

RAISE BALANCE OF $350.00 IN WEEK

Expert Solicitors Will Conduct Whirlwind Campaign for Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A.

EVERYBODY ASKED TO GIVE

Previous Donations Will Not Be Accepted as Excuse for Not Contributing Again—Only $30.00 More Is Needed.

Next Monday morning the City of Portland will be invaded by the largest, most determined, and most aggressive army of expert money-hunters it has ever seen.

When the soliciting army starts out Monday to collect in six days the $30,000 needed to complete the building fund for the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., it will be the best trained company of expert money-hunters ever seen.

The associations need $30,000 to complete their $50,000 building fund. The big men of Portland have given, and now the entire campaign is to be wound up in a week by this six score of experts, charging on the town under the banner of the "Everybody Asked to Give" campaign.

Portland has had donation parties, but nothing like this has ever been attempted. There never has been a canvass of the city and its suburbs by a team of expert money-hunters.

The plan of campaign is simple. One hundred of the largest firms in the city have their best solicitors for the week's work. These hundred men may be selling shoes in Washington, sugar in Utah, corn sales in California, hams in Baker city or wagons in Clatsop this week, but next week they are going to be raising money for the association building fund with all the same vigor and enthusiasm.

One hundred young men, divided into fifty groups, will be trained to do the work. These hundred men may be selling shoes in Washington, sugar in Utah, corn sales in California, hams in Baker city or wagons in Clatsop this week, but next week they are going to be raising money for the association building fund with all the same vigor and enthusiasm.

Some twenty expert city salesmen met at the Y. M. C. A. last night to discuss the day evening and took up the plan of campaign. The men did not know much about the Y. M. C. A. work in several instances; they were not exactly sure about the amount of personal pity they had as an asset, but they were sure they could get the money.

"Do you think you can get ten $50 subscriptions a day?" asked Secretary Stone of one young man who was taking it all in and saying nothing.

"Well, I should hope so. I have been writing life insurance on babies at 50 cents down and 10 cents a week and making a living out of commissions," remarked the slick one.

"Get it!" said a wagon salesman who had just returned from the Washington woods. "Why of course we'll get it. Anybody that can sell a wagon to a prairie grower can sell a nickel anywhere."

Complete Plans Tonight. Tonight the entire hundred get together to lay final plans for the attack and enable the chairman of the small bands to line up their forces and discover what sort of material they have to work with.

Progressive Criticism. Mrs. Mallory Collides With Rev. H. W. Wyse Jones on Theology.

PORTLAND, March 21.—(To the Editor.)—In last Monday's Oregonian Rev. H. W. Wyse Jones is reported to have said that Y. M. C. A. "Many scholars are switching off to some destructive criticism of the word of God."

A scholar must be progressive in this day and age, and if Mr. Jones would be liberal he would allow the scholars to investigate a bit for himself to make sure of his ground, and not hammer progressive—who is the watchdog of the hour—by trying to hold the scholar strictly to the old outgrown methods of religion in the fullest sense.
