to fearful decisions by Derrick, timely hitting by the locals and dummy playing by McCredie's men. Some of Derrick's ruiings would have made Slats Davis jealous and most of these were against the Portlanders. Donahue was half crazy with anger all through the game.

In the last of the seventh inning Shortstop Staton kicked at a decision and he says Derrick called him a vile name. The kid objected to this and Derrick not only fined him $10, but threw him out of the game. Donahue took his place and Carson went behind the bat.

In the same inning Moore was taken off first on account of his poor work and kennedy was put in. The game was a constant rag-chewing performance with the umpire, and the fans badgered him. continually. Nagle pitched beautiful ball. The fielding features were Cra-vath's running catches and four fast dou-ble plays. Score: LOS ANGELES.

The crack Columbia University base ball team met and defeated the East Sida High School team yesterday afternoon by a score of 30 to 1. The playing of the East Siders was listless, their fielding especially being poor. Columbia put up a fine game, only two errors being made by the collegians. Locke, their pitcher, twirled one of the finest games yet played in the league. He allowed one hit and gave two passes. Until the sixth inning not an East Sider touched first base, and in the first inning he struck out three men. Columbia played real league ball.

The High Schools lone run was made in the sixth inning. With two men down, Hill drew a pass, went to second on an error by Dockstader and took third on a balk. Cornell, the next man up, was also given a base on balls and attempted The crack Columbia University base-

Houston's absence does not make so much difference, as Chester C. Murphy has signified his intention of playing third. The old veteran is good on the difficult corner, and in last Saturday's game, managed to haul in every thing that came his way. But with Stockton, the catcher who has signed up with Frakes team, it is different.
