FUNERAL OF WM. PFUNDER. Services Over Remains of Pioneer Held at Scottish Rite Cathedral.

FUNERAL SERVICES over the remains of William Pfunder, the pioneer druggist who died Friday morning, were held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the services the body was taken to the Riverside cemetery for interment. Friends of the deceased from the Harmony Lodge, No. 13, A. F. & A. M., German Aid Society, Odd Fellows and the A. O. U. W. marched in the funeral procession, which extended for several blocks.

There were about 100 men on foot. The Harmony Lodge, No. 12, A. F. & A. M., had charge of the services at the grave. Mr. Pfunder was a thirty-second degree Mason, and a member of the Mystic Shrine.

LIBRARY FOR ST. JOHNS. Abundant Support Pledged by Citizens at Mass Meeting.

The St. Johns Library is assured, at a well-attended mass meeting of citizens Saturday night at the schoolhouse, T. J. Manahan, president of the board of control, presiding. It was reported that nearly $500 had already been subscribed to the fund, and it was announced that $1000 was necessary, which will be made up in a few days more.

Rev. L. F. Young, pastor of the St. Johns Methodist Church, and Rev. W. J. Warren, of the Congregational Church, delivered forcible talks at the opening of the meeting, setting forth the benefits of a library and public reading room. The University Quartet gave a selection between the talks of Mr. Young and Mr. Warren.

D. C. Rogers, representing the St. Johns Commercial Club, said that the club could be depended on for $150 for the support of the library. M. L. Holbrook subscribed $100, and another

"If I Were King," at the Baker. Huguettes De Hiamel, Marie Gordon, Rene de Montigny, James Gleason, Denise, Ethel Gray Terry, Guy Tabaris, William Gleason, Gusts Cheliet, Maribel Seymour, Insham, Maribel Seymour, Colin de Cayeux, Leo Lindhard, Jehanneton La Belle Beaumiere, Blanche Le Loup, Lynton Athey, Ebiane Le Loup, Ethel Jones, Gullimette, Clara Lidberg, Robin Targis, William Harris, Kristan Le Hermitis, Donald Bowles, King Louis XI, John Sainpols, Francis Villon, Edgar Bagnard, Servant to Katherine, Thomas Harper, Katherine De Vaucelles, Lillian Lawrence, Olivier Le Bato, William Dills, Thibaut Pransigny, Arthur Mackley, Captain of the Watch, H. R. Meys, An astrologer, Lynton Athey, Noel La Joys, William Lee Greenleaf, Tolson D'Or, Thomas Harper, Montjoye, Robert Bradbury, Froit Schellis, Henry W. Jones, Petit Jean, Charles Hudson, First page, Sylvia Johnston, Second page, Valborg Ahlgren, Third page, Della De Mott, Fourth page, Florence Paesens, The Queen, Mrs. A. Banks.

THE second week of "If I Were King" opened at the Baker yesterday afternoon, and at both matinee and night performances the theater was filled to its utmost capacity.

Everything indicates that Manager Baker's experiment of presenting plays for two weeks will be a brilliant success. It is not the purpose to do this regularly, but when an extraordinary production like "If I Were King" is put on and the result for its continuance is so successful as in this instance, the public's desire in the matter will be complied with.

The company is doing phenomenal work. The present bill, and yesterday's performances were by far the most finished ever given by a local stock company.

Edgar Bagnard, John Sainpols, Lillian Lawrence and other members of the company have taken on the most important roles as repeating the notable hits they made last week. The public made no mistake in demanding another week of "If I Were King."

"Human Hearts" at the Empire. Hal Reid's famous melodrama of the backwoods Arkansas, which has been played many times, it is as certain to come as the seasons and it always packs the theater at which it is played.

"Human Hearts" is an excellent play, and as usual many people were turned away unable to secure seats.

"Human Hearts" is an excellent play, and as usual many people were turned away unable to secure seats.

The company this year is an acceptable one and the scenery is fully up to the standard.

Tom Logan, the hero, is played by Lincoln J. Plumer, a capable actor; O. M. Paul makes a good Jim Mason, while Rose Emerson as Ruth, Mary Thompson as the mother, Gertrude Phelps as the girl, and the ventures, and Baby Adele as Little Grace, are each entirely satisfactory in their parts.

"Human Hearts" will run through the week, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

THE various Japanese organizations of the city will celebrate anniversary of the coronation of the first Mikado of Japan, exactly 20 years ago, by a public entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

A somewhat elaborate programme will be given, consisting of music, Japanese fencing and jiu jitsu performances. This will be the first Japanese fencing bout ever seen in Portland.

An address will be given by the Japanese teacher of the art of fencing and jiu jitsu on the history of those sports.

The date of the coronation of the first Mikado is an important one in Japanese history for the modern Japanese reckon time from that event, as all Christendom does from the birth of Christ.

PERSONAL MENTION. O. W. T. Muellerhaupt, Theofil Muellerhaupt and their sister, Miss Frieda Muellerhaupt, have returned from Salem, where their father, the late Rev. J. Muellerhaupt, was buried.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—(Special).—Portland people at Chicago hotels: Great Northern, P. J. Jennings, Portland; Brevoort, J. F. Pickett, Portland.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(Special).—Northwestern people registered at New York hotels: Portland—J. A. Bell, Murray Hill, J. Whelan and wife, Imperial; O. R. Wiley, Union Square.

Spokane—W. Kuist and wife, Besslin; J. M. Head, Sinclair; J. M. Ingham, W. E. Finch, Union Square.

Seattle—C. E. Koene, Walcott, O. F. Weston, Mrs. J. C. Murray, Mashattan; A. J. Milton, Prince George, J. A. Ball, argeon, G. Allen, M. Kelly, Imperial; J. F. Sheehan, Union Square.

PADDLE THROUGH FLOOD

TWO CANOEISTS BREAK RECORD FROM ALBANY.

Voyage to Portland on River Is Accomplished in Little More Than Ten Hours.

A thrilling canoe voyage was that completed yesterday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock when Elvin Crutchfield and Irvin Schultz, two Albany canoeists, who had made the trip from Albany by water, reached the city.

The present flood stage of the Willamette would hardly be chosen by many people for a canoe voyage, but to the two enthusiasts who completed the distance yesterday, the present high stage
