EXPLAINS NEW SUNDAY LAW

DR. TUFTS TALKS OF IDAHO REST BILL. Superintendent of Reform Bureau Says California Is Now Only State Without Such Legislation.

Dr. G. L. Tufts, district superintendent of the Reform Bureau of the Pacific Coast, has returned to Portland from attending the Idaho Legislature. While there Dr. Tufts gave his attention to securing the passage of the Sunday rest bill. Speaking of the new law last night, he said: "The bill was passed by a vote of 22 to 14 in the House and 15 to 4 in the Senate. It will go into effect the second Sunday of May. It is a law which concerns the public at large, and contains many important provisions. "It provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to keep open on Sunday for the purpose of any business, any store, whatever, except hotels and restaurants for furnishing lodging and meals, livery stables, stores for the sale of medicines or sick-room supplies, undertakers, news stands for the quiet sale and delivery of daily papers and magazines. The law does not apply to the sale of non-intoxicating refreshments, candies and cigars. The penalty for violating this provision is a fine of $25 to $100, or imprisonment not to exceed 30 days, and upon a second conviction by both such fine and imprisonment. "It also stipulates that it shall be unlawful to keep open on Sunday any saloon or place of any kind or description in which liquors are at any time sold or exposed for sale; or to sell liquor except for medicinal purposes; or to keep open any theater, dance-hall, racetrack, merry-go-round, circus or show, concert saloon, billiard or poolroom, bowling-alley, variety-hall, or any such place of public amusement. The penalty for the violation of this provision is a fine of $20 to $50 for each offense, and imprisonment not to exceed 30 days, and upon a second conviction the revoking of the license for two years for maintaining such place of business. "The law makes it the duty of each prosecuting attorney, sheriff, constable, city or town marshal and all other public officers of the state to inform against and prosecute all persons guilty of violating

Sherwood Recital at Murlark Hall

- Programme.
Sonata, Appassionata, Op. 57.
Allegro Assai.
Andante con Moto.
Allergo ma non Troppo.
Prelude in B flat Minor--Well Tempered Clavichord, Book I, No. 22.
"Soiree de Vienne" No. 6.
"Traumerel" (Dreams)... Schubert-Liszt
"En Route"... Godard
Barcarolle Op. 69... Chopin
"Preludes Op. 28 Nos. 16-23-24... Chopin
Pianoque... Tchaikowsky
March Op. 81 No. 4... MacDowell
"Witches Dance"... MacDowell
Melody... Herman P. Chelius
Exhilaration, Op. 14, No. 3... William H. Sherwood
Lolden's Liebes-Ted (from Tristan and Isolde)... Wagner-Liszt
Pastor Waltz... Gounod-Liszt

THE Sherwood recital at Murlark Hall, following so closely the Rosenthal concert, did not make the impression it would have done under more favorable circumstances, but was, nevertheless, deeply appreciated by the several hundred music-lovers who attended. A noticeable large number of teachers and pupils were present, for Sherwood is famed as an instructor as well as a master musician. The programme was broad in its scope, covering the classics and modern romantic schools from the time of Bach to the present day. The swinging rhythm and military character of "En Route," by Godard, was in marked contrast to the capricious witchery of "Soiree de Vienne," No. 6, by Liszt, while the caring lovefulness of his touch in the much-admired "Traumerel" of Schubmann atforded opportunity for charming light and shade in pianissimo. The original composition, "Exhilaration," was given with a dash and abandon that compared favorably with the classic compositions of the programme. The contrasting personalities of Rosenthal and Sherwood were shown in the interpretation of the "Appassionata," Op. 57, of Beethoven. While Rosenthal gave a passionate rendition that was almost pagan in its wild fury, Sherwood infused into the notes a resignation that held in check the emotions. Sherwood's art is more easily comprehended by the general public than Rosenthal's, and is full of suggestion for the teachers and talented amateurs. Mr. Sherwood has been engaged to give a second recital Friday night in the Unitarian Chapel, when he will be assisted by a former Oregon pupil, Mrs. Alice Marshall, of Seaside. MRS. E. E. GORE.

OKLAHOMA IS STIFLING.

Extreme Heat and Humidity--Guthrie Has 102 in Shade. GUTHRIE, Okla., March 19--All heat records of Oklahoma were broken today when the registration was 102 in the shade. The unusual humidity was accompanied by a stiff breeze. Reports from all over the territory are of a like nature. At Oklahoma City the mercury reached 87 and at Thomas 86.

Want New Designs on Coins.

NEW YORK, March 19--The American Numismatic and Archaeological Society approved last night the recommendations of its committee on coinage in regard to the issue by the United States of an entirely new coinage, artistic in design. The committee, of which Dr. George F. Kunz is at the head, was empowered to go ahead and bring the society's recommendations to the attention of the proper authorities. The coinage committee of the society believes that Congress ought to appropriate $10,000 apiece to get new designs for each of the ten denominations included in the coinage.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to return our heartfelt thanks to all kind friends who assisted in the illness and death of our son and brother, L. J. GARDNER. MRS. KATE GARDNER, Oregon City.

FRANK L. SMITH MEAT CO. 226-228 ALDER Bet. First and Second "FIGHTING THE BEEF TRUST"

Table listing retail prices for various meats including BEEF (3c to 15c), LAMB (5c to 15c), VEAL (6c to 15c), and PORK (5c to 15c) with specific cuts and prices.

Here are a few things that we have seen going into the Beef Trust markets that claim to have Government inspection of meats. We will testify likewise at any Government investigation:
First--Meats from small East Side butchers. (We have no reason to believe the meat was not good, but nevertheless it was not Government inspected.)
Second--Hogs from the feeders of Hogtown. (They were not Government inspected.)
Third--Meat that was shipped to Seattle and caught in the flood. After lying in closed cars for several days and getting sticky and slimy it was sent out to the different Beef Trust markets. (It had been Government inspected about ten days previously.)
Fourth--Meats that were Government inspected in Chicago and sent out to Portland to be sold to the public. And all this time we don't say one word against Government inspection (nor the officials in charge of the bureau in this city, whom we consider honest, trustworthy men), but we do say a whole lot against those concerns and markets who advertise Government inspection merely for a cloak to carry out a monopoly. They seem to think that Government inspection means Government protection. They do not. In a day to discredit Government inspection than the Nation can do in ten years to build it up.
