Fears Utes May Attack and Carry Guns.

OMAHA, Oct. 29.—A special to the Bee from Sturgis, S. D., says two Indians, believed to be scouts from the Ute band, rode into Sturgis last night, and were asking about the distance of Fort Meade from the town, the time the main body of the Sixth Cavalry left the fort and the number of men left there disappeared. The small body of troops at the fort was held in readiness for a call to action throughout the night, and the people of the town slept on their arms in the belief that a descent on the place was contemplated by the Utes. Considerable excitement still prevails.

Signal Corps Men Take Field. Young Married Men's Club Boosting Candidate.

OMAHA, Oct. 29.—General Wint, commanding the Department of the Missouri, returned today from Newport News, where he has been superintending the embarkation of troops for Cuba. General Wint at once took charge of the campaign against the Utes in Wyoming, his first order being for the dispatch of Captain Widdman with 20 men of the Signal Corps from Fort Omaha to the scene of the military operations.

Indians in Sullen Mood. Omaha, Neb., Oct. 29.—A special to the World-Herald from Sheridan, Wyo., says no meeting of soldiers and Utes has occurred yet, but that settlers who have talked with the Indians report them sullen and expressing resentment against the soldiers.

ANOTHER PERJURY CHARGE. Tailor Arrested for Slaying Mrs. Harste Met Hoce.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—The trial of Clifford Hoce, former negro coachman of Angus Hartje, millionaire paper manufacturer of this city, charged with perjury in connection with the Hartje divorce case, had a sensation today in the arrest of William de Costa, a negro tailor, immediately after he had testified that Mrs. Hartje had frequently visited his establishment for the purpose of meeting Hoce. De Costa was taken into custody by a private detective agency and an information charging perjury will be preferred against him.

Hoce on the stand maintained that he could remember nothing, in response to questions by Mr. Robb, Assistant District Attorney. The defendant's mother said that Mrs. Hartje had visited her once. Two colored preachers, Messrs. Scott and Freeman, were called and said Mrs. Carrie Hoce, defendant's mother, had told them that she had never seen Mrs. Hartje in her life. Mrs. Harste was called and after a few unimportant questions was excused. The defense then closed its sur-rebuttal and court was adjourned.

Sage Money to Build Schoolhouse. NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Village President W. E. Raymond, of Sag Harbor, L. I., has been notified on behalf of Mrs. Russell Sage that she will donate $50,000 toward the erection of a new public school building for the village. Mrs. Sage gives the school in memory of her grandparents, Colonel and Mrs. John Jermin. They were lifelong residents of the village.

The negro was in custody of Sheriff Pennington and a force of deputies, on the way to Ripley, the county seat, when overtaken by the mob.
