Does Not Look for the Blue Label.

This Union Man Thinks He Can Do Maker No Harm by Refusing "Unfair" Tobacco.

It is an unpardonable offense for a member of a labor union to purchase other than union-made goods. He is supposed to patronize only dealers who carry goods produced by union labor. At no time is he expected to invest in any article that does not have the union label. The union man breaks faith with his organization even when he purchases a package of tobacco that is not marked with the blue label on the wrapper. But can a union man consistently partake of a non-union produced tobacco when the product has been purchased by another who thoughtlessly leaves the package to be discovered by a loyal union labor man? This question was briefly debated by a member of organized labor yesterday and after a few minutes of deliberation, an affirmative conclusion was reached. "The purpose of patronizing only union-made goods by union men," debated the unionist, "is to injure the business of the man who manufactures goods that do not carry the union label. This package of tobacco I have found does not represent the product of a union shop. The question arises, can I conscientiously use it? I think I can. The manufacturer has received his price, the wholesaler and the retailer have realized their margins of profit. It follows that the business of neither of the three dealers, through whose hands the tobacco has passed, can be harmed if I should throw it away. I believe I will smoke the stuff until you fill your pipe!"

Jury Gives Her $750 Damages.

TILLAMOOK, Or., April 26--(Special).--The case of Mrs. Anna Roonicke for $10,000 damages, against the Cloverdale Telephone Company, naming Charles P. Nelson and Charles Ray defendants, was hotly contested by both sides. The cause of action was that on account of the defendants' telephone lines being down and across the public road, the plaintiff drove into them, which frightened her horse and caused it to run away, throwing her out of the buggy and thereby causing her injury of a permanent character. The case was tried at the last term of the Circuit Court and the jury failed to agree upon the amount of damages, so the case was retried at this term of court, with the result that the jury gave Mrs. Roonicke $750 damages.

FOREWARNING.

M. J. Walsh Co. would suggest to parties using electric fans in their establishments to have them cleaned, oiled and adjusted before connecting them on to the current. A fan disconnected and hanging on the ceiling for the past six months, the commutator in it becomes very dry and dusty, and if connected without cleaning and oiling will soon become hot and burn out, consequently making a big bill of expense. Call at M. J. Walsh Co.'s, 211 Stark street, or phone Main 478, and have their expert attend to your electric fans. It will only cost a trifle to put them in shape for the season.

EXTRA SPECIALS TODAY

Every article worth at least double the price. Ladies' white waists, 37c; white batiste and French Jean Corsets, hose supporters four attached, 50c; men's fancy Sox 12 1/2c; boys wash suits, 50c; extra specials in hosiery, ribbons, gloves, muslin gowns, shirts and drawers; men's shirts, 4c; worth $1.50; men's extra fine rib shirts, drawers all colors, 50c. Watch us on linens and customs. Come today. No varnished truck here.

Detective Kay found what he and Chief Gritmacher regarded as a violation of the ordinance, which requires that at least one side of all boxes in restaurants and saloons must be open. The attention of the proprietor was called to the matter, and he announced that he would fight the ordinance in the courts. A warrant was issued and after he was arrested, he decided to comply with the law and it is likely the case will be dismissed. According to the reports made to Chief Gritmacher, there is general compliance with the box ordinance in saloons and restaurants.

GRANTS PASS, Or., April 26--Motion to dismiss the case of Jasper Jennings, who faces a new trial for the murder of his father at the Granite Hill mine, was continued for the term yesterday.

What we've seen: The weather is warm, the dust is intense, and yet those Beef Trust markets lay their meat right alongside the sidewalk, where they gather all the dust and germs of the neighborhood. We've seen all sorts of people come along and feel of those meats and handle them in a most distasteful manner, and then pass on and leave them for somebody else to eat. Yet these marketmen tell you their meats are handled under U. S. Government inspection. Don't eat the off-scourings of some Chicago packing-house shipped out West to be sold to the Portland people. Eat SMITH'S MEATS, OREGON MEATS--absolutely fresh and pure and kept indoors, sweet and clean until they reach you, the consumer.
