REV. H. VROOMAN A DELEGATE.—Rev. Hiram Vrooman, of the Portland New Church, has been appointed by Governor Chamberlain a delegate from Oregon to the National Civic Federation Congress, which meets in Chicago, May 23-31. He received the announcement of his appointment together with his commission yesterday. This body is an important one, being composed of delegates from all states of the union and it will discuss a great variety of National questions. It is a very great honor to receive such an appointment to such a congress of distinguished thinkers. Mr. Vrooman expects to attend the congress if he can arrange his affairs so he can do so. He is connected with many of the leading civic organizations of New England for reform measures and enjoys a personal acquaintance with many of the leading reformers in various lines in the East. He will be able to represent Oregon effectively. REV. H. VROOMAN A DELEGATE.-Rev. He will be able to represent Oregon effectively if he can attend the meeting. Although having been a resident of this state only three years he is now in close touch with its interests.

Great Revival. In Progress.—Revival meetings that were inaugurated in the Mississippi-Avenue Congregational Church two weeks ago by Rev. J. F. Wolfe, International revivalist, are to be continued indefinitely. Attendance at all the services has been large. Rev. Mr. Wolfe has a most effective way of conducting services. He is considered one of the best Hible teachers in the world, besides is an eloquent and forceful speaker. Rev. William Upshaw, the pastor, said yesterday that he did not know when the meeting would close, and judging from the growing interest and spread of the work it would soon be necessary to accure a big tent and hold general meetings. Rev. Mr. Wolfe came to Portland to get the benefit of this climate, and may remain here for some time, perhaps through the present year. He has been received as a niember of the Portland Congregational Association.

····· DON'T WRITE A LETTER

Every one knows of some person or persons in the East and Middle West who are anxious for authentic information about Portland and Oregon. Hundreds of letters are sent every day, answering inquiries and telling just what may be found here. But it is troublesome to write letters, even when one has the information the inquirer desires; usually it is even more troublesome to get the necessary data. The Oregonian has taken this labor off the hands of the people of Oregon by getting to-gether a great lot of valuable matter about various occupations, industries, and ways of living and gaining a livelihood in the city and state, and it will be printed in a special TOURISTS' AND HOME-SEEKERS' NUMBER, MON-

DAY, APRIL 29. You needn't write a letter, but you should make it your duty and pleasure to send a copy of this fine special edito your relatives, friends and acquaintances throughout the United States. It will interest them, for in illustrations and text the issue will be complete, artistic and thorough.

PENINSULA LIBRARY OPENS TONIGHT.—
The Peninsula Library Association will open the reading-rooms tonight, at which time a general reception will be given the friends of the project. Books for the reading-room will be sent out today and will be in place on the shelves tonight. Miss Fox and Miss Isom, of the Portland Library, will make short talks In additional control of the programme of the prog Miss Fox and Miss Isom, of the Portland Library, will make short talks. In addition to the library there is room for a boys' gymnasium. An entertainment given Wednesday night netted $24, which will be used to furnish the gymnasium. Equipment has been ordered and is expected sometime this month. By means of the reading-room and the boys' gymnasium it is hoped to furnish the young people with healthful and helpful employment at night and keep them off the street. The place is at Peninsular station on the St. Johns carline.

WILL TALK ABOUT PORTLAND.—Dr. F. Burgette Short, at the Taylor-Street

Burgette Short, at the Taylor-Street Methodist Church Sunday night, will take as his subject, "Portland and Its Growth in the Last Six Months." Dr. Short has been away from Portland about Short has been away from Portland about half a year and upon his return to the Rose City was amazed at its wonderful growth and development. Dr. Short will describe the impressions of his return. He knows that many persons who have been here all the time do not realize the remarkable progress made by the city within the last few months. He will also compare Portland with other cities and will point out the beauties of the Rose City in an endeavor to bring about a full appreciation on the part of the people of their own home.

DEATH OF ANDREW ROBLE—Andrew Roble, the father of the Rev. Father Gresory, pastor of the Sacred Heart parish, Milwaukie and Caywood streets, died yesterday afternoon at the parish home. He was born January 20, 1827, in Bavaria, Germany, and came to the United States in the early 70°s. After living in Milchigan a number of years he moved to Kansas. In 1838 he came to Oregon and settled at Mount Angel. Subsequently he spent a few years in a monastery in the East. For the past eight months he had been living with Father Gregory in the Sacred Heart parish. He had been a sufferer from cancer but bore it uncompilaintingly to the end. With the boys and girls of the parish he was an especial (avorite. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock in the Mount Angel parish. The gervices will be conducted by Right Rev.
