START WORK NEXT WEEK

UNITED RAILWAYS TO BEGIN ACTUAL CONSTRUCTION.

Crews Being Assembled and Materials Distributed on Front Street by Engineer Wickersham.

Preparations are going forward for commencing work on the United Railways front street line. Actual construction will be commenced early next week. Crews are being assembled and Chief Engineer Wickersham is distributing materials along Front street for the crews of workmen to commence work with. It had been expected to start operations this week, but the delay to 29 cars of steel which are now on their way West from the Eastern factories caused the further postponement. Washouts and landslides on the transcontinental roads brought about the delay in the arrival of materials. As it is desired to finish track building and re-lay the street block by block and thus keep the thoroughfares in a passable condition so far as possible, it was thought best to await the arrival of the material so that the track may be completed and the street restored to its normal condition. C. E. Loss, head of the United Railways project, is expected in Portland today, and he will probably remain and direct the commencement of the work. The construction will be in charge of Engineer Wickersham.

JUMP TRACK ON TRESTLE

Passenger and Coal Car Fall—One Dead, Seven Injured.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Feb. 22.—A combination coach and a loaded coal car of train No. 103 on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul narrow gauge railroad between Bellevue and Cascade today jumped the rails at a curve in the trestle over a small stream near Washington Mills and fell a distance of forty feet, the coal car landing on top of the coach, in which were 10 passengers. The coach was completely wrecked. One passenger was killed and seven seriously injured. The dead, Mrs. John Rohan, Fillmore, Ia. Fatally injured: Conductor Ted Martin, Bellevue, Ia.; Miss Mary McLaughlin, Barnard, Ia. Seriously injured: James Ponda, mail clerk, leg broken and badly cut and bruised; H. E. Farin, Dubuque, Ia., badly cut and bruised; Mrs. Davids and son, Cascade, severely cut and bruised. Mrs. Rohan was crushed to death. Conductor Martin's neck is broken and he is internally injured. Miss McLaughlin's back is reported broken.

FRANCHISE WAS MISTAKE

Only Those Negroes Properly Qualified Should Have Right to Vote.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 22.—The principal address at the exercises today commemorative of the opening of the Johns Hopkins University, was delivered by Hamilton Taylor, formerly Minister to Spain. Mr. Taylor is professor of international and constitutional law at Columbia University. His subject was, "The Relation of the South to Pending Problems." He regarded the 13th amendment to the Constitution as a Declaration of Independence because it set the South free from a dying institution. The first great mistake, he declared, was in the enfranchisement of those entirely unprepared for citizenship. The basic principle upon which the new Southern Constitution rests is, he said, that as fast as their colored citizens become qualified by education or property, or both, for the franchise, they shall be endowed with it. Intelligent and responsible minorities of colored voters thus introduced into Southern electorates could never menace the political supremacy of a race endowed with genius for domination. Along with a just and gradual bestowal of the franchise should go an earnest effort to advance the negro race through public education.

D. A. R. GIVE RECEPTION

CELEBRATES DAY IN QUAINT COLONIAL COSTUMES.

Multnomah Chapter of Order Holds Memorial at Home of Mrs. A. E. Rockey—Fine Decorations.

In spite of Lent, the reception given yesterday afternoon by the Multnomah Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Rockey, was largely attended and ranks as one of the brilliant events of the season. Dr. Rockey's home was gay with American flags, palms, sword ferns, pussy willows and a profusion of carnations. The receiving party, those serving in the dining-room, and the assistants wore quaint colonial costumes, powdered hair, antique brooches, and the ever-present beauty-patches. The guests were received at the door by a diminutive George Washington (Master Paul Goodwin) clad in white satin, with powdered wig, silk hose and pumps. Receiving with the Father of our Country was Martha Washington (Miss Jane Hoge) in a dainty rose pink costume of that period. The assistants in the dining-room were clad in somber Priscilla costumes, kerchiefs and caps. The receiving party consisted of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, state regent, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, regent of Multnomah chapter, Mrs. T. M. Anderson, vice-regent, and Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Assistant. In receiving were Mrs. John H. Hall, Mrs. L. L. Patterson, Mrs. Rinaldo Hall, Presiding at the table were, Mrs. W. H. Chapin, Mrs. S. Chapman, Mrs. H. H. Parker and Mrs. Mark Gill. Those serving were Mrs. W. C. Noon, Jr., Miss Jean Gray, Miss Grace Gray, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Janet Thomas, Miss Victoria Honeymay, Miss Alice Carey, Miss Beulah Nichols, Miss Eliza Parker, Miss Janet Noble and Miss Helen Altmeyer. Punch was served by Miss Alice Sanbury and Miss Anderson, daughter of General Anderson, U. S. A. A stringed orchestra played throughout the afternoon, and as a fitting finale played the National anthem. Many persons keep Carter's Little Liver Pills on hand to prevent bilious attacks, sick headache, dizziness, and find them just what they need.

FRANK L. SMITH MEAT CO.

226-228 ALDER ST., BET. FIRST AND SECOND STS.

"FIGHTING THE BEEF TRUST"

TO THE PUBLIC—As long as Smith has life, health and ability, he will continue fighting the Beef Trust. SMITH WILL STAY—NO TRUST CAN DRIVE HIM OUT. Eastern people are paying famine prices for meat. Portland people are eating Smith's meats—the tip-top pick of Oregon's ranges, the cheapest meat ever served to the public in the history of Portland. Smith is able to give the public these delicious, healthy, pure, clean meats at extraordinarily low prices, because he is doing the volume of business, because the grand majority of Portland people eat Smith's meats.

TO THE BEEF TRUST—Gentlemen, we have started to fight you, and we are going to lick you. We won't quit until you are lying in the ash-heap, you, the half-a-billion-dollar organization of Chicago, that seeks to monopolize the meat trade upon earth. We believe your days are numbered; we believe the next two years will see the disruption of you and every other trust that seeks to throttle the American people. You have done your worst by Smith, but you haven't hurt him. You have organized boycotts, you have started markets and hired "straw men" to run them. You have hired false witnesses—in short, you have almost reached the limit. The one thing left for you now is to TRY TO BUY THE PRESS; but here again you will be foiled. YOU WILL FIND THE PRESS OF PORTLAND, OREGON, AS CLEAN AND HONEST AS THAT OF MANY OTHER TOWNS WHERE YOU HAVE TRIED TO BRIBE. Let us refresh your memory with a few quotations from Charles Edward Russell, in Everybody's Magazine:

"The trust sent out representatives to go quickly from town to town in the West placing advertisements in the local newspapers. It is a gratifying comment on the integrity of our press that the number upon which the bribing was in one way or another attempted, must have been very large."
