

LEAVE THEM FIGHT IT OUT ON FLOOR

Railroad Committee Will Report Two Bills for Reciprocal Demurrage.

ONE BILL BY LUMBERMEN

Belief Is Expressed That If Their Measure Carries It Will Give Them Favors Over Farmers When Cars Are Short.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 5.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the joint railroad committees of the House and Senate this afternoon, the Railroad Commissioners announced they would not oppose the passage of the reciprocal demurrage bill proposed by the lumbermen, though contending that their own bill, which gives general powers to the commission, is probably the better. The committee decided, however, that both bills will be reported for passage, and let the settlement of which is to become law be fought out on the floor of each house.

Committees Behind in Work.

This was the most important of today's committee meetings. Both House and Senate held short morning sessions, and adjourned before noon, to permit the committees to take up accumulated work. The committees are far behind in all their work, and the whole legislative proceedings are being delayed because less than half the bills have been printed so far. This year all the reports of the officers were late, and many of the largest did not reach the Legislature until after the session began. On top of this the two houses introduced about twice the number of bills the first three sessions of the year. In a former session, and naturally the printing has got away behind.

Senate Has Busy Day.

In the Senate, one bill alone was introduced, which allows a company to do business when the stock is subscribed and before it has been paid in. Six bills were passed by the Senate after considerable debate. These include the following: McGreggor—Exempting sheep from estray law. Booth—Repeating law requiring authority of owner to permit broker to sell real estate; 22 to 17. Allen gave notice of intention to reconsider. Ruth—Deeding islands at Olympia to that city for park purposes. Jones—Authorizing sale of basehold estate in state lands, and authorizing improvement taxes, where state lands lie within city improvement districts. Metcalf—Deeding islands about Point Duane Park to that city. A committee on horticulture.—Requiring $5000 bond from commission merchants.

Consumers Time in Talk.

Although nearly all of the committee meetings met during the day, most of the sessions were given up to discussion, and no definite action was accomplished on any important bill. The committee of House and Senate, named on motion of Bassett, is to meet tomorrow and take up its work of investigating the system of bookkeeping in all the state departments. Senator Graves is still under the weather, so the committee of which he is a member did not attempt to investigate the work of the Land Commissioner's office. Representative Weber, of Walla Walla County, was in his seat at the morning session of the House, but there has been no change for the worse in his mental condition. His friends have urged him to place himself under the care of a physician, but he turns a deaf ear to all suggestions, and morosely broods at his desk.

Red Front Proves a Hoodoo.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 5.—(Special.)—E. C. Hamilton today made a voluntary assignment for the benefit of his creditors to R. L. Sabin, trustee of the Northwest Merchants' Protective Association. The liabilities and assets are as yet undetermined, but it is understood that a few hundred dollars will cover all of the outstanding indebtedness. Hamilton was the proprietor of the "Red Front" store, which seems to be a hoodoo, as this is the fourth failure that has occurred since the case at bar and the judgment rendered therein is affirmed.

leave that exclusively a school for boys and move the girls to some Eastern Washington point. Superintendent Reed has urged the separation of the sexes, and some of the investigating committees which recently visited that institution have done the same. Senator Vance, chairman of the Senate committee on appropriations, comes from Lewis County, and may be counted upon to prevent any such plan, although Chairman Thompson of the House committee favors it. The board of control has made no recommendation for the removal, but has agreed to submit figures on the cost of removal and the construction of a new girl school at the request of Thompson. The 16-hour labor limit for railroad employes was acted on favorably tonight by the joint railroad committee, and the committee on labor, after a hard fight, decided by a majority vote to report for passing the bill limiting to eight hours the employment of women.

HAS CROSSED THE ATLANTIC 52 TIMES

ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 5.—(Special.)—Fifty-two times, across the Atlantic, with an intention of making the 53d trip the coming summer, is the record of Father John Gribbin, chaplain at the hospital of the Sisters of the Dominican in this city, to which he has been sent temporarily by Bishop O'Dee, of this diocese. Father Gribbin is in his 77th year, hale and hearty, and able to conduct the mass and to go about the city as usual. He spent 13 years younger, Father Gribbin would be taken rather for a well-to-do retired merchant than for a priest of long and continued work. He was born in Ireland, near Belfast, and went to Canada at an early age. Besides the distinction of crossing the Atlantic so many times, he also constituted, with the present Archbishop O'Connor, of Toronto, a class of two ordained by the late Archbishop Lynch, of Toronto, the ceremony taking place in 1883. While the young priest, O'Connor, preferred to stay in one place and advance in the church, Father Gribbin craved travel and has spent nearly all of his life in that pleasant pursuit, going from one country to another and from one parish to another, covering a wide field of labor and acquiring a speaking and writing knowledge of French, Spanish, German and Italian. His present year in Rome and seven years in Mexico. His mission to Rome permitted him to meet all of the great prelates of the church. His first ocean trip was made in 1848 in a packet ship, and it took seven weeks for the voyage. His first voyage on a steamship was made on the old City of Antwerp. Father Gribbin loves diversity and travel and desires to keep on his feet in this way until the end.

Farmer's Family Escapes Clad Only in Night Clothes.

HOUSE THEN TAKES FIRE

Barn is Also Consumed and Six Cows and Ten Sheep Perish in Flames—Toledo, Or., Scene of Destructive Landslide.

TOLEDO, Or., Feb. 5.—(Special.)—The residence of C. F. Altree, one and one-half miles west of Toledo, was destroyed by a landslide at 10:30 o'clock last night, and afterward totally destroyed by fire. The family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Altree and five children and the mother of Mrs. Altree, narrowly escaped with their lives. The house started at a point on a high timber-covered hill, one third of a mile south of the house, and the warning was given by the elder Mrs. Altree, who had arisen to get a drink of water, and heard the first crack and rumble of the huge mass of earth, stone and trees. The members of the family, dressed only in their night clothes, had barely left the house when it was struck by the slide. Running before the still moving mass about 200 feet and then a short distance to a higher point, they reached a place of safety just as the slide bearing their wrecked home crashed into the barn and stopped.

Here the ruin was completed. Fire from the stove and a lamp started a blaze, which rapidly consumed house and barn and the contents of each. There were six cows and ten sheep in the barn. Two of the cows and all the sheep were burned to death, and the other cows badly injured, two being shot later to end their suffering.

The slide passed over comparatively level ground, and did not move very rapidly. The site of the Altree home and about six acres surrounding area buried under about 25 feet of earth, rock and timber. The mass of the earth from two or three feet in diameter. The slide was caused by the heavy rain which has fallen steadily in this section since February 2.

A Reasonable Plea for the Stomach

If Your Stomach Is Lacking in Digestive Power, Why Not Help the Stomach Do Its Work—Especially When It Costs Nothing to Try?

Not with drugs, but with a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. Scientific analysis shows that digestion requires pepsin, nitrogenous ferments, and the secretion of hydrochloric acid. When your food fails to digest it is proof positive that some of these agents are lacking in your digestive apparatus.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain nothing but these natural elements necessary to digestion and when placed at work in the weak stomach and small intestines supply what these organs need. They stimulate the gastric glands and thereby bring the digestive organs back to their normal condition.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been subjected to critical chemical tests at home and abroad and are found to contain nothing but natural digestive agents.

Chemical Laboratory, Telegraphic address, "Diffrindo," London, Telephone No. 1902 Central, 20 Colburn St., Finchbury St., E. C. London, 9th Aug., 1906.

I have analyzed most carefully a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I bought myself) at a city chemist's shop for the purpose of manufacture by the F. A. Stuart Co., Temple Chambers, London, E. C. and have to report that I cannot find any trace of vegetable or mineral poisons. Knowing the ingredients of the tablets, I am of the opinion that they are admirably adaptable for the purpose for which they are intended.

(Signed) John R. Brooke, F. L. C., F. S. There is no secret in the preparation of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Their composition is commonly known among physicians, as is shown by the recommendation of 5000 licensed physicians in the United States and Canada. They are the most popular of all remedies for indigestion, dyspepsia, water-brash, flatulence, loss of appetite, melancholia, constipation, dysentery and kindred diseases originating from improper digestion and assimilation of foods, because they are thoroughly reliable and harmless to man or child.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are at once a safe and a powerful remedy, one grain of these tablets being strong enough (by total) to digest 300 grains of steak, eggs and other foods. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food for you when your stomach can't.

ROBBED OF HEALTH AND MONEY TOO

The Worst Kind of Hold-Up. Means Which Have Been Taken to Ensure Public Safety.

Three thousand brainy druggists, men high in their profession, who have long looked with indignation upon the many schemes of unprincipled men to rob people of their health and money and at the same time make of the druggist a cheap vendor of worthless nostrums have completed an organization of such scientific strength as will exert a powerful influence for good over the entire country. These druggists are located all over the United States, and there are 300 in New York alone.

The association is known as the American Druggists' Syndicate, and in the preparation of prescriptions to take the place of the worthless mixtures that have flooded the country, the combined pharmaceutical knowledge of this entire body is available. The advice of this association to those who do not know the nature of their ailments is: "See a physician." But to those who do, they offer their professional experience in furnishing a preparation that they can conscientiously recommend.

One can readily see that the experience of such an organization is of unlimited strength and far-reaching in the relief of suffering humanity.

The first remedy that held the attention of this collection of professional men was FRUIT LAX. This is a never-failing relief for constipation. It is made from nature's true laxatives. The ingredients combine the concentrated juices of ripe fruits with the curative properties of nature's plants, so carefully blended that the confection is delicious and the action most effective.

Any one who has suffered from the annoyance of constipation realizes that the condition is always aggravated after using the harsh and irritating mixtures that come from inexperienced, irresponsible sources. The possible temporary relief they get simply lays the foundation for more serious trouble later on. It is the result that the cure will invariably bring a real, permanent relief. FRUIT LAX, but fresh air and plenty of exercise. There is no medicinal substitute for this satisfactory remedy. The price is 25 cents a box. One will establish its popularity. Other scientific prescriptions now offered by this association are remedies for the following ailments: There is one for each, and every one of them represents the combined knowledge and experience of this large association of eminent druggists: Headache, 2 sizes, 10c and 25c; Indigestion, 2 sizes, 25c and 50c; Cough Remedy, 2 sizes, 25c and 50c; Rheumatism, 2 sizes, 50c and $1.00; Quik Healing Salve, 25c; Kidney affections, 2 sizes, $1.00; Catarrh, 2 sizes, $1.00; Female trouble, 2 sizes, $1.00; Blood disorders, 2 sizes, $1.00; Cold and grippe, 2 sizes, 25c; Piles, 50c; Skin troubles, 50c; Quik Healing Salve, 25c; Liniment, 25c; Baby Syrup, 25c.

There are many others. Ask your druggist for a list. Send for a sample. If you're not satisfied, your druggist cannot supply you today, write, enclosing your address, to the American Druggists' Syndicate, 69 Murray street, New York. The following local druggists are members of the American Druggists' Syndicate and handle these goods: A. W. Allen, 241 North Sixteenth street; Arieta Pharmacy, Arlington, E. W.
