GIBBONS ADMIRES FIGHTER

Sullivan Finds Better Audience for Monologue Than Hears Him at Theater-Remembers Kilrain as Defeated Opponent.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 21,-(Spe efal.)-By appointment John L. Sullivan was received by Cardinal Gibbons this afternoon and for half an hour the head of the Catholic Church in Amer ics and the former fisticust champion of the world entertained each other with stories and anecdotes. "I'm glad to meet you." was the cardinal's greeting. "You're a gentleman I've heard a lot about."

The redoubtable took up the conver sational end of the meeting and told the Cardinal some of his monologue stories which, he said, were above his anulence in the theater last night. The Cardinal, however, caught on and was much amused and then brought in Father Gavan to look at the glant.
"What broad shoulders you have, Mr.
Sullivan," exclaimed the Cardinal, in unconcealed admiration."

Oh, yes; but not so much," said the ex-champion, who then let his eminence feel his muscles.

"By the way," said the Cardinal,
"there used to be a man of some fame around here—Jake Kilrain; did you know him?"
Mr. Sullivan smiled and said:

"Yes, I met him and licked him." As the party passed out, the Cardinal shook hands again with the ex-champion and said: Well, good-bye and God bless you." Same to you," thundered John L.

HOUSE DEMOCRATS DEMAND LIBERTY OF DEBATE.

Filibustering Wastes Time on Sundry Civil Bill-Tawney Predicts Deficit Next Year.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The sundry civil appropriation bill was considered by the House today. By a vote of 165 to 41 general debate was closed and the bill was taken up under the five-minute

Forty pages had been read when Tawney again asked unanimous consent that the first reading be dispensed with, but objection was made by Clark of Florida, and the clerk resumed his reading with as much rapidity as he could command. The bill contained 198 pages, and, as no amendments could be offered on the first reading, the House aws compelled to lis-ten to the clerk's voice for about three

When 80 pages of the bill had been read Griggs of Georgia moved that the further reading be suspended. Sulzer, who com-pelled the first reading of the bill, agreed to this, but Tawney turned the tables by objecting and the reading of the bill was resumed.

Speaker Cannon, apparently much displeased, held an animated conversation with Clark of Missouri, insisting that the near approach of adjournment did not warrant such a waste of time. At 2:50 o'clock the reading was completed. Tawney startled the House as he told to what lengths the appropriations for this Congress had gone, and impressively said gress had gone, and impressively said that a rough estimate of the appropria-tions already made and to be made showed the this last session of the Fifty-ninth Congress would amount up to $1,006,-$14.468, the largest by many millions of any session. He said if next year's revenues did not increase the Treasury of the United States would face a defi-ciency of $100,000,000 at the close of the fiscal year 1908. He appealed to the patriotism of the House to do nothing to ncrease the vast aggregate.

The House entered on consideration of he bill under the five-minute rule. Suizer made a bitter complaint of the refusal to Clark of the privilege of making a thirty-minute speech on the bill, even going so far as to serve notice that "unless fairer consideration was ac-corded the minority, the bill would still corded the minority, the bill would still be on the ways at noon March 4." That Sulzer was not without support was soon made evident by a number of points of order made by Clark.

When the paragraphs appropriating $2000 for the protection of Casa Grande ruins in Pinal County, Arizona, was reached, Sulzer spoke of the skeletons found in those ruins and said:
"Here $300 is appropriated for the erection of a lot of skeletons in the Smithsonian Institution, while the needy employes of the Government, the life-saving service and other branches are saving service and other branches, are knocking at the doors for an increase of salary. I am for the living, not for a lot of people who lived in the Paleozoic age, and the $3000 would help out a lot

f people."

Mann of Illinois offered an amendment, which was adopted, appropriating $5000 to enable the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate block signal sys tems and appliances for the automatic control of rallway trains.

The House passed a number of bills and resolutions, including one calling on the Secretary of the Navy for information regarding repairs being made on the battleship Louisiana, and another enlarg-ing the act relating to shanghal-ing. The river and harbor bill was sent to

NEW TREATY WITH JAPAN

Aoki and Root Confer on Terms of Coolie Exclusion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 .- Viscount Aoki called at the State Department today to with Secretary Root the programme to be followed in conducting negotiations in forming a treaty relating o the restriction of Japanese coolle im-migration in the United States. As th Ambassador had been fully informed of all the steps leading to the passage of the immigration act and, in fact, had really suggested the adoption of measures really suggested the adoption of measures to exclude Japanese without passports he was not disposed to criticise adversely what should be done by Congress, and it is believed that before the assembling of is believed that before the assembling of the next Congress the new convention will be ready for consideration of the

CHANGE STATE SCHOOL LAW

Japanese Agreement Makes Restriction Needed in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—City and County Attorney Burke, in discussing the Japanese school case today, as altered by the new agreement, said:
"If the Japanese children over 16 years of age are to be kept out of our public schools, statute 1662 of the civil code will have to be repealed by the Legislature. "The statute makes provision that all children between the ages of 8 and 21 shall be allowed to enter our public schools, except for certain reasons. In case the Japanese are allowed to enter our general schools, a new statute will have to be framed, if the school board wishes to keep those over 16 years of age out of the schools.

"The statute also provides that in case an Oriental school is provided the children of the people so specified shall attend no other. Hence the present Oriental school must be abolished to allow the Japanese to enter our schools. But if the Oriental school is not abolished, then children so specified must attend that school and no other. The statute specifies children of Mongolian descent, and we shall insist until proved the Japanese are not of Mongolian descent."

No Connection With Japan.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.-It was stat-House today that the conference held there yesterday be-tween the President, Secretary Met-calf and the General Board of the Navy, had no bearing upon the rela-tions between the United States and Japan, and the advisability of an increase of the naval strength in Pacific waters. The statement was made that the name of Japan was not mentioned during the discussion. The conference it was further stated had to do in part with the general question of the per-sonnel of the Navy and other kindred

MAIL OR TELEPHONE

A NYTHING in this advertise-ment, and, for that matter, anything in this store, can be ordered and secured by mail or by telephone with ease and safety.

Our mail-order system is not of the ordinary, do-the-best-we-can sort. It is organized and conducted on a plan that insures efficiency. One distinguishing feature about it is that your order by mail is not handled by a general mail-order clerk, who may or may not be familiar with the goods you want. It goes into the hands of a person who has an especial, expert knowledge of that class of goods, who has handled nothing but that class of goods for years.

Our telephone shopping system, eonnecting with all departments, enables us to direct all telephone orders to just those persons who can best fill them, and you talk straight to the man or woman who sells the goods, just as you would if you came here yourself. They are good
