

REPUBLICANS WIN IN WASHINGTON

Supreme Justices and Congressmen Elected by Majorities Close to 20,000.

VOTING IS VERY LIGHT

Wesley L. Jones, Threatened by President Gompers, of the American Federation, Runs Ahead of His Associates.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET ELECTED.

Supreme Judges (six years)—Wallace, Mount, Ralph C. Dunbar.
Supreme Judges (two years)—Herman D. Crow, Milo Root.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special).—The Republican Congressional and judicial tickets have carried Washington by majorities that will run close to 20,000. This is a remarkable showing, in view of the fact that the vote cast will run 50 to 55 per cent of that returned two years ago. Both parties, though, seem to have suffered almost equally. The Socialists alone kept up a good showing of strength. Coupled with the election of the Congressional and judicial tickets is the certainty that Republicans will not lose more than nine or ten members of the Legislature. Two of these may have been lost in Kings County and the rest are scattered. Complete returns have not yet come in from Pierce, Chelan, and Spokane counties. Both of them are likely to lose one Republican member apiece, and the Republican State Committee at midnight estimates that the Democrats are likely to elect a total of ten. County tickets in Western Washington were uniformly successful.

Because of the scattered precincts and the hard fight made, definite returns will not be available from Jefferson for a day or two. But reports from Snohomish, Island, Pierce, King, Kitsap, Thurston, Chehalis, Cowlitz and Clallam show the complete Republican county tickets were elected. No matter which of the San Juan County factions wins out, the ticket will be Republican for the entire state is between Republican factions.

Rain Keeps City Voters at Home.

The heavy falling off in the total vote feared by Republican managers to indicate the defeat of their tickets was due as much to the rain that prevailed throughout the day as it was to apathy, that has been apparent throughout the campaign. All through the day, heavy rain and severe storms prevailed, but it is a singular fact that the former vote was less than that of the inclement weather than the city residents.

The county shows a better proportion of its strength in the returns than do the city districts, where comparatively little convenience has been suffered. The voters gotten out. Congressman W. L. Jones was not hurt at all by the threat of revenue made by Samuel Gompers on behalf of the American Federation of Labor. In the strongest labor districts he runs with Congressmen Humphrey and Cushman, and sympathy with Jones in the fight that was made on him has given him extra strength in the residence districts of the business and professional men and office employees. Reports tonight from Eastern Washington indicate that Jones may lead the Congressional ticket when all totals are received.

Justices Run Behind Ticket.

Justices Crow and Root have been cut slightly, and the judicial ticket as a whole runs behind the Congressional candidates. Crow and Root felt slightly labor attack made upon them, and they lacked the prestige of Wallace Mount and R. O. Dunbar, who had four extra years of service on the bench to their credit.

The estimate of 20,000 plurality for the Congressional ticket, made tonight by the Republican State Committee, and verified by newspaper reports, will not be fully realized by the judicial ticket. The Supreme Court nominees will not run much behind.

In King County, where an alliance was made between the Democrats and labor organizations, Republican managers expected a stiff fight, and during the last few days of the campaign have been fearful that they might lose one or two county candidates and at least two Senatorial nominees. The labor fight did not show the strength that was anticipated.

Entire Ticket Elected in King.

Instead of losing any county nominees, the entire King County Republican ticket is elected. All the nominees for State Senator have been elected, unless E. M. Williams or Joseph Lyons may be beaten. Incomplete returns indicate that Williams will pull through, but Lyons' fight will be in doubt until the full vote is counted, and that will not be completed until some time tomorrow morning. If Lyons is beaten, Henry Beck, candidate for State Representative, is also lost.

Significant of the King County fight is the fact that George U. Piper, beaten four years ago by Mayor William Hickman Moore, won out by a majority now closely estimated to be 10,000. He is a splendid organization for his fight, and won in the residence precincts of his district. The interview that Piper fought four years ago supported him this year. Despite this fact, he was bitterly denounced by the newspapers, and his victory is a personal vote of confidence.

State Senator W. G. Potts wins out over much the same odds in the strongest labor district of the county.

Revenge of Millmen.

Curiously enough, the hardest Pierce County fight was in the Twenty-sixth District, where E. D. Hamilton represented the upper house during his lifetime. Though the Republican managers claim the election of Ralph Metcalfe, a full ticket will be necessary to satisfy Ernest Lister's friends that he has not a chance. If the cut on Metcalfe is traced down, it would not be surprising to find that the mill employees had rounded on him.

Metcalfe was in the front of the fight of the shingle manufacturers against the Weavers' Union last Summer, and the manufacturers finally succeeded in disrupting the organization. There are more than a dozen mills in Metcalfe's district and the vote of the ex-union men, if it could be traced, might be expected to be found against him. Then, too, Metcalfe handled the unsuccessful candidacy of R. L. McCormick for Mayor of Tacoma last Spring and there is left a healthy trace of anti-McCormick feeling.

The district is so scattered that the meager returns indicating the election of John L. Blair for joint Senator in the 21st district cannot be accepted. The district comprises Clallam, Jefferson and San Juan Counties and there is not a single county in the three that has ad-quate transportation or telephone facilities. The precincts are all widely scattered. In fact, there are precincts in Jefferson that must report to the county seat by way of Aberdeen and a trip through Chehalis, Mason, Thurston, Pierce and King Counties before Port Townsend is reached. It will be days before the report is received.

San Juan is a group of islands and Clallam is cut in two by a mountain range. So meager first reports do not necessarily mean much, especially as this was a three-cornered and exceedingly bitter fight.

Mason County, though it went 90 for the Congressional and judicial tickets, lost three Republican officers, including the County Attorney. Beach was unopposed for the Legislature.

Republicans expected to lose at least one member of the House from Skagit County, for the Democrats were making an aggressive fight for two places. But reports up to 12:30 o'clock indicate that the Skagit County Republican ticket, with the possible exception of one County Commissioner, has been elected.

Whatcom County elected the entire Republican county and legislative tickets. J. W. Romaine, who was substituted for J. J. Neethe on the legislative ticket at the last moment, pulled through by a plurality of over 700 votes.

The Schultz, or Independent Republican ticket, in San Juan county, carried every precinct in the county against John S. McMullen's regular Republican ticket. Schultz even swept Roach Harbor, where

GILLETT HAS LEAD

Probably Elected Governor of California by 10,000.

WINS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Legislature Will Be Republican and the Entire Congressional Delegation of Eight Will Probably Be Republican.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—From meager returns received from various sections of the state up to 10 P. M., Gillett, Republican, for Governor, is probably elected by about 10,000 majority, with Bell, Democrat and Union Labor, second, and Langdon, Independence League, third.

WHERE HEARST WENT IN AND WHERE HE CAME OUT

McMullen's line works are located, by a majority of five. He pulled his entire county ticket through with him. The victory of Bell in San Juan County is the outcome of bitter quarrel between the Henry Cowell and John S. McMullen interests over the control of the Tacoma and Roach Harbor lime quarries. Schultz was a former employee of McMullen, but quarreled and left him. He has led a local fight against McMullen to break his political power in San Juan County.

Schultz and McMullen had personal investments together that led to their break. In an effort to beat Schultz, McMullen nominated Gene Gould, of Friday Harbor, as representative. Gould is a banker who has differed with McMullen the past several years because he could bring in new strength.

McMullen took half a dozen state speakers into San Juan County to help him and jumped the county winner. He feared losing the county would injure his standing as State Railroad Commissioner, a political appointment.

KALAMA KEEPS COUNTY SEAT

Results in the County Ticket in Cowlitz Are Mixed.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., Nov. 7.—(Special).—Returns from the different precincts in Cowlitz county indicate that a mixed ticket has been elected, owing to antagonism of members of the county and state central committees and the split on the county question. The county Republicans at this hour, 1 A. M., seem sure of election are: Representative Kirby, Sheriff Wood and Bell for Surrogate. As to removal of the county seat, the indications are that Kalama will retain her hold.

Miss Burcham, the Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Schools, seems to have defeated W. O. Powell, the Republican nominee, by an overwhelming majority. Most of the other candidates are running pretty close and the result will probably not be known until some time today, Wednesday. The indications now are that a number of Democrats have been successful.

COUNTY SEAT VOTE IN DOUBT

POLSON WINS BY BIG MAJORITY IN CHEHALIS COUNTY.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Owing to a terrific rainstorm, which raged all day, the vote in Chehalis County will be much lighter than the register. The county seat removal proposition is probably defeated, although the vote against it in this city was less than 10 per cent of the total vote cast. The total vote in the city shows a loss of about 400 from that of the registration. If Hogue's vote for county seat removal is anything like Aberdeen, the chances may be about an even thing, but Hogue's vote is reported much less than expected for removal. Montezano and the eastern part of the county went almost solidly against removal.

As to the county ticket, it is believed Peter Clark, Democratic nominee for Auditor, is elected. He is one of the most popular men in the county, and has served several terms as county clerk. James Downes, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, may also pull through.

The rest of the Republican ticket is considered reasonably safe, while Alexander Polson, candidate for State Senator on the Republican ticket, has swept the county, having made the greatest run of any candidate for similar place in the county.

Democrats Get Two Offices.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special).—The Republican Congressional candidates vote for 12 Lewis County precincts complete is 46, Democratic 36. The Democrats probably elected Sheriff and Attorney. Representatives, Miller 49, McCoy 36, Ullah 46, all Republicans; Hoss 34, Start 49, Barnett 36, Democratic candidates. Indications are for a close contest between McCoy and Startup. The rest of the county ticket safely is Republican.

Storm Raging in Chehalis County.

TACOMA, Nov. 6.—Specials to the News report a terrific storm raging at Aberdeen and all along the Coast. Ranchers will be unable to get to the polls. In Chehalis County it is claimed that this winter the success of the scheme to remove the county seat from Montezano to Gray's Harbor.

San Francisco, which was expected to give Bell a big vote, will probably give Gillett about 1000 majority, while in Los Angeles, normally a heavy Republican city, the vote between Gillett and Bell was comparatively close.

For Congress it is certain that Knowland, Republican, in the Third District, is re-elected; also Kahn, Republican, in the Fifth and Smith, Republican, and McKinley, Republican, in the Eighth and Second Districts, are probably elected. It is very probable that all the eight California Republican Congressmen will be elected. The Legislature will be Republican, but there is no United States Senator to be elected this year.

In spite of the bitter feeling engendered by recent developments in San Francisco, the election here was unusually quiet. At the Democratic headquarters it was said: "We have practically no reports at all from the state. One report received by telephone stated that Bell ran ahead of Gillett in Los Angeles; also a report of a landslide for Bell in Fresno County. We cannot confirm the figures. Gillett carries San Francisco by 300 to 600."

GILLETT CARRIES BAY CITY

Republican Chairman Says Only Question of Election Is Majority.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—At 3 o'clock tonight General George Stone, chairman of the Republican state central committee, said to the Associated Press: "Reports from the state are coming in very slow. There is no doubt as to the result. It is only a question of plurality. Gillett has carried San Francisco by a plurality of 300 to 600, and the entire Republican state ticket, including eight Congressmen, has been elected by a plurality exceeding 2,000."

Representative of the Union Labor Party concede Gillett's election.

Democrats Are Hopeful.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Timothy Spellacy, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, said tonight: "We don't concede Gillett's election. Although our reports are meager, it looks good for Bell. If Gillett comes to the Tehach Mountains with but 3000 plurality, as claimed by the Republicans, Bell has been elected. We concede San Francisco to Gillett by 600. Reports from several sources indicate a close vote in Los Angeles."

Spellacy ridiculed the Republican claims of 15,000 plurality for Gillett in Los Angeles.

Bell Given a Surprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The indications at 8 o'clock are that Gillett, Republican, for Governor, has carried this city by a small majority. The State Committee has conceded this city to Bell, Democrat, by 300. Meager returns from the interior show that Gillett is running strong in places that were thought to be overwhelmingly for Bell.

Sacramento Favored Bell.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 6.—The chairman of the Republican County Committee refuses to venture an opinion as to the outcome of the election. The vote as far as counted in Sacramento City shows Bell, Democrat, leads by 5 to 1.

W. T. MACY IS ELECTED MAYOR

Contest Is Probable at McMinville on Office of Recorder.

McMINVILLE, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special).—The result of the city election held here yesterday is as follows: Mayor, W. T. Macy; City Recorder, H. S. Maloney; City Marshal, C. H. Neal; Councilmen, William Houck, W. Dellamiedler, W. D. McDonald.

C. H. Neal, City Marshal, takes his office for the 11th successive year. The election of Recorder will be contested. Only one ticket was nominated and Vine Pierce received the nomination. The votes, however, scratched out Pierce, and substituted Maloney, 12 votes were thrown out in ward No. 3, on the ground that the voter neglected to place the mark X after the name of Maloney. This gave Pierce the majority by ten votes. The City Council sustained Pierce in office.

The citizens voted, also, that the water and electric light system remain in the hands of the water and light commission after its completion. A very light vote was polled.

VAN AUKEER SUES FOR DAMAGES

Ex-Cashier of Rainier Wants $25,000 for False Arrest.

RAINIER, Or., Nov. 6.—C. S. Van Auker, of this place, has brought suit against the National Surety Company and George Allen, its president, to recover $25,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment in connection with the robbery of the State Bank of Rainier. The robbery occurred on Labor Day, and Van Auker was arrested several weeks afterward, charged with having put up the job to conceal the fact that he was a defaulter. On his preliminary examination before the Justice of the Peace at Rainier the examination failed to make a sufficient showing in the opinion of the Justice to warrant his being bound over to await the action of the grand jury. Opinion as to Van Auker's guilt or innocence has always been divided. The greatest factor in creating an impression of his guilt has been the knowledge that he frequented the gambling table at Astoria and elsewhere, and were it not for this fact the belief in his innocence would be very general, as prior to the robbery the people of this community had the utmost confidence in his probity. He appeared like Presley Wins in Klickitat.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Reports from seven precincts indicate that the Congressional and state Republican ticket will carry in Klickitat County by at least 500 votes. Voting was quiet and the county ticket badly scratched. The vote on State Senator and Representative is close, but returns the Republican candidate a safe plurality. The rest of the county ticket is conceded to the Republicans.

Find Relics of Confederacy.

Memphis Commercial Appeal. Workmen remodeling the Messick building, at the corner of Second and Madison streets, which is soon to be occupied by the Sanson Cafe, have just come upon some interesting relics of the Confederacy in the shape of two ancient guns and a revolver. The firearms were discovered in the fourth story of the building, between the ceiling and roof.

The three weapons discovered are in a remarkable state of preservation, considering the time that they have lain unused. The guns were singularly free from rust, and the bricklayer who found and confiscated the revolver believes that it is still good for military service.

The guns are undoubtedly relics of the Confederacy. One, a musket, bears the legend "Harper's Ferry, 1833," on its stock. The other is a carbine, such as was carried by the Confederate cavalry during the Civil War. General George V. Gordon, who happened along shortly after the firearms were found, described an interesting bit of local history in accounting for the presence of the guns in the building. He says that this building was used as a meeting place by the disbanded soldiers of the Confederate army during the reconstruction days. Fearing detection, he thinks that these old probably over firearms, since removed, were concealed in the building.

The building where the old firearms were found belongs to the estate of William Messick, who died in 1880. Mr. Messick was a soldier in the Confederacy, having served under General Breckinridge, and the guns probably belonged to him and were stored away in the building during his lifetime. His children, who bought him, still own the building and assert claim to the weapons.

Colfax Democrats Are Confident.

COLFAX, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special).—This has been a very quiet election in Colfax. The Republicans have a majority of several hundred in the county. The Democrats expect to elect their senator and three of the county ticket. There are 45 precincts in the county and as the vote will be close the full returns will not be received before Wednesday night. Peter McGregor, Republican, and C. L. Mackenzie, Democrat, for senator, are making a close race. Betting tonight favors McGregor.

Republican Victory in Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Returns from the greater part of Spokane City and County make it plain at 11:30 that the Republicans have made a clean sweep.

Happiness in a Tablet

Perfect Health for Every One Procured at Small Cost.

How many times have you sat down at your meals absolutely disgusted at the thought or sight of anything to eat?

How many times have you sat down at your meals without the trace of an appetite, but just because it was "time to eat"?

How many times have you felt a gnawing, unsatisfied "still-hungry" feeling in your stomach, even after you were through eating?

How many times have you felt that "lump of lead" on your stomach after eating, whether your meal was well cooked or not?

And how many times have you suffered a whole lot of other things from your stomach that you couldn't explain, but that made you grouchy, miserable, out of sorts and generally sour on everybody and everything?

It is safe to say that you couldn't tell. You don't know enough about the stomach, of course, but you know you've suffered from it. You probably have had them for so long that they've become a habit with you, and you have come to the conclusion that your fate is to suffer them indefinitely and perhaps forever.

And so men, much like horses, standing unthinkingly at the hitching post, think they're tired, and so their habit makes them prisoners.

But no one need have dyspepsia, no indigestion, no loss of appetite, no irritation, no burning sensations, no heartburn, no nausea, no eructations, no bad memory, no loss of vim and vigor and the happiness that comes from a healthy stomach, and a good appetite if he will only leave his old hitching post and tie himself to a new one. That new one is the stomach that comes from Imperiales Cigarettes.

That indeed is Heaven! And you can get it in a little tablet already prepared for the purpose.
