Chinese "Music" Must Cease at Midnight.

Portland Celestials Not Allowed Hereafter to Celebrate Birthday of Joss and Other Important Occasions As They Would.

ORDERS were issued yesterday that the "music" which has been played heretofore by the Chinese in the celebration of their various and numerous holidays, theatricals and festivals shall cease at midnight. It has been the practice of the Celestials to keep the horrid agony of sounds, the shrieking discords of drum and eddie going until as late as 5 o'clock in the morning. Yesterday was the birthday of the joss or some equally important occasion, and the big Chinese headquarters directly across from the police station at Second and Oak was the center of attraction for the Chinese. The congregation of sounds was something terrific until the police put a stop to it. It was when this was done that the "big box" went over to the station and tried to get away but Captain Bailey refused to allow the music to proceed and the birthday the big joss was not properly celebrated in consequence.
There has been much complaint regarding the uncharitably noises that are made by the Chinese on these occasions and it has been decided to put a stop to that sort of thing after the midnight hour. The natives of the Flowery Kingdom who inhabit Portland are much incensed over the new order of things and maintain that they cannot do without their "music" and that it is a hardship on them to suppress the music and in this manner interfere with their religious rites. The new order is in force, however, and there is no more Chinese music after the midnight hour in Portland.

MAY REQUEST ANNEXATION

Woodstock and Adjoining Suburbs Discuss the Proposition.

Territory embracing 12 square miles, and having a population of nearly 12,000, including Woodstock, Ivanhoe, Tremont, Anabel, Arleta, Nashville and all the southeastern district up to the Lents section, will probably be knocking for admission to Portland before long. The movement for annexation is now taking definite form. At the meeting of the Woodstock Improvement Association, Friday night last, the subject was discussed favorably. It was decided to push the matter vigorously and get a vote on annexation at the June election.
President C. Ben Riesland of the Woodstock Improvement Association, said last evening that the people of this territory are taking action for the reason that they are convinced that it is only through annexation that they can hope to get Bull Run water. He estimates the population that will be included in the city at 12,000, which may be larger by June, as several hundred new houses are being erected there now.

He says that in some parts of the suburb there will be an actual water famine next year. Last Summer there was a shortage, and this shortage will be greater next year. It is claimed that the resources of the local water companies will not be adequate.
The inducement which the district will offer to Portland for annexation is the revenue which 12,000 people will bring. This will be a considerable item in case Portland decides to lay another pipe line to Bull Run, build another reservoir and purchase more parks.
This annexation movement does not yet include Lents, the dividing line being at Gray's Crossing. At Lents there is a movement to incorporate, which has a considerable following, as well as some opposition. It is thought, however, that incorporation eventually will be dropped at Lents, and that the people will join the movement for annexation with the territory to the west.

Will Burn Mortgage.

Next Saturday, November 17, a special meeting of Columbia Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will be held for the purpose of burning the mortgage on the Grange building, east of the Sandy river, November 3 at the regular meeting the final payment on the building was made and the mortgage that had stood over the property came into the possession of the Grange. There was so much rejoicing over the happy event that it was decided to hold a special meeting to celebrate the event. The building of the hall was the outcome of a gathering of a few farmers at a private house several years ago.
