Association Meeting at Sunnyside Turns Down Resolution Favoring Tri-Union of Methodist, U. B., Congregational Churches.

Outside the papers and addresses yesterday during the session of the Portland Congregational Association, in the Sunnyside Congregational Church, was the question of church union, which came up in two forms but which the members of the association were not inclined to discuss. In the formoon Rev. D. B. Gray introduced the following resolution: the following resolution:

Resolved, that this association is projound; interested in the recent discussion of the proposed triumion of the Congregational, Unite-Direttmen and Methodist Protestant churches and this association wishes to place itself of record as carneatly favoring the proposed union as in line with the recent action of the com-nuitee on union in Chicago, as reported in the letter sent out by Pr. Gladden.

Not Ready for Definite Action.

Objection was immediately urged to discussion of the resolution at that time by several of the ministers on the ground that it committed the association too directly without due consideration. While there were no speeches made against the resolution, it was placed in the hands of the programme committee. The matter again was brought up in the afternoon, when Lev. W. Gray introduced the follow-Lev. W. Gray introduced the following substitute resolution:

Tonight at the Heliig Theater, Fourteenth and Washington streets, the well-known theatrical firm of Lichler & Co. will present a special return engagement of the charming character comedy, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." This is the same excellent company and production that was seen at the Heliig several weeks ago. There will be but one performance.

SUCCESSFUL PLAY AT BAKER

'The Prodigal Son," One of the Hits of the Theatrical Season.

"The Prodigal Son," by Hall Caine, is the attraction at the Baker Theater this week and has proven one of the greatest successes of many seasons. The story is in-tensely dramatic but has a strange fascina-tion for the speciators. Both Miss Lawrence and Mr. Baume are splendidly cast.

Splendid Work of Scaman Company. The new Scaman Stock Company, which is making its debut to the Empire public this week, is carrying off great honors and proving itself one of the best local organizations on the Patine Coast. The new stars brought from the Bast, Miss Pitt, Miss Pied and Mr. Whitaker, are all great favorites, and the work of Ethel Jones, a local favorite, is above the average.

Fun at the Lyric.

The funniest of all farce comedies, "Snow-ball," is the bill at the Lyric this week, and is once more proving its right to the title of laugh producer. There is an abundance of fun in "Snowball," for all sorts and couli-tions of people. Two performances Saturday and Sunday nights, the first beginning at 7:15.
