CHICAGO AGREEMENT AFFECTS OREGON LINES.

Scale Just Adopted Means Higher Wages, With One Hundred Mile for a Day's Work.

The news from Chicago that the or ating heads of the Western railroads was gladly received in Portland by the of-ficials of the Harriman lines, and by the constraint mining into this city. The settlement announced from Chicago means concessions on the part of both contended for and the officals granted some things they were stoutly holding out for when negotiations were begin two weeks ago.

The Harriman lines in Oregon were represented by A. L. Mohler, vice-president and general manager of the Union Pacific. The belief was general in loca railroad circles that an amicable agreement would be reached. At no time did a strike appear at all probable, for although the negotiations were profounged, each side manifested a friendly spirit and no threats were made.

The operating heads of the Oregon if of the Harriman system have not been advised officially of the outcome the Chicago conference, but they accept roads will be uniform, and as a rule will be advanced. The increase will affect be-tween 15,000 and 25,000 enginemen and will mean the disbursement of between 25,000. 000 and $6,000,000 more annually by the rullroads west of Chicago.

The engineers couceded their first da, mand for an 8-bour day and were granted in lieu of it the 100-mile run, which is classes of engineers are given an advance but the greatest benefits go to switch engineers in the larger freight yards, who are to be advanced 50 and 75 cents a day with the assurance that they shall not be kept out longer than is hours.
