SAYS FIREBOAT SHOULD HAVE SPEED.-oseph Buchtel, who is an old Portland ireman, and who has served as Chief of the Fire Department, says that when a the Fire Department, says that when a new fireboat is built it should have plenty of speed, and be able to get to a fire "faster than a sawlog can drift." as he speaks of the present fireboat. Mr. Burchtel says that the pumps and equip-ment are as good as desired. A large fireboat is not needed, says Mr. Buchtel, but one of great speed and nower and but one of great speed and power, and it should be provided with a few power-ful streams only, as there will not be room enough for a large force of firemen. Mr. Buchtel expressed himself as opposed to the proposed dry-pipe system.

TAKE THE PART OF GERDES Bartenders Condemn Civil Service

Commission as Despotic. Resolutions were adopted westerday by the Bartenders' League, Local 339, censuring the Civil Service Commission of this cuy for its refusal to allow Jacob Gerdes to take the examination for appointment as watchman. The Commission based its action on the grounds that Gerdes for many years was employed as a bartender in this city.

Officers of the Bartenders' League, after investigating the facts concerning Gerdes, report that he is a man of good character and above reproach. When Gerdes made application to take the ex-amination he presented a certificate as to his character, which was signed by the following: A. R. Mendenhall, attor-ney-at-law; W. N. Good, retired mer-chant; A. Forbes, contractor; M. Hansen, circar dealer. F. E. Whitelar cigar dealer; E. E. Whistler, contractor, and A. D. McDonald, sign painter. The resolution follows: Resolved. That we, the members of Bartenders' League. Local 339, do hereby con-demn the arrogant ruling of said commis-sion and call upon all good citizens to sup-port us in our stand against the autocracy of any body of men which presumes to rule in such despotic and prejudicial manner.

Government-inspected meats have lately been hauled up in the courts every few weeks and fined for using preservatives; charged up with placing injurious acids on their meats. Evidently, they find this a cheaper plan than selling pure meats. They are a disgrace to the Government. Smith's meats are absolutely fresh and pure.
