NEW EAST SIDE BANK.-In a short time but the news leaked out yesterday. This new bank will have quarters in what was formerly known as the Brown building, but which has been changed to the Sargent, at the corner of Grand and Hawthorne avenues. E. A. Baldwin, the owner of the building, is at the head of the syndicate of capitalists who will furnish the money for the new financial institution. The Commercial Savings Bank, organized by John Myers, had quarters in the Brown, but this bank was caught in the hard times which it could not weather. The location is considered excellent, and the bank will have strong financial backing. It is understood that Mr. Baldwin will be the general manager. Names of W. L. Boise. Edward Newbegin and several other well-known Portland men are mentioned as interested in the River Saturday noon, January 12. Freight

FINDS BURDEN HEAVY.—Emil Glutsch has found the keeping of two families more of a strain than his slender purse will bear. Glutsch was haled before Cir-cuit Judge Sears yesterday afternoon to show cause why he had failed to comply with an order of court directing him to pay altmony in the sum of $20 a month to a former wife. Glutsch told an unhappy story of sickness in his new family. He is married again and his first child by the second wife was taken sick last Summer and after a lingering illness died. To pay doctors and druggists and under-takers consumed all his meager income and he was unable to pay the amount Judge Sears granted a continuance to allow time for the settlement of the case fidence is that of Mrs. F. Bantz, who has been living in a tent near Leuts with five small children awaiting the return of her husband. Bantz has failed to put in an appearance, however, and the woman is finally coming to understand that she has been descried. The case was called to the attention of the authorities some time ago but Mrs. Bantz declined aid. The cold weather has compelled her to give in however, and yesterday she was inken to comfortable quarters by Detec-tive Hawley, of the Boys' and Girls' Ald Society.

FATHER SEEKS FRANK LOUGHRAN.-Inormation as to the whereabouts of Trank Loughran is sought by his father, oseph Loughran, principal examiner of the Bureau of Pensions at Washington, D. C. Longhran came to the Coast in 1889, according to a statement received yesterday by County Clerk Fields and is thought to be located in the vicinity of Portland. The letter states then the missing man has inherited a portion of his grandmother's estate and that a reward will be paid for information as to his whereabouts.

MERTING PORTPONED.—The meeting of the directors of the Eortland Hotel: Com-sany, which was to have been held yester-lay, was postponed indefinitely owing to the absence from the city of W. Alvord, vice-president of the corporation, who left yesterday for New York with the body of Dr. Philip Edwards Johnson. The meeting will be held immediately upon Alvord's return, when a number of will be given by calling at the box office. important matters, including the election of a president to succeed Cyrus A. Dolph will come up for settlement.

BROOKLYN CAR JUMPS THE TRACK .- A Brooklyn car well filled with passengers jumped the track at Elleworth and East Tenth atreets at 4 o'clock yesterday while bound for the Southern Pacific carshops. The car was stopped by a telepole on the north side of No one was burt, but the p were piled up in a heap at front end of the car and were badly frightened. It took about an hour to get the devalled car back on the track so that traffic could be resumed.

ART MUSEUM OPEN TODAY .- The Museum of Art. Fifth and Taylor streets is open daily from 9 to 4:30 o'clock. On Thursday and Saturday afternoons. Ad-mission is free. Most of the paintings now lent for exhibition will be removed after Saturday of this week. The prints shown in the upper galleries will remain in place until January 27. In connection with this exhibition Miss Failing will repeat on next Saturday at 2 o'clock, the talk previously given, on the process of etching. All interested are invited to be

MRS. ADAMS IMPROVING,-Mrs. Lydia Adams, who was struck by a live wire as abe stepped from a Mentsvilla trolley-car at Third and Morrison streets at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, is improving at the Good Samaritan Hospital, to which place she was taken for treatment. Her nurse reported has night that the patient was resting well and that she will prob-ably be able to walk soon. She was rendered unconscious by the shock and reained so many hours.

cuterday morning, Judge Cameron fined five Chinese $15 each on charges of frequenting a gambling-house at 57 Scoond street. The establishment was raided last week by Captain Moore and Patrolman Anderson, at which time much paraphernalia was seized, which proved the place to have been used for gambling purposes. Five Chinese recently ar-rested at SU Second street were fined ASE FOR ELECTRIC LIGHTS.—A petition has been circulated for arc lights at East Second and Third streets on East Morrison. Every property owner and business man on the street has signed the petition. Electric lights are being asked for at all intersections on Grand ave-nue. Both East Morrison street and Grand avenue are poorly lighted, especially Grand avenue. SETTLED OUT OF COURT.—Diamissal was entered in the State Circuit Court yes-terday in the suit involving the title of the new Fenton block. W. D. Fenton asked for dismissal on the grounds that Mrs. Camille Miller and Mrs. Odlie Collins, former owners of the site of the building, had given up their claim to the property, thus clearing the title.

Union Prayer Memerings.—Union prayer meetings are being held at the First Con-gregational Church this week by the leading Protestant denominations of the West Side. Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher led last night; Rev. Clarence True Wilson will lead tonight, and Rev. E. L. House tomorrow night.

The election of Dr. Cardwell as honorary president was made the occasion of an ovation to that officer, who has served 19 years as head of the society and who has during all that time, been untiring in his devotion to the cause of horticulture. He is held in such high esteem by horticulturists of the state that the office of honorary president was created for his especial benefit, he having announced that he would not serve another year as the presiding officer.

The other officers cover pretty thorughly all fruitgrowing sections of the state, Eastern Oregon being represented by C. D. Professor E. R. Lake, of Corvallis, the secretary-treasurer of the State Horticul-tural Society, expressed himself last night as much disgusted with the Willamette Valley fruit men who falled to bring their promised exhibits to the meeting just ended and who felt aggrieved that Hood River carried off all the prizes. "I feel that the Willamette growers hould be well rossted for the attitude bey take," he said. "It is a fact that ine-fenths of the fine exhibit given was from Hood River, and that only three ter than the Hood River product, but they don't come forward with the goods t prove it. It is true that Mr. Lownedal and several other growers made a fin display hast month, but they did not cominto the society, nor did the old members bring out any samples of their much-boasted products.

MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK. special Programme Being Prepared for Saturday Return at Armory.

The second recital by the famous contraits on the coming Saturday evening at the Armory will be one of the best ever offered Portland music lovers, and the music lovers from out of town. It will contain some fine numbers in English, and will besides have the group of three numbers with the organ accompani-ment. The pipe organ for this occasion is now being installed just for the one evening, in order that the programme may be as varied and as fascinating as possible. Add to this enchantment the Bach Gouned "Ave Maria," which will be sung to the accompaniment of plane, organ and violin, there is a programme which has never been equaled in the mu-sical history of Portland.
