Sensational Contest Will Follow Election of Democrat in One Seat—The Senatorial District—Church People Accused of Fraud.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The Republican state and county organization is planning to force a Legislative inquiry into one of the King County Senatorial elections, probably the first time on record that the party officially has asked for a hearing for one of its nominees. Joseph Lyons, defeated on the face of the returns by a margin of two, by George F. Cotterill, Democratic candidate in the thirty-sixth Senatorial district, will have the backing of the state and county committees in an appeal to the Legislature. In fact, the appeal is to be made by the organization instead of by the defeated candidate himself.

Initial steps were taken by the county committee, representing King County, but the officers of the state committee were called into consultation before any move was made. Then Lyons was summoned and told that it was believed he had excellent grounds for a contest and urged to permit the King County committee to demand a recount. He was told the committee could prove he had been counted out by the "church element" in the Eighth ward that made Cotterill's winning light. Then the committee and Lyons issued a statement setting forth their plan.

Defeated by Church Vote.
Aside from the fact that the party organization stepped in to take the fight for a seat in the Senate off Lyons' hands, the fight in this district was the most remarkable in the state. A saloon man was named by the Republicans for State Representative in the Eighth ward, and he was a very satisfactory sort of a person to know, but the exclusive Eight Ward could not tolerate his business.

The churches, and finally the temperance organization, took up a fight against him and sent committees of women out in a personal effort to accomplish his defeat. Naturally the entire Republican ticket suffered with him and Lyons went down to defeat because of a weak running mate.

Now comes the curious startling feature of the fight. It is asserted positively that the aristocratic and exclusive Eight Ward, with its church connections, counted out Lyons, despite the fact that members of his party controlled the election board. In fact, the County Committee's action in taking charge of the contest gives backing to a politician's claim that the Republican candidates were jobbed in the Eighth Ward count.

Democrats Set Precedents.
This threat of a Legislative contest, which will unquestionably be made good next Winter, is the feature of the second day of tabulating election returns. There has been no contested election before the Legislature since 1889, when Gray defeated the Republican seat from Stevens County. Mantz being a Populist and in possession and surrounded by a majority of Populists and Democrats, Gray was practically ignored.

Two years earlier than that a Fusionist house had summarily thrown out two Republicans seated in the election returns, so there is plenty of Democratic precedent to be drawn from.

If Cotterill is seated he will be only a third Democrat in the upper house, for today's returns make it appear the Republican victory was practically a clean sweep.

There is a great deal in the second days' returns that indicates a freedom from party lines in the voting on county tickets. Half a dozen counties, carried by strong pluralities for the Republican Congressional and county tickets, reported mixed county tickets elected, and in almost every instance the Democrats won control of the Sheriff's office.

Majority May Reach 30,000.
Despite the apathy shown Tuesday throughout the state, the pluralities of the Congressional candidates in the state will exceed 30,000. The Republican State Committee claimed today that the pluralities might reach 30,000. No effort has been made to tabulate pluralities by counties, for practically none of the counties has been able to furnish a complete count. Official figures which afford a basis for estimate show that the Republican candidates polled a larger share of the vote divided between the Republican and Democratic parties than they did two years ago.

In a large measure, the Republican campaign managers give credit for this showing to President Roosevelt, for the fight was made on the ground that the President must be supported, but the personal popularity of the three Congressmen unquestionably swayed the totals. There is a marked difference between the almost unanimous manner in which the Congressional ticket swept the state and the mixed county tickets elected in many sections.

Indorsement for Roosevelt.
King County, for instance, gave the Congressional candidates of both parties 5,000 each, but other candidates had to worry along with from 600 down. All the members of the Congressional delegation agreed that the result of the election is confirmation of Washington's Republicanism, but at the same time the great majority of the voters of the state indorsement of the Roosevelt policies, which the Washington delegation unanimously supported.

It is significant that practically the only showing made by the Democrats was a result of factional quarrels in the Republican organization.

Clallam, Lewis, King, Yakima, Benton and Jefferson, as examples, have not been fruitful fields for Democratic exploitation in the past, but factional fights allowed the party to break in Republican leaders declared today that this fact will be urged this Winter as an additional reason for the passage of a direct primary bill, which its friends insist will minimize such dissatisfaction as prevailed in some localities this year.

RESULTS ON EAST SIDE.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Spokane County gave the following vote on Congressmen: Jones, Rep., 820; Humphrey, Rep., 815; Cushman, Rep., 824; Byrne, Dem., 372; Blackman, Dem., 371; Eschelman, Dem., 344. Plurality of Cushman.

GOODING IS VICTOR

Idaho Governor Re-Elected by Majority of Over 7000.

RUNS BEHIND HIS TICKET

Other Republicans on State Ticket

Lead by as High as 5000

Votes—Borah to Be

Senator.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The majority of Governor Gooding, Republican candidate for re-election, stands at about 7000. In the southeast he ran with the rest of the state ticket, but in the southwest, ran behind. In this county he lost by 500 while French carried the county by 727. It is possible that the majority on the state ticket generally will run 5000 larger than on the Governor. LaRson, for Secretary of State, was badly cut in some of the southern counties, but not enough to prevent his election. His opponent carried Ada County by 627. The state ticket generally had about 1100, though the figures varied.

In Washington County Galloway, beat LaRson 500 and the rest of the Democratic state ticket got 500 excepting Stockslager, candidate for Governor, who got 1000. Returns have been very slow in coming from the south, but the majorities are pretty well known.

The following table shows the situation for the entire state:

County	Gooding, Stockslager	Rep. Dem.
Ada	600	300
Bannock	1,700	300
Bear Lake	1,700	300
Bingham	1,700	300
Blaine	300	300
Boise	300	300
Camron	300	300
Cassia	300	300
Elmore	300	300
Fremont	2,000	300
Idaho	1,000	300
Kootenai	1,000	300
Latah	600	300
Lincoln	300	300
Nes Perce	1,000	300
Owyhee	200	300
Shoshone	150	300
Washington	1,000	300
Totals	10,000	3,750

Net plurality, 7150 for Gooding.
The Legislative situation stands 48 Republicans to 24 Democrats. Kootenai will probably give the Republicans four, while they stand to lose one in Shoshone and to gain one in Lincoln.

Following is the probable completion of the Legislature:

County	Rep.	Dem.
Ada	3	1
Bannock	4	1
Bear Lake	4	1
Bingham	4	1
Blaine	2	2
Camron	2	2
Elmore	2	2
Fremont	5	1
Idaho	2	2
Kootenai	4	2
Latah	2	2
Lincoln	2	2
Nes Perce	4	2
Owyhee	3	2
Shoshone	4	2
Washington	2	2
Totals	48	24

The Republicans have 13 Senators. This includes the election of Wm. E. Borah as United States Senator to succeed Senator Dubois.

WALLA WALLA REPUBLICAN
Elect All but Two County Officers by Over 700 Majority.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Unofficial returns from 26 out of the 27 precincts of Walla Walla County show that the Republicans have given majorities for the entire state and county ticket, with the exception of Treasurer and Assessor. The vote given the Congressional and Legislative ticket has not been tabulated, but from every indication the Republican majority will be between 700 and 800.

The county ticket elected is as follows: Representatives: Morris McDaniel, Emmet Henderson, William H. Weber, all Republicans; Sheriff, James Haviland, Republican; Clerk, Dorsey Hill, Republican; Auditor, J. N. McCay, Republican; Assessor, Michael Toner, Democrat; County Attorney, Otto B. Rupp, Republican; Superintendent of Schools, G. S. Bond, Republican; Commissioners: Herbert Hansen, J. L. Harper, Republicans; Justice of the Peace, J. H. Huffman, Republican; Surveyor, W. G. Winkle, Republican; Constable, Nels Peterson, Republican; Coroner, George MacMartin, Republican.

Returns were exceedingly slow in coming in, although the vote was exceptional, by night, and not until a late hour this morning could any estimates be made beyond the general opinion, which has prevailed for some time, that the Republicans would elect the entire ticket.

MONTESSANO KEEPS THE PRIZE
Gray's Harbor Cities Lose Fight for County Seat Removal.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Gray's Harbor lost the county seat removal proposition by several hundred votes, the eastern end of the county voting almost solidly against removal and Hoquiam and Cosmopolis adding to the total vote in opposition. Hoquiam's vote is surprising, as it has carried the question would have given that city the honor of being the county seat. Business men of Hoquiam opposed the plan on the ground that the location of the court house, between Aberdeen and Hoquiam, would have made the court house the business center and taken away trade from Hoquiam.

Bowes, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, claims to be elected by a bare majority. The same claim is made for Pete Clark, Democratic candidate for Auditor, and Richardson, Democratic candidate for Treasurer. These three men made unprecedented runs, overturning a big Republican majority.

Alexander Pelson, Republican candidate for Senator, ran clear ahead of his ticket everywhere.

VENDETTA AGAINST NEGRO
Wife and Friend of Murderer Killed Secretly.

PELHAM, Ga., Nov. 7.—The wife of Hicks, the negro who killed John A. Akridge last Sunday, was found dead in her home yesterday, having been killed by unknown parties. Sometime during the night she was shot with over 20 bullets.

On the same farm and not far away a negro, who it is claimed helped Hicks to escape, was found dead. He also had been shot several times. The coroner was notified. Hicks has not been captured.

CALIFORNIA COUNT SLOW

REPUBLICANS CARRY STATE BY SAFE MAJORITIES.

In 1568 Precincts Out of a Total of 2471 Gillette Has Lead of 8976 Over Bell.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—At midnight returns were still very incomplete. Only 1568 precincts out of a total of 2471 in the state have been reported. They give Gillette (Rep.), for Governor, a plurality of 8976. The figures on Governor are: Gillette (Rep.), 1,078,381; Bell (Dem.), 72,987; Langdon (Ind.), 24,550.

Barth Stone, of the Republican State Central Committee, tonight estimated Gillette's plurality at 10,000. The Democratic committee was not ready to concede Gillette's election.

The returns from the interior of the state are coming in very slowly, and it is yet impossible to give exact figures, except from small precincts and cities where voting-machines were used.

That the entire Congressional delegation of eight will be Republican now seems certain, late returns from the Second District, where Duncan A. McKinlay (Rep.) was being closely pressed by W. A. Beard (Dem.), giving the former a good lead.

The Legislature will be very strongly Republican in both branches. All the Supreme Justices-elect are Republicans, but for Presiding Judge of the Appellate Court the race between Carroll Cook (Rep.) and James A. Cooper (Dem.) is so close that the result cannot be predicted.

A number of Constitutional amendments were voted on, but their fate is yet in doubt.

Elect a Democratic Senator.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—While all returns are not yet in, sufficient results have been received to show that Henry S. McGowan, Democratic candidate for Joint State Senator from Washington and Pacific Counties, Wash., has been elected. Reports received late this afternoon show that with but 60 votes to hear from McGowan has a plurality over J. W. Kleeb of 106.
