BASKETS ARE EMPTY

Anglers Open Season With Poor Luck.

MANY WHIP ICY STREAMS

Sportsmen, However, Are Not Discouraged, But Return to the City With Pleasant Recollections of Visits to Favorite Haunts.

Many veteran anglers, those who whip the mountain streams for trout, and return to the city with tales of the numbers of speckled beauties caught, went out in force Monday and most of them returned yesterday. Few had anything in their baskets to show for the day's sport, yet all were happy and had the satisfaction of saying that they were out on the first of the season.

The real angler always fishes on the first of the season and even if he does not return with a basket full of trout he has the pleasure of visiting old haunts and the delight of whipping the turbulent torrent. At this period of the year, nobody expects large catches, for the fish are not yet developed. But there is always fascination in fishing and the true sportsman delights to sit on a boulder or log hoping every minute to haul in a big one.

According to a number of well known anglers, the trout pay little attention to flies, and snub altogether the shiners. The best bait is salmon eggs but they must be fresh, as the fish pay little attention to old or stale eggs. And the old reliable angle worm, dug from under boards and planks and found in barnyards and under old buildings, is good bait, for fish always nibble at these.

The favorite stream for early fishing has always been Johnson Creek. It has been fished for years, yet at the beginning of every season good catches are made there. Later there are few fish there, but it always has and always will

HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

M. MACAULAY ACCUSED BY HIS FORMER EMPLOYERS.

Said to Be Short in Accounts $4500 as Cashier of Local Lumber Company.

On a charge of embezzlement, M. Macaulay was arrested by Detective Sergeant Bury of the Police Department, and Detective Patrick Maher, of the District Attorney's office, as he was about to board the O. R. & N. train for Salt Lake at the Union Depot at 8 o'clock last night. He was taken to Police Headquarters, where he was booked. Macaulay formerly was head bookkeeper and cashier for the Oregon & Washington Lumber Company. His books are being experted. It is alleged that there is a shortage of at least $4500 in his accounts.

Regents for Drain Normal.

SALEM, Or., April 2.—(Special.)—Governor Chamberlain today appointed Benton Mires, of Drain, as a member to serve on the Board of Regents of the Central Oregon State Normal School, to succeed J. A. Black, resigned. The maintenance of the Drain school having been curtailed by the veto by the Governor of the Monmouth-Drain appropriation bill, the appointment only holds good for a month, from which time the board will have to make arrangements of their own to carry on the work of the school. It is understood that the work will be supported by popular subscriptions.

HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

M. MACAULAY ACCUSED BY HIS FORMER EMPLOYERS.

Said to Be Short in Accounts $4500 as Cashier of Local Lumber Company.

On a charge of embezzlement, M. Macaulay was arrested by Detective Sergeant Bury of the Police Department, and Detective Patrick Maher, of the District Attorney's office, as he was about to board the O. R. & N. train for Salt Lake at the Union Depot at 8 o'clock last night. He was taken to Police Headquarters, where he was booked. Macaulay formerly was head bookkeeper and cashier for the Oregon & Washington Lumber Company. His books are being experted. It is alleged that there is a shortage of at least $4500 in his accounts.

A lawyer who was summoned to take charge of Macaulay's case declined to make any statement whatever, except to say that his client was entirely innocent, and was going to Salt Lake on business and not to escape the authorities.

The police did not hold a warrant for Macaulay's arrest, but the detectives had been authorized by the District Attorney to take him into custody, as soon as proof of the embezzlement was found. Until that time, Detective Maher intended to board the train and keep the suspect under surveillance until a warrant could be issued.

The wreck of a freight train on the O. R. & N. line prevented the passenger train from leaving the Portland depot on schedule time, and a few minutes before it was to start a telephone message reached the detectives to the effect that an actual shortage of at least $4500 had been discovered, and that they were to make the arrest at once.

HOLD CONVENTION HERE

Knights of the Macabees to Elect Supreme Delegate.

A convention of the lodges of the Knights of Macabees will be held next Friday night, at the Knights of Pythias Hall, where 50 delegates representing all the different lodges in the state will meet for the purpose of electing a delegate to the Supreme Congress of the order. Of the 50 delegates, 15 are from Multnomah County and 12 from Portland. Every train in Oregon will be represented. The railroads have granted a one-and-a-third fare for the round trip.

Social Lions Guard Burglar.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 2.—(Special.)—While the guests of the Dresden Hotel were dancing tonight, James Mikolien, a waiter at the Olympus Cafe, was caught prowling about the house in a suspicious manner and captured as a burglar. He was taken back to the bathroom, seated among the dancers and guarded by all the guests until the police arrived and took him to the station.

May Call Special Election.

It is probable that a special election will be called in two months to submit the new charter to the voters of St. Johns. It requires 60 days' notice and a petition to get it before the people. Copies of the charter also must be printed for inspection of voters. The charter is completed. Some changes have been made to the original draft so as to include the election of a city police judge and thus take the burden of hearing cases from the shoulders of the Recorder.

You are startled at the price of fuel, groceries are expensive, farm produce, such as eggs, butter and potatoes, are high, clothing is costly, rents are out of sight, and the only necessity of life that is absolutely choice and at the same time extraordinarily cheap is Smith's meats; and it is because Smith is fighting the trust.

Smith is doing the bulk of Portland's meat business; he should be doing it all, because he is Portland's only independent meat dealer, the only one who stands between the Portland public and the Chicago Beef Trust. If Smith were not "FIGHTING THE BEEF TRUST," you would be paying 40 and 50 cents per pound for the best cuts of meat, and 12 1/2 cents for the cheapest cuts, and a large part of Portland's people would be suffering for the want of sufficient food.
