ELLIS-LYTLE WEDDING.—One of the largest of the Spring weddings occurred last evening at the First Presbyterian Church when Miss Helen Lytle daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lytle became the order of Mr. James A. Ellis. The entire chancel was banked with palms and dogwood trees, and the new Presbyterian ritual was read by Rev. William Hiram Foulkes. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruby Crichton. Miss Margaret O'Connor. Miss Alice Forbes and Miss Mamie Dunne and were attired in becoming frocks of pink and wore pleture hats trimmed with ostrich plumes of the same line and long streamers. Mr. Ellis was attended by Mr. Catheart, of San Francisco. Prior to the ceremony a solo was given by Mrs. Walter Reed. The bride is highly accomplished and possesses a brilliant soprano voice. She made a most attractive appearance in her beautiful gown of chiffon trimmed with handsome lace and worn with a full-iength veil. Following the paremony an elaborate reception was held at Mr. and Mrs. Lytle's residence on Twenty-fourth street.

McDonald-Baird Nuprials.—The First Baptist Church was the scene Monday night of one of the prettlest weddings of the year when Miss Grace W. Baird and Bruce James McDonald were married by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher. The bride, who numbers a host of friends, has for some years been an instructor in the Portland High School where she was an honorary member of the Omega Nu sororliy. Mr. McDonald, who is a resident of Michigan, arrived only last week from the East. The wedding was marked by many pretty details, notably the appearance of eight Omega Nu girls attired in frocks of white, who sang the bridal hymn from Lohengrin. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Baird, and was given sway by her brother John C. Baird. Thomas P. Clarke, of Vancouver, acted as best man. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at 229 Tenth street. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside in Michigan, but will visit en route in California and Loutsiana.

HARD PAYEMENT FOR RUSSELL STREET. The street railway company is putting down heavy steel rails on Russell street, between Williams and Union avenues, preparatory to the laying of the hard navement on that street. Hard pavement on Union avenue north to Highland from Holladay avenue was defeated for the present for the reason that the street was graveled four years ago and the city agreed to maintain the street in good order for five years. As there is one year more to run a contract to improve with hard pavement could not be let. Unless conditions materially change, it will be undertaken to lay hard payement at least to Highland, and perhaps to
