ROBNETT UP FIRST

Bank Clerk Charged With Subornation of Perjury.

TRIAL IS TO BE AT MOSCOW

William Dwyer, Charged With Defrauding the Government of Land in Idaho, Will Be the Next Man to Be Tried.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 9 .- (Special.) Clarence W. Robnett, bookkeeper of the Lewiston National Bank, will be the first defendant tried in what is known as the land-fraud cases, which are to come up at this term of the Federal Court. District Attorney Ruick this morning notified defendant's counsel to that effect. The second defendant to be tried is William Dwyer. Robnett is charged with subornation of perjury and Dwyer is accused of de-frauding the Government out of land. It is supposed the cares against these defendants are probably the strongest and for that reason the District Attor-ncy has elected to try them first, for ney has elected to try them first, for the moral effect a conviction would have upon the remaining cases.

Trial of the case of Robnett will begin Monday. The trial jury has been summoned to report on that day, and the grand jury, also. There is no special significance in the assembling of the grand jury, which always convenes with each term of court. Some rumors are afloat to the effect that the jury has been called for the purpose of promptly dealing with any witnesses promptly dealing with any witnesses who may not adhere strictly to the truth in their testimony in the land-fraud cases. It is also rumored that there will be some probing as to land der suspicion in the public eye.

PUTER IS MADE DEFENDANT

Railroad Sues to Quiet Title to Land in Clackamas.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 9 .- (Special.) -S. A. D. Puter, convicted land-fraud operator, was made defendant in two suits to quiet title that were filed in the Circuit Court here today by the Oregon & California Railroad Company. The land involved consists of 320 acres, being the northeast and the southeast quarters of section 29, township 4 south, range 6 eas of the Williamette Meridian. In the first suit Peter Gabriel, Puter and Edward G Jones et al. are the defendants, the com-plaint alleging that prior to August 8, 1901, this land was the property of the United States, that the premises are wild, unimproved and not in the actual possesssion of any person or persons, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the immediate ssion thereof. The complaint further states that Ga brief made homestead application for the northeast quarter of the section described, and received his certificate thereto on June 3, 1806; that on the 25th day of the same month he executed a deed of con-veyance by which the land was trans-ferred to Puter, who, on August 5 felferred to Puter, who, on August 5 fol-lowing, transferred the property to Jones, the other defendant. It is also alleged in the complaint that on February 3, 1897, the entry and certificate granted Gabriel was cancelled by order of the General Land Office, and the land was transferred to the plaintiff August 8, 1901.

The defendants in the second suit, which oncerns the southeast quarter of the ime section, are: Nils Mike Watnee, S. D. Puter, Richard E. Moss and Edward WRIGHTMAN SLATED TO GO

Prosecuting Attorney-Elect Warns Gamblers and Saloonkeepers.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash, Nov. 9.— (Special.)—Henry H. Wende, the Demo-eratic Prosecuting Attorney-elect of Yaki-ma County, startled the saloon element the whisky peddiers on the reservation and the gambiers today by announcing that he would entorce the law to the letter after taking office the first of the year Mr. Wende went into office without promises. He did not receive the support of the element above mentioned, neither was he the candidate of any faction of the other side. He says he is elected to fulfill the law, and will carry out his oath of office if he has the support of the Sheriff and the law-abiding people. Traffic in whisky among the Indians must be stopped, says the new prosecutor, and the open gambling dens must be closed.

Attorneys Employed by Oregon.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 9 .- (Special.) -- Secre tary of State Dunbar today entered a contract with John Mullan and the firm of Ralston & Siddon, of Washington, D. C., by the terms of which these at formers are to represent the state of Ore-gon before the United States Court of Claims in proving the claim of the state against the United States for relmburse-ment on account of money expended during the Civil War. Under the agreement the attorneys are to receive 10 per cent of the amount they may collect and turn into the state may collect and turn into the state treasury, but are not to receive their fee until such time as the Legislature of the state of Oregon makes an appropriation for it. The statutes of the state authorize the Secretary to make an agreement of this kind, so it is quite certain the Legislature will make the appropriation.

SQUABBLE OVER THE RANGE

SHEEP AND CATTLEOWNERS CANNOT REACH TERMS.

Government Agent May Be Comnelled to Take Arbitrary Action in Blue Mountain Reserve.

SUMPTER, Or., Nov. 9 .- (Special.)-Just 98 cattle and sheep men, owners or their agents, have been here for the past three days in almost hourly conference with the forest reserve officials, endeavoring to get their allotment of range area adjusted for These men represent over 400 owners, whose holdings in stock and land exceed a valuation of $10,000,000. The range in this livision of the Blue Mountain reserve is about 300,000 acres, and applications call for almost as much more, even with the previous announcement that cuts off from 10 to 40 per cent in the number of sheep and cattle allowed for next year.

Cattlemen charge that sheepmen want to "hog" the whole territory, and the same charge is made by the sheepmen against the cattlemen. The result thus far is not a single agreement has been amicably made, and reserve officials will probably have to take arbitrary action next week in order to dispose of the matter.

Owners of private timber lands mounting to over 100,000 acres, are getting two and three times as much per acre as is stated to be the price of the Government. Sheepmen charge that private owners are favoring cattlemen and using their influence to get the Govern-ment owners to do the same. Superintendent Sheller has announced that small owners and men who person-ally reside in the hills and have sheep or cattle will be the only ones favored. The only matter on which the two factions are a unit is the fight to keep out all who were not in the range last year.

The meeting will probably be prolonged until next week, to await the presence of Western Reserve Chief A. F. Potter, of Washington, who is expected to settle dif-

Benson Will Make Drennan Head of

Corporation Department. SALEM, Or., Nov. 9 .- (Special.)-Frank Wrightman, head of the corporation of State, will not retain his position under F. W. Benson, against whom Wrightman was a candidate for nomination. He will be succeeded by Walter Drennan, who was Benson's right-hand man in the primary campaign last Spring. Though Ben-son has made no official announcement, he has been in Salem for several days, conferring with friends, and it is learned rom a reliable source that Wrightman's erm will end as soon as Benson's begins Walter Drennan is a resident of Port-land. For a number of years he was a locomotive engineer on the Southern Pa-cific south of Roseburg but in 1991 he was caught in a terrific head-on collision and lost his right arm. Since then he has been traveling for a railroad insurance concern. His large acquaintance and popularity among railroad men made him a valuable political supporter. In the pri-mary campaign last Spring he devoted much of his time to Benson's cause, and it is understood that Benson credits his success to Drennan's work.

After the primary election in April, it was found that in a number of places in Eastern Oregon in which Wrightman was supposed to be particularly strong in his candidacy, he ran short in votes and Benson took the lead. This seemed to confirm a report that gained circulation at the time that Wrightman made a trade with Benson and telegraphed his friends to support the latter.

Since Benson's first act will be to sever Wrightman's official head, this report must have been erroneous. There have been many aspirants for Wrightman's po sition, whice is a desirable one, though the salary is but $1800 a year.

Three Washington State Senators Eligible for the Place.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 2.—(Special.)— Only four members of the next State Senate have seen more than two sessions' experience in the upper house, and according to precedent the President pro-tem of the Senate should be chosen from their number. All four of these men-have been in the upper house since 1901. They are: T. B. Sumner, Everett, E. M. Rands, Vancouver: Lincoln Davis, Ta-coma, and A. S. Ruth, Olympia.

The Senate is overwhelming in its alignment for the Piles-Ankeny interests and it is probable that the Fresident pro tem. will be a Senator who belongs to that faction. If this conclusion is held, Ruth will be read out of the list of eligibles, for he is not in good standing with the Piles-Ankeny organization.

It is not known whether Davis will ask for the election. Both Rands and Sumner would regard election as an houor and one of them may be chosen. Summer wants to head the appropriations committee and has been promised that place. Rands has not made known his desires, but his term of service will give him pretty much what he desires. Senator George at Baker, of Goldendale, was President pro term two years are and

Coast-Stream Hatcheries Do Good

Business, but Inland Plants Have a Poor Run.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—The report of Laster Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen for the month of October shows that the season's work has been satisfactory in all Coast stream hatcheries, but not so good in the hatcheries on trib-utaries of the Columbia. Regarding hatchery operations the report says:

With the exception of a few more salmon to spawn at Ontario, we are through with the work of collecting chinook salmon spawn at our different hatcheries tributary to the Columbia River, and from reports ceived the following collections have been eggs at each station.

From present appearances, the result at our Coast River batcheries will be very different, and all will do exceptionally well and make collections far in excess of the funds available for the work of taking care of the young fry and keeping them until they should be turned out.

With the exception of the Umpqua River hatchery, where the work was finished Oc-tober 7, and a collection of 5,026,000 eggs mace, all of the stations are in the mide. of their egg-taking season, which, with the chinooks, will last throughout the month of November, and with the silversides will last until near the latter part of December

PROTEST ON INDIAN AGENT.

Umatilla Court Sends Communication to Secretary of Interior.

PENDLETON, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)
-In a letter mailed today by the county Court of Umatilla County to the Secretary of the Interior at Washington, the henesty and integrity of Major Edwards, agent for the Umatilia Indian Reservation, are questioned, and he is accused of subjecting citizens to per-sonal indignities and insults. Edwards is also charged with having deliberately failed to transmit to the Department of the Interior a petition from the court, made last July, asking that the roads across the reservation be open to whites and Indians alike. The communication of the County Court is very voluminous.

Delayed Train Helps O. R. & N.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 9.-Delays to a Northern Pacific train this mornin an important point for the O. R. & N. Co. against the Spokane & Inland Railroad in the Supreme Court. The Spokane road recently in the Whitman County Su-perior Court secured a decree authorizing it to cross the tracks of the O. R. & N. it to cross the tracks of the O. R. & N. Co. at grade at a number of points. The Portland line gave notice of a petition for a writ of review by the Supreme Court. At 10 o'clock this morning, when the Supreme Court took up the petition, the O. R. & N. counsel was on hand, and after presenting his application a writ was issued, ordering the Whitman Judge to submit here all records in the case for a final hearing January 17, and ordering all, proceedings stayed until then. Will Graves, attorney for the Spokane road, reached Tacoma in plenty of time, but the train here from Tacoma was more than an hour late, so he did not arrive at but the train here from lacona was more than an hour late, so he did not arrive at court until the writ had been granted. The same train brought Seattle attorneys coming to resist a motion to dismiss their appeal from the $1000 judgment, and they also arrived too late, as the appeal had been dismissed.

BULLET GLANCES OFF ROCK

Policeman, After Being Knocked Down, Fires at Ground to Induce the Running Soldier to Submit to Arrest.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9 .- (Speial.)-Private Simmons, musician of Company H, Fourteenth Infantry, who deserted from American Lake during the encampment last Summer, was accident-ally shot in the back last night by Podeeman Secrist about 9:45 P. M. mons, who is a morphine flend, is about 5 years of age, and has served four years in the Army, coming here from the East. Simmons brought a beautiful girl with ilm, whom he afterward married.

The police were notified as soon as the troops returned from American Lake to be on the lookout for Simmons, but were unable to get any track of him up till last night, when he came over from Portland to see his wife. He was arrested by Officer Secrist, who started to take him to jall. Simmons struck Secriat, and started to run. Secrist called to him to stop, but Simmons paid no attention to Secrist fired two shots in the air, and the third he fired at the ground, the ball striking a flat rock and glancing up struck the escaping prisoner in the back. Sim-mons was taken to the post hospital at once, where Dr. Flags, military surgeon, performed an operation, but was unsucessful in finding the ball. The operation on the way to the hospital the prisoner remarked; "I got just what I expected when I started to run."

Chief of Police Bateman found the stone that the ball struck this morning. The mark left by the bullet can be seen plainly. Simmons was also charged with stealing Government property. The doctors say the wound will prove fatal.

for others

Clarence Hamilton

"Inclused you will find a recent photograph of myself, showing the growth of my hair since beginning the use of your Herpicide. Before using Herpicide, the top of my head was completely hald, but the use of only two bottles has brought a new growth of hair. I had spent between $30 and $50 on other remedies, but failed to derive any benefit until using your Herpicide. I rannot commend this remedy too highly to any with dandruff, baldness or failing hair." (Signed) CLARENCE HAMILTON, Atlanta Police Department,

WHILE CHRONIC BALDNESS IS incurable, many cases of primary or incipient baldness have been completely cured with Newbro's Herpicide, the original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ." Of course, the rational plan is to save the hair while there is hair to save, but even after it is gone there is a "fighting chance" if the hair follicies are not atrophied. Herpicide stops [tching of the scalp instantly,
