PLEAD FOR PEACE

Naval and Military Display at Jamestown Meets With Criticism.

JOHN BARRETT AN ORATOR

Former Portland Man Tells How
Pan-Americanism Will Promote Peace—Clergy Urged to Uplift Voices in the Cause.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The protest of mothers, wives and daughters against a continuance of wars among civilized peoples, was uttered today at the session in Carnegie hall, presided over by Mrs. Anna Garlin Spencer. The big hall was crowded with women gathered from many sections of the country, all wearing the white badge of delegates.

Following the session, at which "The Relation of Women to the Peace Movement" was discussed, there were two sessions this afternoon, one at the Hotel Astor, devoted to the "Commercial and Industrial Aspects of the Peace Movement" and at Carnegie hall, devoted to young people. M. M. Marks, president of the National Association of Women, presided at the Hotel Astor meeting, while at Carnegie hall William H. Maxwell, Superintendent of the Public Schools of New York, was in charge.

Criticizes Jamestown Display. One of the notable addresses delivered at the women's meeting was that of Mrs. Mary E. Woolley, president of Mount Holyoke College. Miss Woolley declared that the naval and military display to be made at the forthcoming Jamestown Exposition might work much harm in the minds of the susceptible youth of the country.

Julia Ward Howe writes. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who was to have been one of the guests of honor but who could not be present, sent a letter in which she outlined her efforts toward peace. Mrs. Howe declared that women's colleges "and women's influence had had everything to do with the greater efficiency of our sex."

Industry Versus Militarism. Mrs. Frederick Nathan, president of the Consumers' League, of New York City, took for a topic "Industry and its Relations to Peace." She said we had at last entered on a new era. If triumph of industrialism over militarism and remarked:

Barrett on Pan-American Peace. John Barrett, formerly Minister to Colombia, spoke at the meeting at the Hotel Astor today when the "Commercial and Industrial Aspects of the Peace Movement" was considered. Mr. Barrett said that the bearing of the International conferences of the American Republics upon the peace and good relations of the countries of the Western Hemisphere could not be over-estimated. The three conferences which have been held during the last 15 years had been notable successes and had accomplished far more than is commonly supposed.

It is, moreover, safe to say, he said, "that they have acted as a deterring influence not only on wars between American nations, but on revolutions within the limits of different countries."

Mr. Barrett said that the United States had never fully appreciated the vast importance and signal success of the visit to South America of the late President McKinley. "It is beginning now," he said, "after nearly a year has passed, to realize that no other Secretary of State in the history of the United States has done so much for the promotion of international peace and friendship as has Mr. Root in this extraordinary tour. He did more for the removal of distrust, the policies of the United States throughout South America and for the upbuilding of mutual confidence and good will than the work of a hundred years of ordinary diplomatic procedure and intercourse."

Mr. Barrett said that the benefit of Secretary Root's trip "will grow with the passage of years and result in that perfect international Americanism which should cherish the relations of all the nations of the Western Hemisphere."

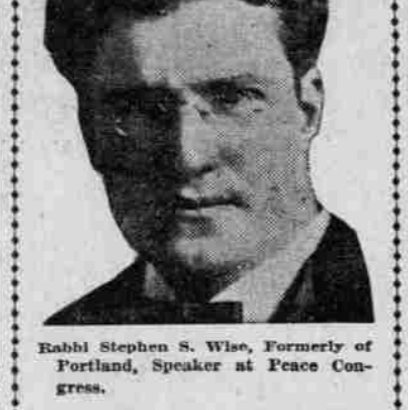

Five thousand people responded to the invitation to a "young people's meeting" at Carnegie Hall this afternoon. Professor Henry Turner Bailey, agent of the State Board of Education for Promotion of Industrial Training of Massachusetts, spoke on the "Peace Movement and the Arts." Senorita Huldobro spoke on the topic, "The Christ of the Andes." Baron d'Estournelles de Constant also spoke at this meeting.

Tonight's session was devoted to the universities and their work in the way of bringing about world peace. President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University, who presided, said the universities were foremost as representatives of the highest ideals, including peace.

Proposes World's Peace Conference.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Announcement is made today that John Brabson Walker has sent to the Peace Congress a communication in which he suggests a world's peace conference and offers to defray the preliminary expenses out of his own fortune. It is stated Mr. Walker will push his plan to the end, regardless of the determination of the body now meeting in this city.

In brief, Mr. Walker's plan provides for a congress composed of the ablest thinkers of all countries selected for their sincerity of purpose and broad comprehension of the problems of nations. The conclusions reached by such of Linn County Workers.

LORANE, Or., April 16.—(Special.)—Siuslaw Grange, No. 54, P. of H., has adopted the following resolution, condemning the referendum movement that has been directed against the State University:

Whereas, we, the members of Siuslaw Grange, No. 54, P. of H., have ever adhered to an alliance with the National Grange, that the highest type of manhood in every age, is the educated man, and as citizens of Lane County, we have a right to feel proud of our grand institutions of learning; therefore, we have resolved that we will stand up to our grand State University, which stands out as prominently as the rose of Sharon, and the beauty and admiration of the Valley. We believe nothing ought to be left undone that is honorable to make it one of the grandest, one of the best institutions in our land, and we believe under the present leadership of its able president, the Honorable P. L. Campbell, who has ever labored faithfully and energetically, it will be made the equal if not the peer of any other institution of learning; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Siuslaw Grange, regret the action of the Linn county convention in their efforts in attempting to hold up the appropriation for the State University by invoking the referendum; and be it further

Resolved, That we, the members of Siuslaw Grange, are in favor of the appropriation made by the last Legislature to the State University; and be it further Resolved, That we, the members of the above Grange, condemn the state-smoke-up of the members of the last Legislature in not providing and opening up other avenues of taxation to meet the requirements of the State University, other than imposing the heavy burdens of taxation on labor and the products of labor and of the farm.

room was watched all night, with the result so gratifying to the officers. Davis had a complete outfit for disguise in his room, including the pink domino mask with which he is charged with entering so many homes and creating a reign of terror. He has false mustaches, whiskers and all kinds of paraphernalia, which were seized by the arresting officers. He has a full set of burglar's tools.

He refused to discuss his case at any length, but practically admitted his guilt. In answer to a direct question, he replied that he did not remember just what he did with Henry Hahn's watch, which he stole, and which was a valued gift to Mr. Hahn.

NEW YORK, April 16.—(Special.)—Herman Von Cleff, who said he was 34 years of age and lived at 70 East Ankonoy street, Portland, Or., was convicted of grand larceny in the first degree before Judge Pawcett in the County Court, Brooklyn, today. He was technically charged with having stolen $25 from the Journey & Burnham, dry goods merchants, on May 24, 1904, while in their employ as a cashier. It was alleged that he embezzled about $400. He was arrested in Portland about a month ago.

Herman Von Cleff was known in Portland as H. H. Wilson. He was arrested at Oregon City by Acting Detective Price of the Portland Police Department six weeks ago on a charge of larceny committed by his wife. He was attempting to flee from the city with Mrs. T. W. Taylor at the time. He was released on that charge, but when his identity became known, he was turned over to the New York officials upon the arrival of a detective sergeant from that place.

Von Cleff has a wife and two little children. His wife forgave him his misdeed in trying to elope with another woman and there was no prosecution.

JAYNES AGAIN ESCAPES
Judge Saves Paroled Man Who Over-draws His Account.

"If you will promise to behave yourself, and draw no more checks, I will give you another chance," said Judge Sears, him late yesterday afternoon to hear the action of the court in regard to sending him to the penitentiary for violation of his parole in drawing a $20 check, for which he had no money on deposit.

The $20 check which caused the trouble was yesterday paid with the money on deposit at the Commonwealth Trust Company, the money being turned over to the shoe company where Jaynes got the check cashed. Two other checks amounting to $20 remain still unpaid, and Judge Sears gave Jaynes five days in which to settle them. If he fails in this, action will be taken at once.

Surprise to Colorado Machine.

DENVER, April 16.—Governor Buchtel today vetoed the anti-fusion bill, passed by the last General Assembly, which made it unlawful for the name of any candidate to be placed upon the official ballot as the nominee of more than one political party. The bill now holds that the present constitution is in violation of that it restricts and impairs the freedom of the people to act without restraint in making choice of public officials.

The bill was a Republican measure, and the central committee of that party was called together tonight to designate a committee to see Governor and have him recall his veto.

SALES WERE STUPENDOUS

COOPER PREPARATIONS LEAD-ING ST. LOUIS TOPIC.

Interviews Obtained With Number of Callers at Young Man's Headquarters.

ST. LOUIS, April 16, 1907.—The most interesting feature of the enormous sale of the Cooper preparations, now going on in this city, is what the medicines are actually accomplishing among the people of St. Louis.

At the commencement of his visit here Mr. Cooper prophesied that during the latter part of his stay he would receive hundreds of callers daily who came simply to thank him for what the preparations had done. He also stated that they would trouble the foundation for a great many diseases, and that his New Discovery, as it is called, would prove very effective in all cases of rheumatism, simply by getting the stomach in working order.

The fact that this prophecy has been fulfilled cannot be doubted after a half hour spent at the young man's headquarters, listening to what his callers have to say. A reporter who watched to ascertain if there was some light on the reasons for the immense success of the Cooper preparations interviewed about 20 of his callers yesterday afternoon. The statements made by those seen indicate that physicians who claim that Cooper is merely a passing fad, have not looked into the matter.

Some of these statements were as follows: "I have been troubled with general debility, weakness, dizziness, headache, sleeplessness and stomach trouble, for over three years for which I have had a number of medicines and visited several doctors but none helped me. I heard on a radio of these Cooper Remedies and decided to try them. Any one who says that they are wonderful medicines, does not know what they are talking about. After I used the first bottle, I noticed a decided improvement. I have taken three bottles of the New Discovery and I now feel as well as I ever have in my life. I sleep into the night as I have not done for years, and I am happier than I have been for a long time. I have come here to thank Mr. Cooper for what he has done for me."

Another statement was made by Miss Margaret Gordon, living at 210 Center st., who said: "I have been a sufferer with rheumatism for several years. I have tried many remedies, but have not been helped in any way and I despair of finding relief. I was told by a friend of mine that I should try the Cooper Remedies, and I did so. It took me three hours to do so, as the rheumatism was so dense. This was last Thursday. I was improved almost immediately. I have continued to take this wonderful medicine and I am now without a sign of rheumatism. My general health is also greatly improved. I would not have believed that there was a medicine on earth that would do what this has done for me. I am so much happier that I am very grateful to the man that has made it possible for me to regain my health. He has the most wonderful medicine that I know any of. I have had other statements taken from those who had previously used the medicines seem to prove that Cooper's success throughout the country is genuine."
