THE MORNING OREGONIAN, FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1907.

a display that will be seend to none. It is believed that an exhibit can be sent to Jamestown that will prove an eye-opener to Eastern fruit men and visitors and add another feather in the cap of the state's Southern Pacific Company take the posi-tion that the Railroad Commission has no authority to establish a local rate for shipment which is intended for interstate already great reputation for superior ap-ples. They think that, having secured the majority of the awards at the St. Louis and Lewis and Clark Expositions, the capture of the prizes at Jamestown would establish the supremacy of Oregon and the Northwest as the greatest ample-grow. commerce, whether by ocean traffic or otherwise, but the mind of the Raliread Commission is clear upon this point and will have no hesitancy in making the ruling, if the occasion requires, and entertains no fears of a reversal upon appeal. The Railroad Commission holds that the question of interstate commerce does not the Northwest as the greatest apple-grow-ing district in the United States. nter into the establishment of a local

SLEW ELK BY THE HUNDRED

Men Who Trafficked in Teeth Are on Trial in Idaho.

Pasture Into River.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 25.-

Music for Endeavor Convention.

The Boys' Band at the Washington State Training School, Chehalis, has accepted the invitation and will furnish music for the Christian Endeavor National conven-tion at Seattle, July 10-15. The band is

POCATELLO, Idaho, April 25.-(Spe-cial.)-Purdy and Binkley of Los Angeles are on trial in the Federal District Court in this city, charged with shipping elk teeth and olk heads valued at $10,000 from the Jackson-Hole country in Wyom-ing through Idaho to California. Six witnesses were examined today, includ-ing Game Warden Nowlin of Wyoming. Game Warden Stephens of Idaho and Commission, the same question, only upon a reversed order, was raised, and Justice Brewer held that the question of inten-tion is immaterial and the local rate, or vice versa, the interstate rate, would pre-Game Warden Stephens of Idaho and Game Warden Morgan of California. One witness testified that one of the defendants came to his cabin near the Jackson-Hole country with a sack convail so long as the bill of lading stipulated the terminal of the shipment. Local sawmilimen express satisfaction and gratification with the opinion of the taining 215 elk teeth, saying that he had disposed of as many more. The defend-ant's forefinger calloused from pulling the trigger of a rifle, said the witness. The carcasses of the dead elk were al-Railroad Commission and feel that the question is now passed up to the railroad officials to elect between voluntary ac-quiescence and enforced compliance through the necessity of an appeal to the lowed to lie and rot after the teeth had Interstate Commerce Commission been removed. Rallroad Claim Loss on $3.10 Rate. The Government, actuated by a desire to put a stop to the wanton slaughter of Although the railroad officials made the statement that the traffic in rough lum-ber from Valley points to San Francisco was unprofitable under the $3.10 rate, they did not attempt to show any figures to prove the statement, but Mr. Fenton said olg game in the northwestern states, is making out a strong case against the defendants, who have been jointly in-dicted on three counts, the maximum fine for each count being $200. it would require expert testimony to as-certain the cost of hauling empty cars from south to north to handle the product of the lumber mills. Neither did they PATHETIC SCENES AT, FIRE CHEAPER TO COURT IN WEST Inmates of Poorhouse Feebly Drag assume to state any reason for increasing assume to state any reason for increasing the rate, except that the traffic was un-desirable and unprofitable, and admitted the 5 rate was put into effect to curtail solpment of lumber southward from in-terior points, the long haul from Port-Out Their Few Belongings. LEWISTON, Idaho, April 25.-(Special.) -The destruction by fire this morning of the hospital building of the County Poor Farm was attended by several pathetic incidents and narrow escapes from cre-mation, when the aged and infirm men refused to leave the building until they had first secured their few carthy non-against W. D. Haywood, Judge Wood today sustained a demurrer to an affi-davit upon which the contempt pro-ceedings were based. The Judge said he thought the affidavit insufficient, he thought the affidavit insufficient, though the general facts of the case brought it within the scope of con-tempt. Yost was immediately arrested on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace 'Savidge. This proceeding charges him with felony under a state law which prohibits efforts to influ-ence a juror. He was released on bond, his hearing being set for May 4.

in 1835-56, when the Indians began their depredations in Washington and Oregon, Mr. Dean enlisted with the volunteers and fought for the protection of the homes of the settlers. He was married to Miss Eliza Jane Oliver at Stellacoom. He is survived by Mrs. Dean and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Lizzle Seaddach of Ne-halem, Or.; Miss Amy Dean, Gilbert Dean, George Dean and Alfred Dean, all well-known residents of Aberdeen. INDIAN WOMAN IS SCALPED

Murdered and Her Head Crushed by

Party of Drunken Bucks. COLVILLE, Wash., April 25.-(Special.) --Mary Ann Lassinger, an Indian woman of the Colville tribe, was found by Mrs. Charley Smith, wife of a halfbreed, dead Charley Smith, wife of a halfbreed, dead in the Kettle River the other morning. Mrs. Smith went down to the stream about 8 s'clock for a bucket of water, when the ghastly sight met her gaze. The head of the dead woman had been suipped according to the ancient fashion of the Indians, and the head had been beaten in with a stone. The woman had been to Marcus the evening before, where she waited on the Falls on the west side of the river. Pur-suit of the fiends was taken up at once by Sheriff Obenchain and citizens, who returned tonight with a party of six Austrians, one of which was identified by Miss Welch as her assailant. evening before, where she waited on the north side of the river while the three Indian men companions went to the town, by where they became drunk. Prosecutin where they became drunk. Prosecuting Attorney J. A. Rochford, Coroner A. B. Cook and Deputy Sheriff C. A. Ledger-wood went to the scene of the tragedy, and after empaneling a jury found that the Indian party had been drunk at Marcus the day before, when they in-duiged in a free-for-all fight. The body was turned over to Under-taker William S. Prindle. No arrests have been made, but it is likely the murderers will be apprehended soon.

murderers will be apprehended soon. FREE LOVE KILLS THE COLONY DISPUTE OVER BIG STICK

> SHOTS FOLLOW HEATED DE-BATE ROOSEVELT LETTER.

CHILD OF 15 IS ASSAULTED

One of Assailants Is Later Arrested

and Identified by Girl.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., April 25 .-

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., April 2.-(Special.)-Two unknown men, supposed to have been foreigners, employed on canal work, this afternoon assaulted a 15-year-old girl, the daughter of Henry Weich, a dairyman, whose pince is lo-cated about two miles south of Klamath Adds to Telephone System.

ORESON CITY, Or., April 25.-(Spe-cial.)-The Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company this afternoon purchased the Bonney Ine through Parkplace. It will make an effort to secure new business for the extensity with the secure new business for the extension, which is more than a mile in length.

Wallace Newspaper Man Takes Responsibility for Row That Led to Quinn's Death.

WALLACE, Idaho, April 25 .- William Quinn, the ex-policeman who was shot through the stomach at an early hour Inrough the stomach at an early hour this morning by Deputy Sheriff C. C. Hicks, died at 9:45 tonight. W. H. C. Jackson, a newspaper man, takes upon himself the responsibility for shooting. In a statement published in the morn-ing Times he says: "I am probably the cause of the shooting."

He then relates how he and Quinn had The then relates now he and quinn has a dispute over President Roosevelt's let-ter relative to the Moyer-Haywood cases, Jackson supporting the President and Quinn criticising him. Quinn produced a card of the Western Federation of Miners. The row grew so warm that Jackson left the saloon where the trouble occurred occurred.

On the street Jackson says he met Deputy Sheriff Hicks and Hicks offered to go with him and straighten the mat-ter out. Jackson says he proposed that ter out. Jackson says he proposed that Hicks come along behind and that he, Jackson, would ask everyone in the sa-loon to take a drink, and if Quinn took a drink it would be all right. Jackson further says Quinn did not take a drink. According to witnesses, when Hicks en-ered the saloon shortly after Jackson Quinn said, "Here's my old Missour friend."

Some say that Hicks replied, "I'll show Some say that Hicks replied. The show you," and with that drew his gun and shot Quinn through the stomach. Quinn and Hicks are not known to have ever had any trouble. Hicks is looked in the county fall. Jackson was held till late this afternoon and then re-leased without ever charge being placed Astoria Lodge Plans to Build $50,leased without any charge being placed against him. All three men had been drinking.

ASTORIA, April 25.-(Special.)-Astoria Lodge of Elks at its meeting last night decided to proceed with the erection of a handsome Elks' temple on its property at the corner of Eleventh and Exchange Charges Against Soldiers. HOOD RIVER. Or., April 25.-(Special.) -Chained together and to the seats of a car on the Spokane Flyer today were the corner of Eleventh and Exchange streets. The project will be financed by issuing 20-year bonds, which will be taken up by the members of the organization, the lodge reserving the right to redeem the bonds as fast as it sees fit. The meeting last night adopted the re-port of the building committee that the proposed structure he of brick or con-crete and four stories high with a base-ment. The estimated cost is about $50,000. seven soldiers who were being taken from Walla Walla to Vancouver by two ser-geants of cavalry. The prisoners are charged with various infractions of military and Federal laws and after being examined at Vancouver, if convicted, will be taken to the military prison at Alca-traz Island, California.

Several Routes to the East

Afforded by Rock Island Lines:

- 1. Through San Francisco, Los Angeles, Southern California and El Paso (lowest altitude route across the continent).
- 2. Through San Francisco, Sacramento, Colorado, and Pueblo or Colorado Springs (every mile of scenic grandeur).
- 3. Through Oregon, Idaho and Colorado.

5.

- Through Washington, Montana, the Dakotas and St. Paul-4. Minneapolis. Through Washington, Canada and St. Paul-Minneapolis.
 - Through standard and tourist sleeping cars operated without change via Routes 1 and 2. Direct connections and convenient schedules via the others.

18

with, and said:

United States Deputy Marshal Short, of North Yakima, was next called to testify concerning the character of Estes and then for more than three hours the at-torneys argued the objection interposed by the state to the effect that no charac-ter evidence should be permitted, inas-much as the attorneys for the prosecu-tion held that even admitting that Estes was trying to plek McManus pocket at the time of the shooting, the defendant was not justified in killing him, no mat-ter how good or how bud he was.

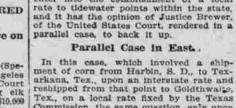

ter how good or how bad he was. The attorneys for the defense main-tained that the taking of momey from the person constituted a felony and that the defendant was justified in protect-ing his property from a felony by kill-ing. Bolleving this to be true, they held that they did have the right to intro-fluce testimony to show that the deceased was a pickpocket and robber, and there-fore that the defendant's statement of fore that the defendant's statement of the case was entirely probable. The court sustained the objection and then adjourned court for the day.

As the question to which the state ob-jected was a general one as to charac-ter, the same point, which is a vital one in the trial of this case, is sure to come up again in the morning, when the form of the question is changed, and will doubtless require several hours to set-

Had Made Threats to Kill.

Just before closing its case this morninto the camp of the defense by bring ing out the most damaging testimony of the entire trial. It was made by Ed Money, who testified that he was with McManus the afternoon of the tragedy and that the defendant after telling of being robbed and saying that the robber was then following him, declared: "I will kill that man before morning; you see ff

Money is the man who was in the aloon drinking with McManus when the effondant is alleged to have decided to heindant is aneged to have decided to kill McCarty, and when the latter was leaning against the wall behind them. He also, at the request of the defendant, accompanied him to the hardware store

he first attempted to purchase a Dike Mumford, who was brought from a sick bed to testify, corroborated the testi-mony of Money in part, but otherwise did not prove the star witness that the

H. C. McGinnis proved to be an import-ant witness, in that all efforts of the defense to shake his statements concern-ing the circumstances a few days before the homicide, when McManus mistook

Estes for McCarty proved a failure.

Bishop Scadding Says So in Lecture

to Young Seattle Men.

10 Young Scattle Men, SEATTLE, Wash, April 25.-"Western girls are much cheaper to entertain than Eastern young women," said Bishop Charles Scadding, of the diocese of Ore-gon, in the Episcopal Church, when he spoke before the Men's Club of Trinity Parish Church in Seattle inst evening, "Eastern girls have what are called dou-ble appetites—in Wintertime the young man spends his money buying them oys-ters, which are expensive. In Summer-time they demand to be filled with ice-sream on every occasion." It is experience with young women had first secured their few earthly pos-sensions. When the nurses and attend-ants refused to permit the men to re-main longer in the building, for fear they main tonger in the building, for fear they would be cremated, the indigents crited like children and begged to be permitted to save their few belongings. Finally it became necessary to foreibly drag two or three of the men from the buands build-

It is experience with young women of the East, the bishop said last night, that makes him competent to speak on the subject. He said that in Seati the subject. He said that in Seat a girls can be fed on all kinds of sei food in Winter months at compara-tively small cost. But they have so much good sea food that they care for little of it, he explained. In Summer girls who pine for something cool can gaze at the monstains guze at the mountains.

WEDS HIS DIVORCED WIFE

WEDS HIS DIVORCED WIFE
WALLA WALLA, Wash, April 25.-(Special.)-Louis Rizzutu, 8 years old.
Was dragged to death by a cow two miles south of here yesterday. The boy was tending the cow in the pasture and playruly tied a rope around his wast. The frightened animal ran nearly wast. The frightened animal ran nearly a quarter of a mile, dragging the helpless child through a barbwire fence and into Yellow Hawk River, where she was stopped by a luborer. The body was hady bruked and practically stripped of clothing when taken from the river. cording to advices from Bellingham. Sil-rer obtained a divorce about a year ago, which eaused a sensation in society cir-cles in Bellingham.

a month ago Mrs. Silver came flown to Seattle and attempted to effect a treencillation, and upon failing, attempt-nd to commit suicide in his (Süver's) room in the Lincoln Hotel by taking poi-son. Neither Silver nor Mrs. Silver conson. Neither Silver nor Mrs. Silver con-fided to friends their intention to remar-ity. The couple left the British Columbia City last night for Winnipeg, Minheago-lis and Chicago and after a trip, will go to California, to reside in future. Both are prominent in Bellingham soci-tic divided Mrs. Silver having been presboto are prominent in Beilingham soci-ident of one of the most prominent wom-en's clubs in Beilingham. She was heatess Beilingham day at the Portiand fair and antertained lavishly. Silver went to Vanwar on the same train as Mrs. Silver was land being preferred. WOMAN AND BABE THROWN OUT

Narrowly Escape Serious Injury in Runaway Accident.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 25 .- (Spe-ABERDEEN, Wash., April 25.—(Spe-cial)—In a runaway accident this af-ternoon, Mrs. Ashkirk, of North Aber-deen, and her baby narrowly escaped being killed, and a boy named Huiet was seriously injured. Mrs. Ashkirk was driving across the North Aberdeen bridge when a runaway team came up behind. Mrs. Ashkirk was so fright-ened that she could not urge her horse—in fact stopped him—and the runaway dashed into her buggy, throwing her and her baby and the boy on the ground. The horses plunged ing. One must too feeble to walk, crawled out of the hospital, dragging be-hind him what few personal effects he could gather together. The property loss is about $1000, with no insurance. COW DRAGS BOY TO DEATH which while and the buggy was wrecked, but Mrs. Ashkirk and her baby were picked up unhured. The Hulet boy did not fare so well. Walla Walla Lad Pulled. Through

CALL MR. HENEY TO SPOKANE

Fund of $50,000 Will Be Raised to Probe Into Graft Rumors.

SPOKANE, April 25.—The Chronicle an-nounces today that a movement has been started among prominent citizens to raise a fund of $30,000 to $50,000 for the purpose of bringing Attorney Francis J. Heney and Detective Burns to Spokane to probe the repeated rumors of graft in connec-tion with municipal affairs. It is ex-plained that the plan is to round up the grafters, if any can be found, or to prove that the rumors are groundless. OLYMPIA, Wash., April 25.-(Special.)-

that the rumors are groundless CHARGE YOST WITH FELONY

Is Held on Charge of Approaching Member Idaho Jury Panel.

BOISE, Idaho, April 25.--(Special.)--In the case of W. N. Yost, charged with improperly approaching John L. Wag-goner, a member of the jury panel that is to report at the opening of the case

OF THE NORTHWEST DEAD

ELKS WILL HAVE FINE HOME

000 Temple.

$50,000.

George E. R. Dean, Pioneer of 1851, Dies of Cancer at Aberdeen. ABERDEEN, Wash., April 25.-(Spe-clal)-George E. R. Dean died today from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Dean was a pioneer of Oregon and Washington. He was on Puget Sound long before Seattle was thought of, when the site of the city OREGON CITY, Or., April 25.-(Special.)

Horse Thief Pleads Guilty.

was thought of, when the site of the city was a wilderness, where the Hudson Bay Company agents traded with the In-VANCOUVER, Wash., April 25 .- (Spe vancouvers, wash, april 2.-(Spe-cial)-J. C. Douglass, who was recently captured by the Portland police upon re-quest of Sheriff Sappington, of Clark Gounty, for horsestealing, was arraigned before Judge McCredie yesterday and pleaded gulity to the charge. He was sen-tenced to one year in the State Peniten-tiary at Walla Walla. When a youth of 19 he came from Lon-When a youth of 19 he came from Lon-don, England, with his father, who was one of the Hudson Bay Company man-agers. The trip was made in an old-time windjammer and more than six months were occupied in the voyage. Two hundred immigrants made the trip. At the present site of Seattle Mr. Dean and his father entered the employ of the famous company of early days, and ever since that time (1851) he has resided in the Northwest.

the Northwest.

the Northwest. For many years Mr. Dean and his family lived at Nehalem, Or. In 1900 the family moved to West Port, at the en-trance to Grays Harbor, and three years ago came to Aberdeen. Despite his ad-vanced years, Mr. Dean, who was nearly Taxes Pouring Into Treasury.

SALEM, Or., April 25.-(Special.)-State Treasurer Steel is in receipt of a remit-tance of $15,425.25 from the Treasurer of Washington County, to apply as half pay-

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, does not stain or color the hair even to the slightest degree.

Ayers Hair Vigor

Gray hair, white hair, light hair is not made a shade darker. But this new preparation certainly does stop falling hair. No question about it.

The New Kind Does not change the color of the hair

J. C. AYER CO., Manufacturing Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

Takes Idaho Surveying Contract.