MILL IS READY TO GRIND WITNESSES GATHERING FOR

GRAND JURY SESSION.

Important Evidence of Land Frauds the grand jury.

Has Been Collected-Interesting

Developments Are Expected.

Everything is in readiness for the coming Federal grand jury session. Already witnesses and jurors who have received their summons to appear at the Federal Court building on Wed-nesday are arriving, although some of the witnesses who have come, will not be needed in the cases that will be called first for investigation. United States Atorney Bristol has turned over practically all of the cases, save those of land fraud, to his assistant, James Cole. The list of Federal prisoners whose future freedom depends upon whose future freedom depends upon the action of the grand jury number something like 25 and they embrace crimes from shooting to that of Post-

Judging from care and secrecy with which the Federal officials are guard-ing the status of the land fraud inves-istations, which have been going on under Thomas B. Neuhausen, special Inspector, in charge of the Oregon land fraud investigations, there is every reason to believe that before the jury gets through grinding its grist, a num ber of prominent people will be in-volved. Special Agent Jones, together with several other agents of the Inter for Department have been out in the field for months collecting evidence and now it is all ready for the cars of

Mr. Coleman told of the work of the session. The figures given indicating the money raised during the 25 years of the existence of the church, are as follows: Fund for elders and poor, $2531.12; extra for music, 1855, $214.80; communion set, 584.86; board of trustees funds for first 14 years, $4598.71; same for last 11 years, 1805 to 1907, $4214.75, making a total of $11.554.24. $11,554.24.

William B. Honeyman told of the trustees from the time the church was organ-ized until the prosent. The first trus-tees, he said, were George J. Ainsworth, H. J. Corbett, W. M. Ladd, J. B. Wyatt,

F. B. Strong and William B. Honeyman. Horace D. Ramsdell told of the work of the Sunday school. He said that the Sunday school was first organized in 1878. He said that as there was neither jeal-ousy nor friction the school grew rapidly. In those days, he said, Thirteenth and Main streets was almost out of the city. After the school, came the prayer meet-ing, and then it was but a matter of a few months until the church was organ-tered.

John Bain told of the work of the En deavor Society; Mrs. H. N. Scott spoke of the Ladies' Aid Society, and Mrs. W. S. Holt of the Woman's Missionary So-clety. Mrs. Scott said that one of the meetings of the Ladies' Aid Society which had far-reaching results was held on the church steps, as the church was locked that day.

the work of the Young Women's Bible class. She said that the first teacher was Mrs. Campbell. The class now consists of the Bible study department, the mis-sion study department and the social de-

Miss Metta Brown then sung as a solo Tennyson's beautiful poem, "Break Break, Break on Thy Cold Grey Stones "Break. O Sea!

O Sea!" Communications were read from Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D. D., Mrs. H. F. Suksdorf and J. D. Kufbert, after which Rev. Warren H. Landon, D. D., pastor of the church from 1887 to 1892, and Rev. William S. Gilbert, pastor between 1899 and 1906, told of their experiences before, during and since their pastorates. In connection with the meeting which will be held at 8 o'clock tonight, the Spring meeting of the Portland Preeby-tery will occur. Many important matters of business are to come before this body, among them being the considering of a number of calls which have come to pastors of the city to make changes in their pulpits.

Schooner Mendora on Ways.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 15 .- (Special.)-The four-masted schooner Mendora went on the marine rallway today for a new mast, general overhauling and paint-When repairs are completed she will take a cargo to Honolulu.

While the trusts are theatening Roosevelt and Roosevelt is pounding the trusts, the people, the ordinary common people, can say whether or not the trusts shall exist. For instance: the Beef Trust is trying to control the meat trade of Portland. If it should succeed, the price of meat would go to double what it is now. YOU, by buying your meat of Smith and refusing to eat the Beef Trust's meat, are doing your share in the good work of keeping the price of meat down and saving Portland from becoming a Beef Trust town.
