EAST SIDE CLUBS UNITE

FEDERATION FORMED BY ALL IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATIONS.

Each Organization Is Allowed Five Delegates to Act Upon Questions of Mutual Interest.

Preliminary organization of what will be known as the East Side Club Federation was effected last night at the Bureau of Information on East Morrison and East Second streets. Delegates were present from the East Side Improvement Association, East Side Business Men's Club, Northeastern Improvement Association, Nolita Improvement Club, Woodstock Push Club, Brooklyn Republican Club, Center Addition Progress Association, Montavilla Improvement League, East Twenty-eighth Street Improvement Association and Woodlawn Improvement Club.

On motion Whitney L. Boise was elected temporary chairman, and he announced that the object of the movement is to form a federation. He said that it was the outgrowth of an expressed wish of all the organizations that some form of concerted action being taken so that all the clubs could unite on questions that affected the interest of the whole of the East Side. It was the sentiment of the delegates present that such federation would be advantageous.

There was an extended discussion of representation in the federation. It was finally decided to give each club a representation of five delegates and each club to have five votes on questions that might come up, the delegates to vote individually. If there is but one representative present he can cast five votes, so that each club will have equal position. A committee on permanent organization was appointed as follows: H. G. Parsons, President; T. J. Gregg, Woodlawn; C. Ben Relsland, Woodlawn; George E. Frank, Northeastern district; Frank S. Bennett, East Twenty-eighth Street Improvement Association. The body then adjourned to meet Tuesday, March 19, when the federation will be permanently organized.

ROSENTHAL PLAYS LISZT

Arranges One of Composer's Pieces for Portland Programme.

For pianists to make their own "arrangements" of the compositions of their forerunners has been common enough in musical history. Chopin, Tausig, arranged Bach and many more, Rubenstein arranged Schumann, and all recent players have arranged Liszt in the way of smoothing out the superabundant technical difficulties of his writings. It has been left for Rosenthal, the lion of the piano, who plays at the Heilig next Tuesday evening, to "arrange" Liszt by multiplying these difficulties. Only a giant of technique like Rosenthal would have the audacity to venture upon such hazardous ground. The Liszt arrangements will be included in the programme to be given here next Tuesday. The recital is under the direction of Lois Stearns-Wyynn Coman, and the seat sale opens Saturday morning.

PAUL RADER QUILTS

Head of Anti-Saloon League Resigns.

GOES IN FOR LITERATURE

Not Enough Money in Present Position, and So He Will Take Up Offer of Publisher.

He Says.

Rev. Paul Rader tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon yesterday morning in a brief type-written communication addressed to Rev. E. Nelson Allen, chairman of the headquarters committee. It is probable that, at a meeting to be held this afternoon, the resignation will be accepted and steps taken to fill the place. Mr. Rader assigns financial difficulties as the sole reason for his resignation, stating that the salary he received was so meager he could not afford longer to serve as superintendent.

Rev. Paul Rader, Who Resigned as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

for Oregon. He will engage in literary pursuits, he stated last night, but declined to make public the names of the publications for which he will write. The resignation, addressed to the chairman and members of the headquarters committee of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, is as follows: "Gentlemen—I herby tender to you my resignation as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon.

"In view of the fact that the present income of the league is needed largely for the payment of its indebtedness and current expenses, I feel that the meager portion left for salary is insufficient for my financial support. I regret exceedingly that it is necessary for me to sever my connection with the organization, which has stood by me loyally during my administration. As another field of labor has offered itself to me, I kindly ask that my resignation be accepted at once. With kindest regards to all, and best wishes for the future success of the league, I remain,

"Sincerely yours, "PAUL RADER." Mr. Rader has served as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League for Oregon since January 18, 1906, and was re-elected to the position only three weeks ago. He was to have received $2000 a year as salary, but it is said that the expenses of the campaigns conducted while he was in office were so extensive to such an extent that he has been "paid" not to exceed $1000.

"I was greatly engrossed in the work of the league," said Mr. Rader last night, "but I could no longer afford to deny myself the financial opportunities offered by a publisher, and for the success of my literary work I had to give up the league. My sentiments are all expressed in the letter of resignation, except that I wish to say the organization is now well financed and has a fine headquarters committee. It is in condition to accomplish much good."

Mr. Rader is a Congregationalist, and it has just become known that he had an official call to Westminster Church, of Spokane, to which Dr. Elton Lincoln House just went, after resigning from the First Congregational Church here. Mr. Rader was mentioned also for the pulpit of Hasall-street Congregational Church. He stated last night, however, that he does not intend taking any pulpit, but may preach occasionally Sundays, he said.

Rev. E. Nelson Allen, chairman of the headquarters committee, expressed regret at Mr. Rader's resignation, but said he and the members of the committee fully understood that financial loss sustained by him during his superintendency had rendered his further service impossible.

"We all know that Mr. Rader has suffered much financially in taking up the work of superintending," said Rev. Mr. Allen, "and, while we regret to have him leave the work, we know he could not afford longer to deprive himself of the opportunity to employ his time at much better salary. A meeting to consider the resignation will probably be held at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon in the offices of the Anti-Saloon League, and doubtless the resignation will be accepted. We will then choose his successor just as soon as we can find the right man."

Never Again in Future Years

EXTREMELY LOW PIANO PRICES AT EILERS LIKELY NOT TO BE DUPLICATED AGAIN.

Join One of the Co-operative Clubs Today—It Means the Saving of $75 to $200 in the Purchase Price—Terms So Easy That Every Family Can Afford an Instrument—Quality and Co-operation and What They Mean.

There is a connection between quality and co-operation when applied to piano-purchasing that few people have succeeded in realizing. This connection is vitally important in understanding fully the grand opportunity now held out by Eilers Piano House. Quality is the most essentially important consideration. No article of merchandise, of whatever price, is worthy of purchase unless it possesses quality. By quality is meant the attribute of durability or utility, of excellence of design and pleasing appearance.

Applying this feature to pianos: If the piano that is to be purchased has not quality, that is, if it has not durability, tone, a pretty and excellent cabinet, then, in most cases, it is scarcely worth the space it occupies. Such a piano is usually to be obtained only by paying a very high price; and such a piano is usually worth a high price, but whenever such a piano can be bought at a low price, compared with the price at which it regularly sells, then that piano becomes a bargain that no one who wishes to buy a piano can afford to overlook.

IT'S CO-OPERATION. Right at this point is where co-operation comes in handy. Eilers Piano House has devised a plan whereby pianos of the very "Highest Quality" may be purchased at prices far below what other dealers are charging for pianos that are scarcely in the mediocre class. If you have not done so, investigate the Co-operative Piano Buyers' Clubs right away. Today it means the saving of at least $75.00 to $200.00 in the purchase price.

Hazleton, Chickering, Kimball, Schumann and Marshall & Wendell pianos may actually be obtained at Eilers Piano House at prices and terms that will amaze you. And the co-operative plan is so arranged that it actually obligates every member to pay for the piano that he chooses for his home.

There is no more reasonable plan imaginable for the purchase of a piano than the co-operative plan. Investigate it and you will realize the exceptional advantages that it offers. There is no reason why you should not order a piano today and have it installed in your home tomorrow. Come to Eilers Piano House and be convinced of the simplicity of the proposition. New number, No. 353 Washington street.

Dissolution of Partnership

On April 1st, two of the Soule Brothers, Messrs. Buell S. and Charles R. Soule, will retire from the firm of SOULE BROS. PIANO CO., and it is necessary to convert our entire stock of Pianos, Organs, Piano-Players and Player-Pianos into cash or contracts by that date.

In order to accomplish this by the first of April, we fully realize that we must cut prices as they were never cut before, on instruments of the grade.
