

CHAUFFEURS ON GUARDFEARS' RIOT

Desperate Struggles With Police Who Protect Strike-breakers.

SHOWERS OF MISSILES FLY

Violent Fight in New York Streets Follows Virago's Call to Arms. Reservees Called and Several Men Badly Injured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A riot in which 500 striking chauffeurs and sympathizers participated occurred at Sixth avenue and Thirty-sixth street tonight. About 100 policemen were required to quell it. Many of the policemen had their helmets and uniforms ruined. Roundhead Frank J. Dunn was struck on the head by stones and seriously injured.

The police declare that the trouble was started by a young woman who urged the crowd standing in the street to break up the police protection of a passing automobile.

"Will you stand this? Go at them like men," the woman is said to have shouted. Instantly the cry was raised:

"Down with the strike-breakers! Kill the police if they interfere!"

The crowd surrounded the automobile. Stones, sticks and eggs were thrown from every direction. The police made repeated efforts to arrest men who appeared to be ringleaders, but each time a man was caught he was rescued by companions.

Late tonight three switchmen clashed between strikers and policemen. The arrival of reserve policemen saved Patrolman Isaac Levy from serious injury at the hands of a mob at Forty-eighth street and Eighth avenue. Levy was being kicked and beaten when the reserves ran up.

Charles Opp was arrested. He had been so severely handled during the fight that his ribs required his removal to the hospital. Robert Moran was also arrested. He was injured, but refused medical attendance.

REJECT SWITCHMEN'S DEMAND

Railroads Offer Increase of Two Cents Hour or Nothing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Railroad managers today informed the switchmen's union that their demand for a rise of 19 cents an hour would not be granted. The railroads declared that they would not accept an increase of 2 cents an hour or nothing. Vice-Grand Master Dodge, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, said the advance of 2 cents an hour would not be satisfactory to the men.

Strike of Railroad Clerks Grows.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 1.—The railway clerks of the Southern Pacific Railroad here walked out today. The strike of the clerks now extends from Houston to El Paso.

FOUND BY FINGER-PRINTS

Escaped British Murderer Turns Up in American Prison.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—A curious result of the recent adoption by the United States Army of the system of identification by finger prints, just reported to the War Department, was the discovery in the prison of a British murderer, for whom the Scotland Yard authorities have been looking for years. The man was a prisoner in the United States Penitentiary, serving a five-year sentence for a military crime. In prison he was well behaved and well liked, and when the war department, following the general order to take the finger print records of all soldiers, attempted to secure an impression of this man's digits, he was seized with a fit of violence, and the assistant who tried to make the record was knocked down and roughly handled.

Suspecting that this resistance was based upon the man's previous knowledge of use to which the finger-prints might be put, and that his record was bad, the warden sent copies of the prints to the police authorities in a number of cities. Within a short time Scotland Yard reported that the man had committed an atrocious murder in Malta, that he had been sentenced to life imprisonment and had escaped to America.

GUILTY OF ASSASSINATION

done, not by lynch law, but by the intelligent and wise action which betis a self-governing people.

The most conspicuous and its representative of this great and beneficent work in this state is Charles E. Hughes. The most conspicuous and its representative of this same great and beneficent work in the National Government is Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States. The first danger is that the people should refuse to return a majority of Republicans in the House of Representatives; the second danger is less in this greatest of states, the President's own state, the voters shall reject Mr. Hughes, who was the President's own choice for the nomination, and should elect to his great office an unworthy demagogue in the person of Mr. Hearst.

The immediate and necessary effect of Mr. Hearst's election would be to deprive the President of the moral support of the state of New York. It would be to strengthen the President's enemies and opponents and to weaken and embarrass him in the pursuit of his policy. It would inevitably lead to a reaction against all true reform and genuine redress of grievances.

DROPS MUD IN TORRENTS

Vesuvius Renews Devastation When Storm Sweeps Sides.

NAPLES, Nov. 1.—The eruption of Vesuvius of April has still causing devastating effects. A heavy storm, which prevailed 24 hours, caused large avalanches of mud to fall from the sides of the volcano, carrying off part of the Vesuvian railway, blocking trains along the seacoast and burying large sections of ground in the vicinity of Vesuvius.

The owners of the villages were greatly alarmed, especially as the storm was accompanied by earthquake shocks.

Postoffice Receipts Are Immense.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The report of Auditor Jardine, of the New York Postoffice, shows that the receipts for the month of October for the sale of stamps, etc., reached $1,721,969, the largest month's business in the history of the office. This is an increase of 14 1/2 per cent over the corresponding month last year. In commenting on the report Postmaster Wilcox said it showed a prosperity throughout the country that exceeded anything known in the past.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The cruiser Tennessee, which is to serve as one of the convoys to President Roosevelt on his visit to Panama, sailed today for League Island Navy-Yard today for Hampton Roads.

Your complexion, as well as your temper, is rendered miserable by a disordered liver. Immerse both by taking Carter's Little Liver Pills.

HIS CAMPAIGN OVER

Congressman Rockwood Hoar Passes Away.

ENDS ACTIVE PUBLIC LIFE

Son of Famous Senator, Who Served State and Nation in Many Positions—Candidate for Re-election to Congress.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—Representative Rockwood Hoar, of the Third Massachusetts District, son of the late Senator George F. Hoar, died tonight at his residence in this city after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Hoar since September 23 had been unable to take part in the campaign for his re-election to Congress. At the time of his nomination, when it was thought that his illness was temporary, his written letter of acceptance was presented to the district convention.

The congressman was first thought to be suffering from neuralgia, but alarming symptoms soon developed and a few days ago an operation was performed, but, in spite of this, the patient continued to fail.

The Third District Congressional Committee, which was in session at the time of Mr. Hoar's death, nominated Charles G. Washburn to fill the vacancy.

Rockwood Hoar, son of the late George F. Hoar, United States Senator, was born in Worcester, Mass., August 24, 1855. He received his elementary education in the schools of his own city, afterwards attending Harvard University, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1876. From the same institution he was given the degree of LL. B. in 1878, and A. M. one year later.

After receiving his master's degree, Mr. Hoar engaged in the practice of law in Worcester. He was Assistant District Attorney from 1884 to 1887, and occupied the office of District Attorney from 1889 to 1895 for the middle district of Massachusetts. His military career began by joining in company G, of the Fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, in which capacity he served from 1873 to 1878. He was also developing the staff of Governor Oliver Ames and Judge Advocate-General on the staff of Governor Roger Wolcott from 1887 to 1890. He was also a member of the military advisory board in his home state during the Spanish War and has latterly occupied the presidency of the Worcester Council, and a membership in Congress from the Third Massachusetts district.

In 1893, Mr. Hoar married Miss Christine Rice, daughter of William B. Rice, who was a Republican in politics and a member of the Unitarian Church. In public life he has served as trustee of Clark University, the Worcester Insane Hospital and the Worcester insane asylum.

J. G. Mossin Dies in Japan.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—Cablegrams from Yokohama announce the death in that city today of John G. Mossin, vice-president of the American National Bank of Los Angeles. Mr. Mossin, who was a capitalist and a resident in Japan for several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Don J. M. Gonzalez, Spanish Warrior

MADRID, Nov. 1.—Don Juan Manuel Gonzalez de la Pezuela, Count de Cheste, is dead at the age of 82 years. The Count was a captain-general in the Spanish army, president of the Academy and took a prominent part in the Carlist wars.

President Harrison's Brother-in-Law

OTTENWA, Ia., Nov. 1.—Thomas J. Devin, a brother-in-law of President Benjamin Harrison, died today, aged 80 years. He was married in 1829 to Sarah Harrison, who survives.

Archduke Otto of Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—Archduke Otto, second son of the Emperor's eldest brother, Karl Ludwig, died today, aged 48 years. He had been ill for the last few months.

GRAFT IN BUILDING.

new? Don't you know that the entire 18 Supervisors have confessed? And he smiled across the table to Burns. That gentleman, however, confessed that he had been "too busy in the last two days to attend the court proceedings."

"The man who disfigures me," continued Heney, "is the man who asks: 'They say there is graft, but is there?' What more evidence of graft would any man want—than the fact that the Board of Supervisors has held a secret meeting every night, and that Rue has attended?"

"Why, this man Rue is the most audacious boss that ever played the part. Horace Davis was defeated when he ran for Mayor just because it was reported that he had a single interview with Kelly in the Mint saloon; but Rue rots around the city and sat in the same box at the theater with this man."

"If any one still wonders if there really was any graft, when they make of the case of one of the Supervisors, who used to drive a hack, and now opens champagne freely? Do they think he pays for it out of his salary of $100 a month as a Supervisor?"

More Light on Puter Case.

"I see Puter has been giving Rue the benefit of his advice," said Heney. "I was thinking of that when you asked Burns why he was still busy if the evidence was completed. Puter tried to buy two of the jurors, but we had so much evidence that they didn't dare to stay tonight. People asked us why we didn't stop when he had the water over his head, instead of piling it on. We kept right on getting evidence while the trial was going on. I remember on the last day of one of the land trials, before the prosecution closed its case, one of the men against whom we had a conviction, but who had not been sentenced, offered to testify. When we put him on the stand in the afternoon, it made the other fellows look up. So there is nothing surprising in Burns' keeping busy."

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge contended that a citizen was eligible to serve if his name appeared on the assessment roll for the year preceding the summons to duty. Francis J. Heney opposed this construction of the statutes and renewed his objections to the

HIS CAMPAIGN OVER

Congressman Rockwood Hoar Passes Away.

ENDS ACTIVE PUBLIC LIFE

Son of Famous Senator, Who Served State and Nation in Many Positions—Candidate for Re-election to Congress.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—Representative Rockwood Hoar, of the Third Massachusetts District, son of the late Senator George F. Hoar, died tonight at his residence in this city after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Hoar since September 23 had been unable to take part in the campaign for his re-election to Congress. At the time of his nomination, when it was thought that his illness was temporary, his written letter of acceptance was presented to the district convention.

The congressman was first thought to be suffering from neuralgia, but alarming symptoms soon developed and a few days ago an operation was performed, but, in spite of this, the patient continued to fail.

The Third District Congressional Committee, which was in session at the time of Mr. Hoar's death, nominated Charles G. Washburn to fill the vacancy.

Rockwood Hoar, son of the late George F. Hoar, United States Senator, was born in Worcester, Mass., August 24, 1855. He received his elementary education in the schools of his own city, afterwards attending Harvard University, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1876. From the same institution he was given the degree of LL. B. in 1878, and A. M. one year later.

After receiving his master's degree, Mr. Hoar engaged in the practice of law in Worcester. He was Assistant District Attorney from 1884 to 1887, and occupied the office of District Attorney from 1889 to 1895 for the middle district of Massachusetts. His military career began by joining in company G, of the Fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, in which capacity he served from 1873 to 1878. He was also developing the staff of Governor Oliver Ames and Judge Advocate-General on the staff of Governor Roger Wolcott from 1887 to 1890. He was also a member of the military advisory board in his home state during the Spanish War and has latterly occupied the presidency of the Worcester Council, and a membership in Congress from the Third Massachusetts district.

In 1893, Mr. Hoar married Miss Christine Rice, daughter of William B. Rice, who was a Republican in politics and a member of the Unitarian Church. In public life he has served as trustee of Clark University, the Worcester Insane Hospital and the Worcester insane asylum.

J. G. Mossin Dies in Japan.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—Cablegrams from Yokohama announce the death in that city today of John G. Mossin, vice-president of the American National Bank of Los Angeles. Mr. Mossin, who was a capitalist and a resident in Japan for several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Don J. M. Gonzalez, Spanish Warrior

MADRID, Nov. 1.—Don Juan Manuel Gonzalez de la Pezuela, Count de Cheste, is dead at the age of 82 years. The Count was a captain-general in the Spanish army, president of the Academy and took a prominent part in the Carlist wars.

President Harrison's Brother-in-Law

OTTENWA, Ia., Nov. 1.—Thomas J. Devin, a brother-in-law of President Benjamin Harrison, died today, aged 80 years. He was married in 1829 to Sarah Harrison, who survives.

Archduke Otto of Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—Archduke Otto, second son of the Emperor's eldest brother, Karl Ludwig, died today, aged 48 years. He had been ill for the last few months.

GRAFT IN BUILDING.

new? Don't you know that the entire 18 Supervisors have confessed? And he smiled across the table to Burns. That gentleman, however, confessed that he had been "too busy in the last two days to attend the court proceedings."

"The man who disfigures me," continued Heney, "is the man who asks: 'They say there is graft, but is there?' What more evidence of graft would any man want—than the fact that the Board of Supervisors has held a secret meeting every night, and that Rue has attended?"

"Why, this man Rue is the most audacious boss that ever played the part. Horace Davis was defeated when he ran for Mayor just because it was reported that he had a single interview with Kelly in the Mint saloon; but Rue rots around the city and sat in the same box at the theater with this man."

"If any one still wonders if there really was any graft, when they make of the case of one of the Supervisors, who used to drive a hack, and now opens champagne freely? Do they think he pays for it out of his salary of $100 a month as a Supervisor?"

More Light on Puter Case.

"I see Puter has been giving Rue the benefit of his advice," said Heney. "I was thinking of that when you asked Burns why he was still busy if the evidence was completed. Puter tried to buy two of the jurors, but we had so much evidence that they didn't dare to stay tonight. People asked us why we didn't stop when he had the water over his head, instead of piling it on. We kept right on getting evidence while the trial was going on. I remember on the last day of one of the land trials, before the prosecution closed its case, one of the men against whom we had a conviction, but who had not been sentenced, offered to testify. When we put him on the stand in the afternoon, it made the other fellows look up. So there is nothing surprising in Burns' keeping busy."

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge contended that a citizen was eligible to serve if his name appeared on the assessment roll for the year preceding the summons to duty. Francis J. Heney opposed this construction of the statutes and renewed his objections to the

HIS CAMPAIGN OVER

Congressman Rockwood Hoar Passes Away.

ENDS ACTIVE PUBLIC LIFE

Son of Famous Senator, Who Served State and Nation in Many Positions—Candidate for Re-election to Congress.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—Representative Rockwood Hoar, of the Third Massachusetts District, son of the late Senator George F. Hoar, died tonight at his residence in this city after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Hoar since September 23 had been unable to take part in the campaign for his re-election to Congress. At the time of his nomination, when it was thought that his illness was temporary, his written letter of acceptance was presented to the district convention.

The congressman was first thought to be suffering from neuralgia, but alarming symptoms soon developed and a few days ago an operation was performed, but, in spite of this, the patient continued to fail.

The Third District Congressional Committee, which was in session at the time of Mr. Hoar's death, nominated Charles G. Washburn to fill the vacancy.

Rockwood Hoar, son of the late George F. Hoar, United States Senator, was born in Worcester, Mass., August 24, 1855. He received his elementary education in the schools of his own city, afterwards attending Harvard University, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1876. From the same institution he was given the degree of LL. B. in 1878, and A. M. one year later.

After receiving his master's degree, Mr. Hoar engaged in the practice of law in Worcester. He was Assistant District Attorney from 1884 to 1887, and occupied the office of District Attorney from 1889 to 1895 for the middle district of Massachusetts. His military career began by joining in company G, of the Fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, in which capacity he served from 1873 to 1878. He was also developing the staff of Governor Oliver Ames and Judge Advocate-General on the staff of Governor Roger Wolcott from 1887 to 1890. He was also a member of the military advisory board in his home state during the Spanish War and has latterly occupied the presidency of the Worcester Council, and a membership in Congress from the Third Massachusetts district.

In 1893, Mr. Hoar married Miss Christine Rice, daughter of William B. Rice, who was a Republican in politics and a member of the Unitarian Church. In public life he has served as trustee of Clark University, the Worcester Insane Hospital and the Worcester insane asylum.

J. G. Mossin Dies in Japan.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—Cablegrams from Yokohama announce the death in that city today of John G. Mossin, vice-president of the American National Bank of Los Angeles. Mr. Mossin, who was a capitalist and a resident in Japan for several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Don J. M. Gonzalez, Spanish Warrior

MADRID, Nov. 1.—Don Juan Manuel Gonzalez de la Pezuela, Count de Cheste, is dead at the age of 82 years. The Count was a captain-general in the Spanish army, president of the Academy and took a prominent part in the Carlist wars.

President Harrison's Brother-in-Law

OTTENWA, Ia., Nov. 1.—Thomas J. Devin, a brother-in-law of President Benjamin Harrison, died today, aged 80 years. He was married in 1829 to Sarah Harrison, who survives.

Archduke Otto of Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—Archduke Otto, second son of the Emperor's eldest brother, Karl Ludwig, died today, aged 48 years. He had been ill for the last few months.

GRAFT IN BUILDING.

new? Don't you know that the entire 18 Supervisors have confessed? And he smiled across the table to Burns. That gentleman, however, confessed that he had been "too busy in the last two days to attend the court proceedings."

"The man who disfigures me," continued Heney, "is the man who asks: 'They say there is graft, but is there?' What more evidence of graft would any man want—than the fact that the Board of Supervisors has held a secret meeting every night, and that Rue has attended?"

"Why, this man Rue is the most audacious boss that ever played the part. Horace Davis was defeated when he ran for Mayor just because it was reported that he had a single interview with Kelly in the Mint saloon; but Rue rots around the city and sat in the same box at the theater with this man."

"If any one still wonders if there really was any graft, when they make of the case of one of the Supervisors, who used to drive a hack, and now opens champagne freely? Do they think he pays for it out of his salary of $100 a month as a Supervisor?"

More Light on Puter Case.

"I see Puter has been giving Rue the benefit of his advice," said Heney. "I was thinking of that when you asked Burns why he was still busy if the evidence was completed. Puter tried to buy two of the jurors, but we had so much evidence that they didn't dare to stay tonight. People asked us why we didn't stop when he had the water over his head, instead of piling it on. We kept right on getting evidence while the trial was going on. I remember on the last day of one of the land trials, before the prosecution closed its case, one of the men against whom we had a conviction, but who had not been sentenced, offered to testify. When we put him on the stand in the afternoon, it made the other fellows look up. So there is nothing surprising in Burns' keeping busy."

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge contended that a citizen was eligible to serve if his name appeared on the assessment roll for the year preceding the summons to duty. Francis J. Heney opposed this construction of the statutes and renewed his objections to the

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge contended that a citizen was eligible to serve if his name appeared on the assessment roll for the year preceding the summons to duty. Francis J. Heney opposed this construction of the statutes and renewed his objections to the

HIS CAMPAIGN OVER

Congressman Rockwood Hoar Passes Away.

ENDS ACTIVE PUBLIC LIFE

Son of Famous Senator, Who Served State and Nation in Many Positions—Candidate for Re-election to Congress.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—Representative Rockwood Hoar, of the Third Massachusetts District, son of the late Senator George F. Hoar, died tonight at his residence in this city after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Hoar since September 23 had been unable to take part in the campaign for his re-election to Congress. At the time of his nomination, when it was thought that his illness was temporary, his written letter of acceptance was presented to the district convention.

The congressman was first thought to be suffering from neuralgia, but alarming symptoms soon developed and a few days ago an operation was performed, but, in spite of this, the patient continued to fail.

The Third District Congressional Committee, which was in session at the time of Mr. Hoar's death, nominated Charles G. Washburn to fill the vacancy.

Rockwood Hoar, son of the late George F. Hoar, United States Senator, was born in Worcester, Mass., August 24, 1855. He received his elementary education in the schools of his own city, afterwards attending Harvard University, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1876. From the same institution he was given the degree of LL. B. in 1878, and A. M. one year later.

After receiving his master's degree, Mr. Hoar engaged in the practice of law in Worcester. He was Assistant District Attorney from 1884 to 1887, and occupied the office of District Attorney from 1889 to 1895 for the middle district of Massachusetts. His military career began by joining in company G, of the Fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, in which capacity he served from 1873 to 1878. He was also developing the staff of Governor Oliver Ames and Judge Advocate-General on the staff of Governor Roger Wolcott from 1887 to 1890. He was also a member of the military advisory board in his home state during the Spanish War and has latterly occupied the presidency of the Worcester Council, and a membership in Congress from the Third Massachusetts district.

In 1893, Mr. Hoar married Miss Christine Rice, daughter of William B. Rice, who was a Republican in politics and a member of the Unitarian Church. In public life he has served as trustee of Clark University, the Worcester Insane Hospital and the Worcester insane asylum.

J. G. Mossin Dies in Japan.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—Cablegrams from Yokohama announce the death in that city today of John G. Mossin, vice-president of the American National Bank of Los Angeles. Mr. Mossin, who was a capitalist and a resident in Japan for several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Don J. M. Gonzalez, Spanish Warrior

MADRID, Nov. 1.—Don Juan Manuel Gonzalez de la Pezuela, Count de Cheste, is dead at the age of 82 years. The Count was a captain-general in the Spanish army, president of the Academy and took a prominent part in the Carlist wars.

President Harrison's Brother-in-Law

OTTENWA, Ia., Nov. 1.—Thomas J. Devin, a brother-in-law of President Benjamin Harrison, died today, aged 80 years. He was married in 1829 to Sarah Harrison, who survives.

Archduke Otto of Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—Archduke Otto, second son of the Emperor's eldest brother, Karl Ludwig, died today, aged 48 years. He had been ill for the last few months.

GRAFT IN BUILDING.

new? Don't you know that the entire 18 Supervisors have confessed? And he smiled across the table to Burns. That gentleman, however, confessed that he had been "too busy in the last two days to attend the court proceedings."

"The man who disfigures me," continued Heney, "is the man who asks: 'They say there is graft, but is there?' What more evidence of graft would any man want—than the fact that the Board of Supervisors has held a secret meeting every night, and that Rue has attended?"

"Why, this man Rue is the most audacious boss that ever played the part. Horace Davis was defeated when he ran for Mayor just because it was reported that he had a single interview with Kelly in the Mint saloon; but Rue rots around the city and sat in the same box at the theater with this man."

"If any one still wonders if there really was any graft, when they make of the case of one of the Supervisors, who used to drive a hack, and now opens champagne freely? Do they think he pays for it out of his salary of $100 a month as a Supervisor?"

More Light on Puter Case.

"I see Puter has been giving Rue the benefit of his advice," said Heney. "I was thinking of that when you asked Burns why he was still busy if the evidence was completed. Puter tried to buy two of the jurors, but we had so much evidence that they didn't dare to stay tonight. People asked us why we didn't stop when he had the water over his head, instead of piling it on. We kept right on getting evidence while the trial was going on. I remember on the last day of one of the land trials, before the prosecution closed its case, one of the men against whom we had a conviction, but who had not been sentenced, offered to testify. When we put him on the stand in the afternoon, it made the other fellows look up. So there is nothing surprising in Burns' keeping busy."

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge contended that a citizen was eligible to serve if his name appeared on the assessment roll for the year preceding the summons to duty. Francis J. Heney opposed this construction of the statutes and renewed his objections to the

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge contended that a citizen was eligible to serve if his name appeared on the assessment roll for the year preceding the summons to duty. Francis J. Heney opposed this construction of the statutes and renewed his objections to the

HIS CAMPAIGN OVER

Congressman Rockwood Hoar Passes Away.

ENDS ACTIVE PUBLIC LIFE

Son of Famous Senator, Who Served State and Nation in Many Positions—Candidate for Re-election to Congress.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—Representative Rockwood Hoar, of the Third Massachusetts District, son of the late Senator George F. Hoar, died tonight at his residence in this city after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Hoar since September 23 had been unable to take part in the campaign for his re-election to Congress. At the time of his nomination, when it was thought that his illness was temporary, his written letter of acceptance was presented to the district convention.

The congressman was first thought to be suffering from neuralgia, but alarming symptoms soon developed and a few days ago an operation was performed, but, in spite of this, the patient continued to fail.

The Third District Congressional Committee, which was in session at the time of Mr. Hoar's death, nominated Charles G. Washburn to fill the vacancy.

Rockwood Hoar, son of the late George F. Hoar, United States Senator, was born in Worcester, Mass., August 24, 1855. He received his elementary education in the schools of his own city, afterwards attending Harvard University, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1876. From the same institution he was given the degree of LL. B. in 1878, and A. M. one year later.

After receiving his master's degree, Mr. Hoar engaged in the practice of law in Worcester. He was Assistant District Attorney from 1884 to 1887, and occupied the office of District Attorney from 1889 to 1895 for the middle district of Massachusetts. His military career began by joining in company G, of the Fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, in which capacity he served from 1873 to 1878. He was also developing the staff of Governor Oliver Ames and Judge Advocate-General on the staff of Governor Roger Wolcott from 1887 to 1890. He was also a member of the military advisory board in his home state during the Spanish War and has latterly occupied the presidency of the Worcester Council, and a membership in Congress from the Third Massachusetts district.

In 1893, Mr. Hoar married Miss Christine Rice, daughter of William B. Rice, who was a Republican in politics and a member of the Unitarian Church. In public life he has served as trustee of Clark University, the Worcester Insane Hospital and the Worcester insane asylum.

J. G. Mossin Dies in Japan.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—Cablegrams from Yokohama announce the death in that city today of John G. Mossin, vice-president of the American National Bank of Los Angeles. Mr. Mossin, who was a capitalist and a resident in Japan for several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Don J. M. Gonzalez, Spanish Warrior

MADRID, Nov. 1.—Don Juan Manuel Gonzalez de la Pezuela, Count de Cheste, is dead at the age of 82 years. The Count was a captain-general in the Spanish army, president of the Academy and took a prominent part in the Carlist wars.

President Harrison's Brother-in-Law

OTTENWA, Ia., Nov. 1.—Thomas J. Devin, a brother-in-law of President Benjamin Harrison, died today, aged 80 years. He was married in 1829 to Sarah Harrison, who survives.

Archduke Otto of Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—Archduke Otto, second son of the Emperor's eldest brother, Karl Ludwig, died today, aged 48 years. He had been ill for the last few months.

GRAFT IN BUILDING.

new? Don't you know that the entire 18 Supervisors have confessed? And he smiled across the table to Burns. That gentleman, however, confessed that he had been "too busy in the last two days to attend the court proceedings."

"The man who disfigures me," continued Heney, "is the man who asks: 'They say there is graft, but is there?' What more evidence of graft would any man want—than the fact that the Board of Supervisors has held a secret meeting every night, and that Rue has attended?"

"Why, this man Rue is the most audacious boss that ever played the part. Horace Davis was defeated when he ran for Mayor just because it was reported that he had a single interview with Kelly in the Mint saloon; but Rue rots around the city and sat in the same box at the theater with this man."

"If any one still wonders if there really was any graft, when they make of the case of one of the Supervisors, who used to drive a hack, and now opens champagne freely? Do they think he pays for it out of his salary of $100 a month as a Supervisor?"

More Light on Puter Case.

"I see Puter has been giving Rue the benefit of his advice," said Heney. "I was thinking of that when you asked Burns why he was still busy if the evidence was completed. Puter tried to buy two of the jurors, but we had so much evidence that they didn't dare to stay tonight. People asked us why we didn't stop when he had the water over his head, instead of piling it on. We kept right on getting evidence while the trial was going on. I remember on the last day of one of the land trials, before the prosecution closed its case, one of the men against whom we had a conviction, but who had not been sentenced, offered to testify. When we put him on the stand in the afternoon, it made the other fellows look up. So there is nothing surprising in Burns' keeping busy."

DEFENDING RUEF'S JURORS

Boss's Lawyer Argues All Day, but Makes No Headway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Argument dealing with the qualifications of the jurors and the manner of their selection consumed nearly the entire session of the Superior Court this afternoon. Attorney S. M. Shorrbridge cont