CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

WILL NOT OBSTRUCT GRAND AVENUE.—
Manager Simon, of the Pacific Bridge Company, which has the contract to fill up East Oak street, between Union avenue and East Sixth street, said yesterday to a committee that Grand avenue will not be obstructed materially while the filling is in progress. For the fill between Union and Grand avenues the dump cars will run around on to Union avenue by way of the East Washington-street spur and not across the Grand avenue embankment at all. For the fill between Grand avenue and East Sixth street a spur will cut into the track on the east side of the fill, but will not materially obstruct die while bere. But while Leoncavallo was quite able to continue his journey one member of his
