

LINGERIE WAISTS IN NEW EFFECTS

Our splendid showing of Lingerie Waists will give you a comprehensive idea of what the prevailing styles will be for the coming season. There is an air of freshness about these dainty garments that is bewitching, and the many lacy effects lend a note of dressiness to the entire line. Sleeves are mostly in three-quarter lengths.

SPEAKING OF GLOVES FOR SUMMER—

The long silk or lisle kind, may seem out of place just now. That's just the point—now's the time to speak about them and buy them, because they're going to be scarce—very scarce. In a short time people will talk about them and exclaim, "My, but they're awfully scarce, and what prices they charge!" Buy them now.

SCADDING DEFENDS STAGE

BISHOP OF OREGON FIRM BELIEVER IN ITS ART.

Says He Has No Sympathy With "Christian Faddists' Sweeping Denunciations."

The Right Rev. Charles Scadding, Bishop of Oregon, stoutly defended stage performances and the underlying principles of the stage last night, when asked about the organization of church and stage in the Actors' Church Alliance of America. Bishop Scadding is one of the champions of this alliance and in Chicago took an active interest in seeking to preserve Sunday as a day of rest for the actor and to abolish Sunday performances. The Actors' Church Alliance, of which Bishop Potter of New York is president, and Joseph Jefferson was at one time vice-president, stands for the fraternal and hearty recognition of the stage, by the church, as a great social institution, and is pledged to the abolition of prejudice, and seeks to bridge the chasm caused by centuries of misunderstanding on both sides. It appoints clergymen as chaplains to minister to the needs of members of the dramatic profession and issues calendars, to be posted in the local theaters, giving notices of services and the personal address of the chaplain. It is established in 400 cities and towns of the United States and Canada, and is affiliated with the Actors' Church Union of England under the presidency of the Lord Bishop of Rochester.

"Yes, I am a hearty supporter of the Actors' Church Alliance," said Bishop Scadding. "I firmly believe in its principles and same methods—and have no sympathy with the sweeping denunciations which some Christian faddists make against the stage. The stage has stood for 300 years because it has a basis in human nature. It represents an art, and human society never drops an art, nor ought it to do so. The theater is a field for the expression of the highest literature through a genuine art. Human society will not drop the stage, but will demand that it shall rise to its own standards, and be as pure as itself."

"That there are evils about the stage no one questions. Judging from some of the vile posters one sees there is no place upon the boards which must be abominable to every right minded, ambitious actor. Christian people ought to distinguish between the use and the abuse of the theater as of everything else, and while free to patronize good plays, should avoid as a moral plague that which panders to one's lowest instincts. Thoughtful Christian people have no more use for the actor, who poses in the psychological problem play, than they have for the clergyman, who poses in some heresy exploded in the third century. A pure, hearty laugh is a good

DOUBLE DUTIES TOO HEAVY

Rev. Clarence True Wilson Afraid of Nervous Breakdown.

Rev. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, and a prominent figure in the Paul Rader investigation, is on the verge of a nervous breakdown. Since Rev. Francis Burgette Short, pastor of the Taylor-street Methodist Church, left for the East, Rev. Mr. Wilson has been carrying a double load, having upon urgent request assumed many of Rev. Mr. Short's duties. These include the finding of a minister to fill the pulpit of the Taylor-street church each week, of having someone present at all the Sunday school and prayer meetings and of conducting all the funeral services of that church. This is in addition to the work of Rev. Mr. Wilson's own church, the pulpit of which he has filled every Sunday morning and evening for more than a year. This burden has told so heavily that for two months he has been feeling that he would have to take a vacation.

The prayer meeting last night was conducted by Rev. C. T. McPherson, of Estacada. Rev. Mr. Wilson said last night it might be necessary to find a substitute next Sunday, but that if he is able to do so he will preach at the morning service on "Ye Are the Salt of the Earth," and at the evening service on "Noah's Ark," also answering any questions on religious matters which may be handed in.

Leishman Calls Turk to Time. CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 7.—Weighed with delays so characteristic of Turkish officialdom, the American Ambassador, Mr. Leishman, has suddenly raised into prominence the question of the recognition of the Turkish Republic.

An Important Affair for People Wanting Pianos

The Reed-French Company has bought the retail piano store on Alder street near Park. They had to buy this store to get control of the Sommer Piano and Sommer Cecilian Piano-Player, which was held by the Alder street company. Reed-French do not intend to continue the Alder street store, but will close it out just as quickly as extravagant price-cutting will bring it about. See evening papers.
