Mayorality Race Threatens to Become Free-for-All Scramble.

LANE AGAINST MANNING

Flight on Democratic Side Is Well Defined—Republican Line-Up Is More Hazy—Thomas C. Devlin Now Most Active.

In spite of the fact that the next municipal election is several months away, candidates for the various offices are beginning to groom themselves for the coming campaign.

Next on the list is Louis Zimmerman, Zimmerman once was president of the City Council and while he was a city dad there was lots of talk about him for Mayor.

Still another man has been mentioned, and that is Don McAllen. Everybody knows Don McAllen.

W. A. Story, once Mayor and also an ex-Sheriff, has declared his intention of making the Mayorality. Story has never been satisfied with the plain, every-day duties of a business man since he was retired by the vote of the people.

There is also that little promise that he made the City Council that he could not explain away. When he had to "fease up" that he was receiving a salary from Harriman he announced that he was going to quit.

Mayor Lane's Strategy.
