AMUSEMENTS. THE HELLIG THEATER (14th and Washington streets)—Tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Song recital, Ellen Beach Young, soprano.

FOUR PERSONS MISSING.—The police have received reports of four missing persons, for whom search is now being made. Adam Hartman, cousin of ex-City Detective Lou Hartman, is missing from his home in Lents, with no explanation of his absence.

WELL FILL IN WEST STR.—The Eastern & Western Lumber Company, which has had much trouble with fire breaking out in the refuse near its plant, has applied to the Port of Portland for the use of one of its dredges for filling in the property.

YAW CONCERT TONIGHT. Splendid House Will Greet the Great Coloratura Soprano at the Hellig. Not since the days of Jenny Lind has a voice of the timbre of Ellen Beach Yaw's been heard, so wrote one of the foremost critics of the East.

AT THE THEATERS. "AT PINEY RIDGE." Play Full of Heart Interest at the Baker. "A Royal Slave," Mexican Romantic Drama, Will Be Presented.

LEG BROKEN IN RUNAWAY.—Raymond Richey, aged 19, of Gresham, was brought to the Good Samaritan Hospital at 11 o'clock yesterday morning suffering from a multiple fracture of the right leg above the knee, the result of a runaway.

EMPIRE MATINEE TODAY. "A Royal Slave," Mexican Romantic Drama, Will Be Presented. The popular priced matinees have become a great feature at the Empire Theater, and with so fine an offering as "A Royal Slave," the great Mexican romantic drama, the patrons of this high-class playhouse will have an unusual attraction.

"The Octocon" at the Lyric. "The Octocon" is being revived this week by the Lyric stock company. Every performance is a repeated triumph and the company is creating the most favorable impression in the theaters and the Lyric South. The benefits and evils of slavery have never been more forcibly expressed than in this masterly play. Each of the members of the Lyric organization is well cast this week and is more than making good.

"ARIZONA" SEAT SALE. Advance Sale Will Open Today for Famous Play at Hellig. This morning at 10 o'clock the advance seat sale will open for America's greatest drama, "Arizona," at the Hellig Theater next Friday, Saturday, Sunday nights, November 9, 10, 11, with a special matinee on Saturday. A stock of mounted cavalrymen will be seen on the stage in this year's production.

"LION AND MOUSE." Famous Society Drama at Hellig Next Monday-Tuesday Nights. "The Lion and the Mouse," the greatest dramatic success the American stage has known, will be presented at the Hellig Theater next Monday and Tuesday nights, November 25 and 26, with a matinee Tuesday, by Henry B. Harris, with a company of exceptional strength and every requisite in the way of stage accessories.

CONCERT BY SEASIDE.—The weekly concert at the Seaside Institute, 100 North Front street, will be given this evening at 8 o'clock. A good programme has been prepared.

GRAND OPENING OF THE Outlet Clothing Company, 7:30 to 10:30 tonight. Souvenirs to ladies and gentlemen.

RUGGERO LEONCAVALLO. Famous Composer and Conductor Coming With La Scala Orchestra. The appearance of Ruggero Leoncavallo, the noted Italian composer, at the Hellig Theater Sunday and Monday nights, November 25 and 26, conducting the famous orchestra and lyric artists of La Scala, Milan, promises to be quite the most pretentious musical event of the season, besides making the composer's first appearance in America.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS. Grand Opera at the Grand. As has been assured, the new programme of vaudeville at the Grand is well up to the standard. The headline act is one of the most important features that a vaudeville theater on the Coast has secured. It is the Nellie Andrews company of operatic singers, each having a national reputation as a vocalist.

PERSONAL MENTION. Miss Janet Joseph, a nurse of the Good Samaritan Hospital, is ill with typhoid fever at that institution.

Miss Josephine Norton Hills is at the head of the piano department. She is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory, Leipzig, and a pupil of Herr Alfred Reisenauer, the noted virtuoso, who last year toured America. Miss Ruth Carter is a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory, of Boston. Miss Sophia Beebe recently returned from four years' study in Vienna and Berlin. She is a pupil of Herr Leschetzky. Miss Dorelle Elizabeth Snook is in charge of the vocal department. She held a scholarship of the Woman's Philharmonic Society, of New York, and studied with Mme. Luisa Cappiani.

St. Johns Postoffice Moved. The St. Johns Postoffice is now located in its new quarters in the McCleane block, on North Jersey street. The new quarters are more commodious than the former ones but are several blocks from the business district of the town. The owner of the building gives free rental to the office for four years, besides installing the boxes free of charge. Such a liberal offer was made with a view of encouraging business in that section, thereby creating a demand for several vacant rooms in the same building.

St. Johns Wants Fire Escapes. At last evening's session of the city council of St. Johns, the fire-escape ordinance requiring all three-story buildings to be thus provided, was unanimously adopted. Burlington street, which has
