

BRISTOL TO STAY UNTIL DECEMBER

Fulton Agrees to Let Him Finish Oregon Land-Fraud Trials.

HOLDS UP HIS REJECTION

Letter to Committee Asks That Adverse Report Be Delayed—Both Senators to Join in Recommending New Man.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 24.—District Attorney Bristol of Oregon will be permitted to retain his present office until he concludes the trial of the Oregon land-fraud cases, but he will be expected to clear the docket before Congress reassembles next December, at which time he will be requested to step aside and make way for some man to be appointed on the recommendation of the Oregon Senators. This programme was mapped out today.

When asked about the matter, Senator Fulton stated that, inasmuch as the subcommittee had unanimously reported against Mr. Bristol, and the whole committee was ready to approve the recommendations of the subcommittee, he was willing to allow Mr. Bristol to remain in office until after the land-fraud cases have been disposed of, and therefore he has addressed a letter to the judicial committee requesting that no further action be taken on the Bristol case at present.

Senate Will Do As Fulton Asks.

Mr. Fulton has never been willing to name a man to take charge of those cases, as he has felt that responsibility in that matter should be left entirely with the President and the Department of Justice. He has simply opposed the confirmation of Mr. Bristol for a four-year term.

The judicial committee will observe Mr. Fulton's wishes in the matter and Mr. Bristol will be allowed to continue in office until the Oregon land-fraud cases are disposed of. It is assumed that this will be done by the time Congress meets again.

Further than this, Mr. Fulton declined to discuss the matter, but it is understood here that this arrangement has been approved by the President and that no effort will be made to secure Mr. Bristol's confirmation. Had Mr. Fulton insisted on Mr. Bristol's rejection, the judicial committee would have reported against him and the Senate would have rejected the nomination and it would then have been impossible for the President to reappoint Bristol. It is only when the Senate fails to act that a nominee can be reappointed during the recess.

Two Years Unconfirmed.

Under the programme as outlined the Oregon Senators will be requested next December to recommend a successor to Mr. Bristol and their choice will be respected.

Thus Mr. Bristol will have served as District Attorney for two years without ever having been confirmed by the Senate and after having been appointed and reappointed five successive times. Mr. Bristol's fate is today entirely in the hands of Mr. Fulton. The action of the subcommittee and the known attitude of the full committee make it absolutely certain that Mr. Bristol would be instantly rejected by the Senate if Mr. Fulton said the word, but Mr. Fulton is willing that Mr. Bristol shall stay under the conditions named, though only under those conditions. It was understood that the original intention to have Mr. Bristol rejected, but he has gained his point and has agreed to compromise as above set forth.

CUT OUT SUBSIDY TO ORIENT

Eastern Republicans Will Limit to South American Lines.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 24.—Eastern Republicans, including leaders in the House, have concluded a plan to amend the ship subsidy bill by striking out all provision for subsidy to lines plying between the Pacific Coast and points in the Orient, Hawaii and Australia, thereby limiting the bill entirely to South American trade. It is believed that enough votes can be secured to put through this scheme and then pass the bill.

Comparatively few members are interested in substituting lines from the Pacific Coast ports, hardly enough to block this deal, and, as it materially reduces the aggregate subsidy paid, it will secure new votes for the measure among those who don't believe in subsidy, but who are willing to act on the President's recommendations.

The President himself is not enthusiastic over the subsidy to trans-Pacific lines, largely because such subsidy would go entirely into the hands of Harriman and Hill. The President will make a fight, however, for a subsidy for lines from both coasts to South America.

Modify School Land Rules.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 24.—An effort is being made by the Governor of Idaho to secure the co-operation of Western Senators and Representatives in having the Interior Department modify the regulations under which school land is granted public land states. The attention of Congressman Jones was called to the matter by Governor Mead and he has taken it up with the Secretary. Under present regulations, according to Governor Gooding, it is extremely difficult to make any selection that will meet the approval of the department.

Improve Bremerton Navy-Yard.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 24.—The naval appropriation bill completed today carries $38,000 for the Puget Sound navy-yard, the principal item being $20,000 for continuing construction of a new drydock and $30,000 for extension of the quay wall. Over $1,900,000 was asked for.

New Washington Postmasters.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 24.—Washington postmasters appointed: Montero, Leslie D. D. Glover, vice Thomas Poran, resigned; San Francisco, Stella B. Fisher, vice J. C. Pender, resigned.

El Paso Does Him Honors.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 24.—Don Enrique Credit, retiring Governor of Chihuahua and new Ambassador to the United States from Mexico, was tendered a reception at the Mexican Consulate this morning and banqueted in a grand ball room at the El Paso Hotel. Tonight El Paso will give a banquet in his honor and tomorrow he leaves for Washington.
