GIRL ROBBER CONFESSES

MISS OF 14 ADMITS THAT SHE IS A BURGLAR.

Managed to Throw Suspicion on Another Girl of Same Age, Who Was Arrested and Discharged.

Last July Multnomah Addition, in North Albina, was stirred considerably by a series of petty thefts from different residences, and because Mrs. C. S. Riggs, one of the victims, observed leaving her house a girl about the size and with general characteristics of Edna S. Scholes, the 14-year-old daughter of W. H. Scholes, a machinist, she was accused of the crime by Detective Snow and Officer Giddings, and taken before the juvenile court. At the hearing it was plainly evident that Miss Scholes was in no way connected with the thefts, she having established a complete alibi, and Judge Frazer dismissed the charges against her in short order, being thoroughly convinced that they were groundless.

robbed that place. Her object was to cast suspicion upon Edna. She went into details relative to the various petty larcenies she had committed in the neighborhood. She will probably be taken in charge by the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, it being developed that she has inherited kleptomaniac tendencies.

SUE FOR BACK SALARY.

Minstrel Men of Beach & Bowers Troupe Bring Action.

R. B. Tippel and Emil Kliment, actors belonging to the Beach & Bowers minstrel, an aggregation which has been touring the small towns, yesterday brought suit in the State Circuit Court against J. H. Smith, doing business under the firm name of the Beach & Bowers Minstrel Company, for several months' back salary. They allege in their complaint that they entered into a contract with the defendant at Beaver Dam, Wis., on July 18, whereby they were to perform in his company at the stipulated salary of $30 a week, and commenced the fulfillment of their part of the contract on August 8, continuing same until November 6, at which time they quit of their own accord by reason of his failure to pay them their salaries.

Election-Fraud Cases Continued.

On motion of Ralph E. Moody, attorney for the defendants, all the Sellwood election fraud cases were yesterday continued by a jury in the State Circuit Court. At one time it was thought the trial of J. W. Reed, accused of illegally importing voters into the precinct at the last general election, was set for December 10; that of B. F. Boynton, on a charge of perjury, for December 12; T. R. Baldwin, perjury, for December 14, while the cases of the other ten men were not taken up. It was expected that the trial of some of these cases would commence yesterday morning.

Laborer's Widow Sues for $5000.

The case of Ellen Galvin, administratrix of the estate of her husband, Michael Galvin, deceased, against Brown & McCabe, the stevedores, and Matthew Troy, their superintendent, is occupying the attention of a jury in Judge Frazer's court. Galvin died here June 11 from the effects of injuries received two days previously, while working for defendants in loading a ship with lumber. Some heavy timbers were being placed in the hold of the vessel, and one of them became detached from the sling and fell, causing Galvin's death. It is averred that five timbers were in the sling at the time of the accident, and that it could safely carry only four. The widow is suing for $5000 damages. Henry E. McGill is attorney for plaintiff, while William D. Fenton and R. A. Letter represent the defendants.

Mrs. Washington Fined $200.

For shooting George Washington, her husband, in their North End home, about two months ago, Mrs. Nellie Washington, a colored woman, was yesterday fined $200 by Judge Cleland. She was recently convicted by a jury in the State Circuit Court. At one time it was thought the wounds inflicted were fatal, but her husband gradually recovered and at the trial manifested a disposition not to push the charge against her. It was claimed she acted in self-defense. Her attorney gave notice of an intention to appeal the case.

Convicted of Stealing Typewriters.

A jury in Judge Gantenbein's court yesterday convicted A. H. Freilinger of a charge of larceny in having rented three typewriters from the Smith-Premier agency and afterwards pawning them. Deputy District Attorney Adams prosecuted the defendant, who was represented by Attorney L. E. Crouch. The jury returned a verdict in very short order after retiring. He will be sentenced later.

Court Notes.

The Gaston Lumber Co. was incorporated yesterday by A. H. Tanner, Fred C. King and John Van Zante with a capital stock of $2000. A true information was filed against Andy Gatzka yesterday by Deputy District Attorney B. E. Haney, accusing him of unlawfully furnishing tobacco to a minor. It is claimed that Gatzka, who conducts a cigar store, on October 28 sold Raymond Coomer, a 12-year-old boy, two cigars and a quantity of smoking tobacco.

Murderer Hose Does Not Want Appeal

Slayer of Madge Doyle Asks Only That His Execution Be Hastened and That He Be Buried Beside His Victim.

THINKING the time passes slowly to the hour when he is to join the victim of his rage, Henry Hose is restlessly awaiting sentence to be pronounced upon him for having murdered Madge Doyle on October 19. Hose declared that he does not want the case to be appealed, saying that he wishes his earthly troubles over with. "I want to join Madge," he said last night, "so what is the use of putting it off several months. Everything is against me, and I do not think there would be any use of holding it off. Then, anyway, I'm lonesome without her." And Hose is still unable to sleep more than an hour or two at a time, for visions of the woman as he last saw her appear before him and then all rest is driven away. He has been more composed since his trial last week, and hopes that sentence will soon be pronounced. "I have only one favor to ask before I am taken to the penitentiary," he said. "That is to be allowed to visit Madge's grave. I want to put some flowers there. I am glad she was given a good burial. She was the only woman in the world I loved." Hose declares that when the time comes for him to face the Grim Reaper he will make just one request, and this will be that he be buried beside his victim. He says he will die like a man. "When Madge died she had two gold rings that I gave her," said the prisoner yesterday; "one of them was my mother's wedding ring, and the other one I gave the girl as a sort of engagement gift. I would like to get the rings and set them;

I would use the money to buy flowers and then have the posies put on the girl's grave. That's all." Kansas City and Return, $60. Account Seventeenth Annual Session Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, the O. R. & N. Co. will on November 14 and 15 sell round trip tickets to Kansas City for $60 with a limit of 30 days from date of sale. Further particulars by calling upon C. W. Stinger, city ticket agent, Third and Washington streets, Portland.
