Grange to Lay Cornerstone.

Arrangements have been completed for laying the corneratone of the new two-story Grange building at Milwaukie to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, with appropriate ceremonies. A. T. Buxton, state master, has been invited to deliver the oration. The men attending will be expected to assist in raising the frame of the building. The women of the Grange will serve luncheon. The building committee has decided to make the structure one of the best Grange halls in the state. The founda-tion is finished and lumber is on the ground for the frame. The cost will be about $2000 when completed and finished.
