WOULD FORM LODGE

Colored Men Plan to Organize, Dubbing Themselves Elks.
 CALL NEW ORDER I. B. O. E.
 Organizer Comes This Week to Admit Fifty to Membership—Real Elks Are Somewhat Annoyed Over Prospects.

Portland Elks are somewhat annoyed since they have learned that there is a movement on foot to form a local I. B. O. E. lodge. About 50 young colored men have agreed to become members of the "Elks" lodge that is being organized, and declare that they can already feel the spirit of Elkdom working in their blood.
 Waiters, Pullman car porters and the other aristocrats of the colored population are the ones who are longing to become Elks. It may not be long before they will be boasting buttons showing elk's heads and wearing elk's teeth dangling from their watch chains.
 There are approximately 500 lodges of colored Elks in the United States. They are in no way affiliated with the I. B. O. E. The colored Elks call their order the I. B. O. E. The lodge in Chicago has nearly 1000 members and owns its own building, Salt Lake, Denver and some of the other cities of the West have their colored Elks and the colored "sports" of Portland declare that this city is behind the times and they are anxious to do what they can to make it up-to-date.
 Sam Washington is directly responsible for the agitation. Washington has been running in and out of Portland on sleeping cars for about 15 years and anyone who has traveled much in the Northwest knows him. He had the reputation of perhaps being the most popular porter who ever ran into this city.
 But Sam has social aspirations and no small amount of ambition. He is a humanitarian in a way and works to uplift the social standard of his race. Six months ago he resigned his job as a porter and opened up a saloon here. This third party has considerable tone and is patronized almost exclusively by the "blooms". All the "railroaders," the porters call themselves, make their headquarters at The Alpha, where

WILL FIGHT LADD PLAN

BROOKLYN TAXPAYERS WANT STREET IMPROVED.
 Councilman Rushlight Will Have Strong Backing in Demanding Opening of East Ninth.
 Councilman Rushlight, backed by the property owners of the Brooklyn district on the East Side, will make a fight against delay in the improvement of East Ninth street across the Ladd field. He was not present at the meeting of the Street Committee when the matter was under consideration, or he would have been heard from, he says, when it was suggested that the improvement be stopped, or even delayed. Property owners on East Ninth street south of Ellsworth have just paid out over $300 for the improvement of that street, and think it should be extended across the Ladd field. They say that they will insist on this improvement as just to them and that whole district.
 A delegation of property owners from Brooklyn will be present at the meeting of the council Wednesday and protest against any delay in improving East Ninth street through the Ladd tract, that has grown valuable for the reason that they have improved streets and property all around it.
 L. S. Daux, president of the Brooklyn Republican-Improvement Club, said last evening that he strongly indorsed the plan to protest against suspending improvement through the Ladd tract, and will assist in forming a delegation to attend the council Wednesday.

BUT HE STILL LOVES HER

C. F. Sutton Tells Where His Wife Is to Blame for Trouble.
 Charles F. Sutton, the Lents barber, who is confined in the County Jail on account of inability to furnish bonds to keep the peace of his wife, and who was recently sued for divorce by her, has written a letter to The Oregonian concerning his grievances. In this communication Sutton attributes most of his trouble to his wife's penchant for neglecting their home, as well as a fondness for frequenting popular resorts, and declares that he had refrained from indulgence in intoxicating liquors for seven months up to the time the discovery of his wife's actions prompted him to resort to strong drink to drown his grief.
 Sutton also lays considerable blame for his domestic infelicity on his wife's relatives, and states in his letter that he never had any trouble with his wife until her folks came here three years ago. He says they are bitterly opposed to liquor, for which he does not blame them, but insists that they carried their temperance ideas too far, with the result that their constant interference in his domestic affairs led him to indulge worse than ever.
 A vigorous denial is made of his wife's charge of cruelty in her complaint, in being avowed that on the witness stand, at the time the proceedings were being held in court to compel Sutton to keep the peace of his wife, she had testified that he had never struck her.
 He also declares that since his incarceration his wife and father-in-law have had their home transferred from him, and that "after trampling upon a heart that loves her still, she has crushed it in her hands to a bleeding pulp and cast it into prison."
 A certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.
 Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used the remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon getting when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.

BUILDING AT SELLWOOD

First Brick Block Is Being Erected in Thriving Suburb.
 At Sellwood the first brick building is under way on the corner of East Thirtieth street and Tacoma avenue. It will be a two-story structure with a full basement and will cost $3000. Excavation for the basement has been completed. William Strahlman has the honor of erecting the first brick structure in that part of Portland. It is understood that one of the rooms of the first floor will house the new bank soon to be started in Sellwood.
 D. M. Donaghu, who owns the southwest corner of East Thirtieth street and Union avenue, announces that he will put up on this corner a modern brick structure covering the whole quarter, work to start in the Spring. The Sellwood Branch Y. M. C. A. has secured a lot on Umattilla avenue, and in time will put up a two-story building, which will contain a gymnasium, showers, baths, library, reception and other apartments.

ST. JOHNS MILL ASSURED

CHARLES WEYERHAEUSER COMING HERE TO LIVE.
 Big Timber Syndicate Preparing to Begin Operation in This Section on Large Scale.
 Charles Weyerhaeuser, son of Frederick Weyerhaeuser, the timber king, will come to Portland next Spring to reside permanently. This fact is accepted by local lumbermen as conclusive evidence that the Weyerhaeuser syndicate will shortly erect the long-talked-of sawmill on its site near St. Johns. It is known that Charles Weyerhaeuser has an option on one of the finest residences in Portland, and he and his family are making preparations to leave St. Paul to become residents of the Roce City.
 The interests of the syndicate have been growing larger and larger each year, and have become so extensive as to warrant one of the heads of the gigantic corporation giving his exclusive time to this field. It is also understood that the syndicate is making preparations to begin cutting in the Northwest on a large scale and it is generally believed that it is only a matter of a few months before work on the sawmill at St. Johns will be started.
 It is an open secret that the Weyerhaeusers long have intended to build at St. Johns a sawmill that will be one of the largest, if not the largest, mills on the Pacific Coast. The sum to be expended on the mill alone will be $1,000,000 or more. Members of the syndicate have never denied that they will erect a sawmill at St. Johns, and have stated that they have been holding the site there for that purpose.
 J. P. Weyerhaeuser, the eldest son of Frederick Weyerhaeuser, is now a guest at the Hotel Portland. He is traveling alone and is enroute to Idaho, where he personally has large interests. He is associated with his father, and besides has many large timber holdings of his own. His health is not good at present. He will leave tonight or tomorrow for Boise. Charles Weyerhaeuser, who will come to Portland to live, is stated to succeed his father at the head of the syndicate. He is possessed of more than ordinary business ability and much of the care and responsibility of managing the business of the syndicate has already fallen upon him.
 Socialist Literature.
 WOODSTOCK, Or., Nov. 4.—(To the Editor.)—It is almost impossible to answer your question, "What is Socialism?" through a newspaper, although The Oregonian has been very generous in allowing space for this purpose. I will say to any one who honestly desires to acquire

CONDEMN THE LANDLORDS

Speakers at People's Forum Discuss the Rent System.
 Landlords were out of place at the People's Forum last night when the land question was argued pro and con by speakers who took part in the general discussion. Half a dozen speakers poured hot shot into the persons who make themselves felt when the first of the month rolls round.
 Mrs. Abigail Scott Duntway was the lone champion of the much-abused landlord, and she only stood up for the widow who is dependent upon the rent derived from her holdings. Taken all in all, the discussion was interesting, and if there were landlords present last night they undoubtedly enjoyed it as much as anybody.
 E. H. S. Wood was the principal speaker. He pointed out the danger of centralization of power, whether in private individuals or in the government. While he expressed the highest admiration and regard for President Roosevelt, he stated that the President was making a grave mistake in allowing the National Government too much power over the public domain.
 "Centralization of power means tyranny under any system," he declared. "We have to be managed by bureaus at reform and gains the confidence of the people is able to establish precedents that may be used later on by a tyrant to enslave the people."
 "Because of the popularity of President Roosevelt, we are falling all over ourselves to make this very mistake. Our lands are to be managed by bureaus at Washington. While apparently all right now, the evil is sure to crop out. The fundamental principles of liberty have been violated, and when we haven't a good man at the helm of the ship of state, big grafting plutocrats will own and control these bureaus at Washington."
 The attendance at the meetings of the People's Forum is constantly increasing. The meetings are held every Sunday night at the Sellig-Hirsch Hall. Last night C. C. Chapman presided, in the absence of E. B. J. McAllister, the president.
 Killed by Falling Log.
 SUMPTER, Or., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—George Hall, the oldest son of Mrs. Sara Hall, was killed instantly yesterday morning, while working on the right of way of the Fremont-Tower Company, near the Monumental mine, by being struck on the head by a falling log. His mother is a widow.

 Fighting the Beef Trust
 We are using three times our former space, three times as many clerks, and putting up three times as hard a fight against the trust.
 Will the public kindly take notice that those people who have stolen our motto of "Fighting the Beef Trust" are simply concerns who are controlled by the beef trust. They are giving the people trust meat and are playing a bulldoze game on the public. Smith is the only genuine trust fighter, the only independent slaughterer and wholesaler in the city.
