lowing a live chameleon, was a daughter of Commander Douglas Hamilton, of the 2hritish navy, and was by the death of her mother loft a large estate in Brighton, England. This information was received in a letter from Commander and a lion-tamer. Her mother died of a could, and may be given as confident heart in 1905, but remembered her sail druggists.

In 1833 Miss Douglas was married in a cage of lions. After that she went to England and created somewhat of a son-sation as a snake-charmer. On this trip she visited her parents in Brighton, but refused to listen to their entreatles to the first tidings the Commander had had Will Survey Tillamook Bay.

BEALS AND BONES ANNOUNCE THEMSELVES.

This Makes Marion County Candidate Practically Certain of Thirty-four Supporters.

Representatives Beals, of Tiliamook, and Bones, of Yamhill, yesterday dered themselves supporters of Davey Speaker in the Oregon Legisla-e. These two men have been claimed by Vawter. Beals has been Portland two days and yesterday as in conference with Dayey, who ld the metropolis a visit. Bones' announcement was made in Yamaill County, and was conveyed to Davey in Portland. His colleague in Yamhili, Crawford, has been a Davey man for some time.

Other publicly avowed supporters of Davey are Settlemier, Rodgers, Reynolds, Simmons and Davey, of Marion; Eaton, Washburne and Edwards, of Lane: Huntley, of Clackamas: Adams, Bayer, Burna, Coffey, and Driscoll, of Multinomah; Studies Steen and Burnett. preceding three.

In addition to these 20. Davey has the support, practically assured, of Hour and Upmeyer, of Linn; Chase, of Coos; Carter, of Benton; Purdy, Barrett and Newell, of Washington; Dye, er; Knowles, of Wasco-14 in number, Republican nominating caucus, and seems assured.

Vawter had high hopes of winning Lane and Washington Countles, each of which has three voice. Their turning against him has been a keen disappointment to his forces. It is guite evident gravitated to him, possibly Linn and Clackamas, having three votes each. On top of the announcement that Lane and Washington Countles would support Davey, came the one that Umatilla also was in the Davey column and this further weakened the Jackson candidate.

Valuer's steady force consists of Gray. of Douglas; Rackleff, of Curry; Perkins, Kubli and Vawter, of Jackson: Brown, of Linn: Jones, of Clackstons, Chapter, Beverlage, Freeman, Northuo, Wilson and Beutgen, of Multnomah-13 in number. In addition to these he has claimed Farrell, of Multnemah, who has not yet tied himself to either candidate; Camp-bell, of Clackamas-Multnomah, who is also in neither camp; Dobbin, of Wallowa, and others who are now known to be supporters of Davey.

As to the Fresidency of the Senate, the in votes pledged to Haines give him a majority of the Republican members,
