

POTATOES OFF

Excessive Supplies Sent South Break Prices.

SLUMP ONLY TEMPORARY

Good Values Can Be Expected for Choice Stock During Most of the Season, But Poor Potatoes Will Be Hard to Move.

POTATOES—Prices lower and demand small. WHEAT—Weekly grain statistics. FRUIT—Good demand for fresh produce.

The potato market is suffering from one of those slumps that frequently occur during the shipping season when quantities are forwarded to the consuming markets in the South in excess of the demand. Buyers are generally out of the market now and those that are in it are operating cautiously.

Wheat prices are lower and demand small. The market is weak and prices are expected to remain so for some time.

BRINK DEMAND FOR OREGON HOPS

The week started with a good show of business in the hop market. Reports were received of the transfers of over 1000 bales and it is believed that other lots were sold that were not reported.

WHEAT MARKET FAIRLY ACTIVE

A moderate amount of business is reported in the wheat market at generally steady prices. The export flour demand is less active.

AMERICAN VISIBLE SUPPLY

Table with columns for Nov. 5, 1906, and Nov. 4, 1906, showing bushels and increases for various commodities like wheat, corn, and oats.

WORLD'S SHIPMENTS EXPORTING COUNTRIES

Table showing world's shipments for flour, wheat, and other commodities for the week ending Nov. 27, 1906.

Good Demand for Fruit

In spite of the storm weather there is a first-class demand for fruits and vegetables in the afternoon and a good volume of business was done.

Bank Clearings

Table showing bank clearings for Portland, Astoria, and other locations for the week ending Nov. 27, 1906.

Egg Market Active

The egg market is active with fresh eggs. Prices are steady and demand is good.

PORTLAND QUOTATIONS

Grain, Flour, Feed, Etc. WHEAT—Export basis: Club 64; Gray 65; Valley 66; Red 67; etc.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET

Prices Current Locally on Cattle, Sheep and Hogs. The following livestock prices were quoted in the local market yesterday.

Eastern Livestock. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5.—Cattle—Receipts, 17,000; market, 1000; choice, $12.00; etc.

Vegetables, Fruits, Etc. DOMESTIC FRUITS—Apples, common to choice, 20 to 25; peaches, 15 to 20; etc.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Cattle—Receipts, 28,000; market, 1000; choice, $12.00; etc.

QUOTATIONS AT SAN FRANCISCO. Prices Paid for Produce in the Bay City Markets. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The following prices were quoted in the produce market yesterday.

FRUIT—Apples, choice, $1.25; common, 75c; peaches, 1.00; etc.

Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Etc. BUTTER—City creameries: Extra creamery, 20c; standard, 18c; etc.

CHICKENS—Oregon local: Hens, 1.00; cockerels, 80c; etc.

COFFEE—Oregon local: No. 1, 15c; No. 2, 14c; etc.

Wool, Hides, Etc. WOOL—Fall Humboldt and Mendocino, 10c; etc.

MINING STOCKS. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Official quotations for mining stocks today were as follows:

AMERICAN COPPER, 100; BANNER, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

WHEAT, 100; CORN, 100; OATS, 100; etc.

RESTRAINT IN MARKET DUE TO THE HARDENING OF MONEY.

CLOSING VERY IRREGULAR

Coming Election Holiday Also Checks Trading—Influence on Speculation of London Financial Situation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

STOCKS

RESTRAINT IN MARKET DUE TO THE HARDENING OF MONEY.

CLOSING VERY IRREGULAR

Coming Election Holiday Also Checks Trading—Influence on Speculation of London Financial Situation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

STOCKS

RESTRAINT IN MARKET DUE TO THE HARDENING OF MONEY.

CLOSING VERY IRREGULAR

Coming Election Holiday Also Checks Trading—Influence on Speculation of London Financial Situation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

The action of the money market was a disagreeable surprise as the passing of the November settlements had been expected to result in some return of money to the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Operations in stocks were under some restraint today principally to a hardening of the market for money, but partly also to the effect of the election holiday, causing inevitable dislocations in the market.

DWIGHT HOPKINS CO.

ESTABLISHED 1865. BROKERS. STOCKS, BONDS, GRAIN. Bought and sold for cash and on margin.

VIA BILLINGS

The Burlington Route's Service to Lincoln, St. Joseph, Kansas City and St. Louis is a thru service; only one change of cars to Denver, Omaha and Chicago.

Two complete daily trains, with all classes of modern cars, including Standard and Tourist sleepers, coaches, chair cars, (seats free) and diners.

Let me tell you about the service. R. W. FOSTER, Ticket Agent C. B. & Q. Ry. 100 Third Street, Portland.

Wheat Traders Backward Because of Holiday Today. CHICAGO MARKET IS WEAK.

Wheat prices are lower and demand small. The market is weak and prices are expected to remain so for some time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Butter, firm, street prices steady. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Cotton futures closed steady at a decline of 7 1/2 points. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Coffee futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Sugar futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Wool futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Hides futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Grain futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Oil futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Lumber futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Iron and steel futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Copper futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Zinc futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Lead futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Tin futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Nickel futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Silver futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Gold futures closed steady at a decline of 1/2 point. The market is active and prices are generally steady.