Troops Make Forced Marches to Find Utes Have Vanished.

CHEYENNES ARE PEACEFUL

No Signs of Their Joining Renegades—Utes Rob Army Supply Wagon and Soldiers Go Hungry—Indian Peace Envoy.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—Two officers and 24 troopers from Fort Keogh arrived at Birney today and report that no Cheyennes were encountered between Ashland and Birney. The main command of the troops is left at Ashland. The Utes are now in two main bodies, one on Bear Creek, 20 miles south of Birney, the other 40 miles further east on one of the west tributaries of Powder River. The Indians are outwitting our soldiers, whose policy appears to be to drive off or seize their ponies, so that they will be unable to travel. The Utes appear always to have information of the movements of the soldiers and when a forced march is made to a point where a band of Indians is supposed to be, the band has moved, the Indians making forced marches by night to elude the soldiers.

CAPTURE SOLDIERS' SUPPLIES

Utes Loot Wagon, While Troops Go on Short Rations.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Nov. 1.—A band of 100 Utes Indians, it is reported, today captured a wagon loaded with flour and supplies bound from Arvada to the Tenth and Sixth Cavalry. The driver was held at a rifle's muzzle, while the Cheyennes sacked the load and carried it away, allowing the driver to proceed with the troops camped at the mouth of Buffalo Creek on short rations and more food has been ordered from Little Powder River, 30 miles away. Most of the Utes are still camped near Ashland. Near Birney, soldiers north of Sheridan have seen no trace of the Cheyennes.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Nov. 1.—Further details of the raiding of a Government supply train bound for the camps of the Tenth and Sixth Cavalry from Arvada characterizes it as a very clever piece of work, evidently planned by some of the older heads of the Ute tribe. According to Driver James Forgen, no Indians were in sight until a bunch of about 30 mounted redskins suddenly dashed out of a cholla in the hills and quickly surrounded him. They made little noise outside of a few sharp yells in the nature of commands, and, while several Indians kept Forgen under their rifles, the balance looted his wagon train of 3000 pounds of flour, the sacks of which were strapped to the cayuses of the Utes, who then disappeared into the hills.

As the result of the raiding of the supply train, the troops are in need, and operations looking to a chase of the Utes are practically at a standstill until supplies can be had. More supply trains will be sent out from Ashland, and troops from Keogh with supplies are now at Ashland, on the way to the camp of the Tenth near Moorhead. The Utes have completely outwitted the military, and are now reported back in Wyoming, on Little Powder River, retracing the route by which they entered Montana. They evidently know of the arrival of troops at Ashland, and have either given up the attempt to reach the Cheyennes or are waiting for that band to meet them in some other part of the country. The Utes on Bear Creek have not moved, according to a telephone message received this afternoon.

UTES DODGE THEIR PURSUERS

Scout Discovers Renegades of Cheyenne Outbreak—Renegades Scatter.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 1.—A dispatch from Miles City, Mont., this evening, states that advances have been received at Fort Keogh of the arrival of Ashland of the Keogh troops. They saw no Utes, the renegades apparently outwitting the Montana soldiers by making a wide detour toward the Cheyenne reserve. Scout Roscup, of Birney, who is thoroughly conversant with the section of the country in which the Utes are now believed to be, does not think the renegades will be given any assistance by the Cheyennes, as four-fifths of the Cheyennes were in attendance at the recent Crow fair near Forsyth, Mont., and have had time to return and concentrate a force of armed men of any pretensions. The Cheyennes also, believes the scout, knew too well the temper of the Montana soldiers to hazard a battle with them. The exact location of the Utes now appears to be uncertain. Scouts have reported having seen bands in isolated sections, and apparently the Indians have separated under the different subchiefs to avoid giving their advance a hostile appearance.

WHITE BULL, PEACE EMBASSY

Sioux Chief Goes to Dissuade Utes From Fighting.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 1.—White Bull, one of the chiefs of the Sioux Indians, was in Sioux City today on his way to the scene of the Ute uprising in Wyoming to act as an embassy of peace. He said he was anxious to see the Utes, and he thought that he might use his influence to dissuade them from fighting.

KATSURA TO RULE COREA

It Soon Will Retire—Japan Reduces Army of Occupation.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 1.—Marquis Ito, resident general for Japan in Corea, is to return in December and Count Katsura, ex-premier, will replace him. News to this effect was given in a letter received today from a Japanese Journalist of Tokio, who is in close touch with the government. The writer said Marquis Ito is already making preparations to leave Seoul in December and will tender his resignation on returning to Japan and Count Katsura will proceed without delay to take up his work. The writer also says that half of the Japanese garrisons in Manchuria and Corea are to be recalled. The military programme comprises the augmentation of the Japanese army to 19 divisions, exclusive of the imperial guard division of Tokio. At present four divisions are main-
