DECISION GOES TO KANN

SPOKANE TAKES TWO OUT OF THREE OF THE BOUTS.

Bert Kerrigan Protests Against Decision of Referee, Disqualifying Johnson, of Portland.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 12.—(Special.)—Spokane took two out of three bouts in the dual boxing and wrestling meet with Multnomah here tonight, Walsh being Multnomah's only medal-winner. He defeated Creel in the 145-pound boxing contest, getting a decision at the end of the extra fourth round.

Kann, Spokane, 133 pounds, was given the decision over Johnson, Multnomah, 125 pounds, Referee Rusk disqualifying Johnson for refusing to quit the struggle hold that was fast choking the Spokane man into unconsciousness. This decision was vehemently protested by the Multnomah people, and Bert Kerrigan notified Ed Wright, manager of the S. A. A. C., that on behalf of Multnomah he would protest against the medal to Kann, and would call Wright before the P. N. A. officials to explain why the medal was given to a Spokane man, Multnomah claims it was not a strange hold, and that the decision should have been awarded to the Multnomah man, when Bullivant, Spokane's wrestling instructor, jumped into the ring and interfered with the wrestlers.

Parsons, Spokane, was given the decision over Dranga, Multnomah, in the 125-pound boxing bout, at the end of the third round. Dranga put up a much better fight than on the former meeting between the two boys, when Parsons knocked him out. He was outpointed, however, Parsons being too fast and too rangy for him.

Parsons knocked Dranga down twice during the contest, and the Multnomah boy was groggy in the first round. He finished strong and the last round was about even, Parsons landing the most blows.

The largest crowd that ever packed into the S. A. A. C. arena for a professional

COPPER MERGER ENJOINED

Calumet & Hecla Forbidden to Vote Osceola Stock.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 12.—Judge Knappen, in the Circuit Court this afternoon, granted a preliminary injunction restraining the Calumet & Hecla Mining Company from voting the stock which it holds in the Osceola copper mine. The injunction was issued at the request of A. S. Bigelow, president of the Osceola Company, and is the outcome of the recent hearing before Judge Knappen, following the action of the Michigan Legislature in recalling the bill to forbid one mining corporation to acquire stock in another.

TRYING TO SAVE PETITION

MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION WILL CHECK UP ORDINANCE.

Effort Being Made to Rectify Enough Irregularities to Get Measure Placed on Official Ballot.

An effort to substantiate names as rapidly as they are stricken from the McKenna Sunday closing and $1000-liquor-licensing petition was taken up by the Municipal Association and those interested in the proposed ordinance yesterday. A hired agent of the association kept close tally on the work of the canvassing committee and each name that was thrown out because it did not represent a registered voter was copied on a slip of paper, later to be turned over to Paul Rader, who will endeavor to find out just who the signer is and whether he is entitled to vote, regardless of whether he registered or not.

It is held that in most instances the names are of regular but unregistered voters whose names cannot lawfully be withheld from the petition.

Five sections of the petition were canvassed yesterday and the percentage of names to be thrown out was large. Out of 211 names a total of 129 were not found on the registration books. Representatives of the liquor interests say they have found several instances of flagrant violations of the terms under which petitions must be signed.

Dr. W. F. Lewis was found to be a nonresident, but he said he was told this did not matter, as names were wanted and no trouble would follow should he sign. It was also found that a soldier visited H. T. Ong, in The Oregonian building, with a letter of introduction from a friend asking him to sign. Regardless of the fact that he was not a registered voter, Ong said he was urged to attach his signature, which he did.

The name of one woman, a Mrs. Tarwell, was found in the list on one of the petitions. Mrs. Tarwell is a resident of South Portland. She said she could not imagine how her name came to be on the petition, as she did not place it.

On petition 21 a total of 23 registered names were found and 19 unregistered; on 22 there were 23 registered and 59 unregistered; on 23 were found 17 registered and 44 unregistered, and 24 developed 7 good names and 17 bad.

MAY USE BOTH SIDES NOW

Postmaster Minto Discusses New Rules as to Postcards.

Postmaster Minto said yesterday that by virtue of a recent decision of the Postoffice Department it is now permissible to write on the address side of post cards, leaving of course, a place for the address. The words "post card" are no longer required to be printed on the address side of such cards.

Mr. Minto also stated that the report that 2-cent stamps could be used instead of the official 10-cent stamp on special delivery letters, provided, the sender writes the words "special delivery" beneath the five 5-cent stamps is untrue. There is no law of which he is aware which makes it obligatory upon postmasters to deliver letters which have other than the regulation 10-cent special delivery stamp upon them. He added that the person who uses ordinary 2-cent stamps on special delivery letters not only does not get his letters specially delivered, but he thereby loses eight cents in postage, as letters so stamped are not delivered any sooner than a letter which has but one 2-cent stamp upon it.

Replace Bone With Wax.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The surgeons of St. Gregory's Hospital performed an operation yesterday on a 2-year-old Italian boy, Peter Lepari, of Brooklyn, by which they replaced a portion of a necrotic bone of the left forearm with a substance known as "bone wax," which will in time, the surgeons say, turn into bone.

The surgeons said that the operation was one of the first kind in this country and that without doubt it would be a success. Bone wax was discovered by a German chemist ten years ago and has been used in Vienna.

Fay Templeton Will Retire.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Dispatches from Boston, where Miss Fay Templeton is staying in "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," says that the actress intends to retire at the end of her present season, which will be about five weeks more.

Since contracting with William Patterson, of Pittsburgh, last summer, Miss Templeton has looked forward to the time when she should be free to retire to private life and this time, it is stated, is near.

KILLS SHEETS INDICTMENT

Total Defect in Charge Against the Chief of Police.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 12.—The information against Chief of Police George Sheets, charging him with complicity in the operations of an organized gang of swindlers who are alleged to have systematically fleeced tourists passing through Salt Lake, was dismissed by Judge Armstrong in the District Court today. The court held that the information really charged Sheets with a felony, but that, as the lower court had bound the defendant over merely for the conspiracy—a misdemeanor—the information would have to be dismissed.

The eight men named with Sheets in the original information are thus practically released with him. They are: Chief of Detectives Raleigh, Attorney Newton, W. H. Parrent, J. J. Bell, Joseph Donaldson, Larry O'Brien, John O'Brien and Ross Roscutt.

The complaint grew out of the robbery of $1000 in a card game in a lodging house here last winter. The charge against Sheets was that he had accepted money for protecting the swindlers in their operations. The state may appeal the case to the State Supreme Court.

Louisville Piano Store Burned.

LOUISVILLE, April 12.—Fire today destroyed the piano and music store of the Smith & Nixon Company. Loss, $160,000. A number of persons living on upper floors were rescued by firemen. The fire was fought in the face of a blizzard.
