EVACUATION IS COMPLETE Russia and Japan Faithfully Execute Treaty of Portsmouth.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—The expiration of the 18 months' limit for the evacuation of Manchuria by the Russian and Japanese troops was marked by the nomination today of Russian consuls at Kirin and Taitshar, the last two towns in Manchuria to pass from Russian hands to the Chinese. The evacuation by the Russian troops was completed March 31, almost a month ahead of the specified date.

A Foreign Office official, commenting today on Russia's premature withdrawal, said: "It is a complete justification of Russian good faith in fulfilling the treaty. It was insisted when the treaty was signed that Russia would never abandon Manchuria, but would find some means of evading her obligations. But the expiration of the stipulated period finds not a single soldier of the Russian army left in Manchuria. The railroad guards, approximately 8000 as provided for by the treaty, are commanded by General Chicago and are attached to the Ministry of Railroads and not to the War Ministry. The functions of the guards are confined strictly to the railroad. The policing of the country and the repression of the Chinese bandits have been turned over to the Chinese troops.

"Through the final results of the Russian negotiations with China for the re-establishment of the Chinese custom houses and with Japan for treaties of commerce and fisheries, which will carry out the provisions of the treaty, having not been attained, both negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily."

Count Witte, the negotiator of the Portsmouth treaty, has now withdrawn almost entirely from political life, except in the minor role of a member of the Council of the Empire. When questioned regarding the evacuation of Manchuria, he said he was out of touch with diplomatic affairs, but the evacuation of the Chinese territory was no surprise to him.

Dispatches from Petersburg, Tokio and Peking show that the evacuation of Manchuria by the Russian and Japanese, as agreed to under the Portsmouth treaty, and the re-possession of that vast domain by China has been accomplished under the terms of the agreement between Russia and Japan.

BACKED BY LETTERS Evelyn Thaw Will Again Tell Story for Defense.

Story for Defense.

O'REILLY IN FULL CHARGE

Thaw Changes Lawyers and Will Rest Case on Insanity Plea Sustained by the Letter of White to His Wife.

NEW YORK, April 15.—"If another trial is held, it has been agreed that the same line of defense as that used in the first trial will be followed. Evelyn Thaw will tell her story again, and her testimony will be greatly strengthened by documentary evidence that was not used before."

This is the statement credited to Daniel O'Reilly, of the Harry K. Thaw's counsel, tonight. It has been reported that Mr. O'Reilly would be chief of the defense when the trial is called again, but this report was not confirmed today and it was even stated semi-officially that none of the lawyers who officiated at the last trial had been dispensed with by Thaw.

Small Encouragement in Clackamas.—OREGON CITY, Or., April 15.—(Special.)—Eugene F. Palmer, of Albany, who is interested in engineering the effort to obtain a referendum vote on the appropriation for the University of Oregon, spent the day in this city and left tonight for Portland, where he will be for the next four days. Mr. Palmer is looking over the ground, and is leaving proposals wherever he goes, and has a little encouragement in Oregon City and Clackamas County.

Two Astoria Men Arrested and Fined Because They Fish Three Hours Too Soon.—ASTORIA, Or., April 15.—(Special.)—The Spring fishing season on the Columbia River opened at noon today, and while the usual number of gillnetters started out this afternoon and evening, it is not expected any of the packing plants will begin operations before Wednesday. The season is expected to be a late one, owing to the continued cool weather, and no large catches are anticipated for some time. The same canneries and cold storage plants will be operated as last year, but later in the season there will probably be more gear in operation.

Strikers Given What They Ask.—BERKELEY, Wash., April 15.—(Special.)—The strike at the Western Cooperatives Workmen ended tonight, when having been granted their demands.

Called Down Delmas.—Delphin M. Delmas, who led the fight at the recent trial, it is said, has severed his connection with the case. In this connection a story of the recent trial proceedings of Thaw at a critical period of his trial is published here today. The story relates that, when the trial was resumed after the report of the insanity commission Mr. Delmas called Dr. Hamilton to the witness stand to have him testify as to Thaw's mental condition when the murder was committed. He was just about to question him when he received a note from Thaw which read: "You are no longer in charge of my case."

Delmas secured the court's permission to confer with his client, the story states, and when he asked Thaw what the note meant, Thaw is said to have replied: "It means just what it says. You are not going to make those men testify that I am insane. I am sane and you know it. You are no longer in charge of my case."

Mr. Delmas then asked Thaw for permission to withdraw, but his request was refused. Mr. Delmas, under the law, could not voluntarily withdraw from the stand and begin to sum up before the jury. Was the reply.

Mr. Delmas attempted to reason with Thaw, but he was immovable, and thereupon announced that the defendant rested his case, and Dr. Hamilton was excused without testifying.

Will Move for Bail.—Mr. O'Reilly will move within a week to have Thaw released on bail, and he says he expects to succeed.

Thaw today received a handsome case made of layers of various kinds of skins, highly polished, with a silver handle mounted with pearls. It was sent to the prisoner by E. H. Moore, of Yuma, Ariz. The package in which the case was wrapped bore an inscription reading: "We all vote for your acquittal. 'WELLER-FARGO BOYS.'"

Another Statement From Nesbit.—PITTSBURG, April 15.—In a sworn statement, Howard Nesbit, brother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, denied that he wrote that portion of his letter made public in New York last Saturday which reads: "Perhaps I was wrong in coming here, but my parents are responsible for that."

In his affidavit young Nesbit avers that the above formed part of the letter he wrote to Harry Thaw.

This statement, he said, is made to exonerate his parents from the implied charge of instigating him to go to New York as a witness against Thaw.

CHILD THROWN FROM TRAIN NEWLY-BORN BABE WAS LEFT TO PERISH.

Coroner's Jury Finds Infant Was Born Alive—Father Called Before District Attorney.

ROSEBURG, Or., April 15.—(Special.)—The Coroner's jury in the case of a dead child found between Myrtle Creek and Riddle, south of this place, resulted in finding the child had been born alive, and not dead, as stated in the coroner's report. The jury was assisted by Doctors Sealey and Houck, who performed an autopsy at the request of the District Attorney.

It is said the husband of the woman hunted through the train for a doctor, but none was on the train, so Dr. Kirkpatrick was called at Myrtle Creek and rendered the aid he could, but did not go with the woman. In a few moments thereafter the child was born in the car lavatory, and thrown through the rushing train. The parents came on to Roseburg and another doctor was called, who attended the woman. The couple then proceeded to Portland, where the child was a male, perfectly formed and weighed about six pounds.

The father of the child is here, having been subpoenaed by the District Attorney. Whether or not a charge of infanticide will be lodged against one or both of the parents cannot be learned.

Mrs. H. Nash, said to be the mother of the infant whose death is alleged to have been caused by being thrown from a Southern Pacific train near Myrtle Creek, Or., last Saturday morning, is occupying a room at the Good Samaritan Hospital. She was resting in bed last night, it is said, to be rapidly recovering from her illness. Her husband was with her until Sunday, when he left for Roseburg, where a Coroner's jury yesterday declared the baby was alive when thrown from the train. Although it was stated in a dispatch that a charge of manslaughter will probably be brought against the parents, Chief of Police Grimmacher stated last night that he has received no word about the case from the Roseburg officials, and has had no word whatever on the matter.

Trouble on Quinault Reserve.—HOQUIAM, Wash., April 15.—(Special.)—It is reported here tonight that there was considerable trouble on the Quinault reservation last night and this morning prior to Chief Taholah's departure for Washington, D. C., to see President Roosevelt. Chief Taholah's son gave out the information this morning that the party was compelled to ride the distance from the reservation to Mocpils, where the members caught the train, on horses. The agent at the reservation has been having trouble with his charges, so the Indians claim, but the cause of the trouble is not known.

Big Idaho Dam Carried Away.—BOISE, Idaho, April 15.—(Special.)—Unusually high water for this time of year broke the Wharton dam on the south fork of the Payette, which was caught uncompleted. Forty feet of the center of the structure was carried out. The dam was carried out last year while in course of construction, and all plans were laid to replace it during the past winter while the river was locked up by an unprecedented succession of floods, entirely unanticipated, which swept down the stream, delaying the work seriously. Finally this early Spring rise caught it before completion. The dam is 250 feet long and 83 feet high.

Small Encouragement in Clackamas.—OREGON CITY, Or., April 15.—(Special.)—Eugene F. Palmer, of Albany, who is interested in engineering the effort to obtain a referendum vote on the appropriation for the University of Oregon, spent the day in this city and left tonight for Portland, where he will be for the next four days.
