CAUGHT IN BURNING HOUSE

CITIZEN NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH FROM SUFFOCATION

E. E. Stannard, Blocked on Stairway by Heavy Trunk, Rescued in Time by A. Hillyard.

In a fire which partially destroyed the residence owned by John H. Hall at East Burnside and Thirteenth street, yesterday forenoon, E. E. Stannard who occupied the house with his family, came nearly losing his life by suffocation before he could escape from the building. Mr. Stannard, who is with the Sherwin & Williams Paint Company, is a large man weighing probably 250 pounds. He had been confined to his home for the past few days by illness. When the fire broke out his first thought was to save some papers kept in a large trunk in the second story of the residence, and he went after them. He undertook to carry the trunk out of a back room down a narrow stairway, but it became wedged in such a way that he could neither get back up the stairs, nor over the trunk into the room below. The smoke was dense, and Mr. Stannard was fast being suffocated when he was rescued from his somewhat perilous position by A. Hillyard, who happened to be driving past. Mr. Hillyard ran to the stairs first where he discovered Mr. Stannard blocked by the trunk. Hillyard managed to pull Mr. Stannard over the trunk into the room below, where the fresh air revived him. The fire was confined to the upper part of the house, which was badly damaged. The whole house was drenched with water by the firemen, who soon found that the chemical engine was not able to control the blaze. Chief Campbell was in charge. The house was damaged to the extent of about $100, covered by insurance. Mr. Stannard carried no insurance on his furniture. The fire seemed to have started from the furnace pipe where it passes through the upper part of the house. Mr. Stannard and family recently arrived from Colorado Springs.

HIS BAIL NOT FORFEITED

George Sorensen Explains His Failure to Appear for Sentence.

George Sorensen, who failed to appear before Federal Judge Hunt last week, in time to be sentenced for land-fraud, gave a satisfactory explanation of his delay to United States Attorney Bristol. Mr. Bristol yesterday requested Judge Wolverton to set aside the conditional order of Judge Hunt to forfeit Sorensen's bail, and Judge Wolverton acquiesced. Sorensen stated that he did not know that he had been ordered to appear in court, until he found the order in his mail yesterday. He appeared before United States Marshal Reed yesterday forenoon, and asked to be given until Saturday next in which to arrange his private business affairs before proceeding to McNeill's Island, to serve his sentence. His request was granted by the Marshal. A fine of $500 must also be paid, and it is thought that Meldrum is arranging to pay it before he is taken to prison.

WOULD KILL LIQUOR TRADE

DR. CHAPMAN SAYS REGULATION ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE.

Declares Business Is Contrary to Provisions of Constitution and Should Be Entirely Eradicated.

Rev. Ervin S. Chapman, D. D., who has for nine years been superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Southern California, and who is now superintendent for that state, spoke for the cause of temperance last night at the Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal Church. He took for his subject, "The Stagnant Flag." Dr. Chapman holds that civil government has absolutely no right to license the liquor traffic. Such action on the part of the municipality of the state, he says, is unconstitutional. The lecture in part follows:

"On the western wall of a large hotel building in a Southern California city is an immense English ivy vine. From the strong root in a deep and fertile soil, it has climbed to the roof of the massive building, and has spread out far and wide over its wall. I observed that to prevent the overreaching vine from darkening the windows of the hotel, the men of the vine's branches had been clipped all around the windows of the building, and, calling the attention of my companions to this fact, I asked them how long it would take to kill the vine by this process. Of course the answer was that this would never kill it. So it is with the liquor traffic. You will never kill it by the clipping process.

"Five hundred years after Christ, Justinian, the great Roman emperor, wrought for humanity as few have done. He said that civil government is to live honestly, hurt no one, and to give every man his dues. Blackstone, the most distinguished commentator on law said of municipal law that it is a rule of civil conduct prescribed by the Supreme power of the state commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong. The latter part of this seems to have been forgotten by lawyers and the laity. With its 'big stick' of authority the Legislature says, 'Law is a rule of civil conduct prescribed by the supreme power of the state, and I am that supreme power.'

"Our good old Constitution says in the preamble that the objects of this government are to 'insure domestic tranquility, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity.' The Supreme court has said that 'no Legislature can bargain away the public health or the public morals.' In view of these things I say that the licensing of saloons in Portland, or in any other city or state in this great land of freedom is contrary to the principles of right as laid down in the Constitution of our country, and is also contrary to the decision of the supreme court.

"Let us cut down the vine at the roots. Kansas has only clipped the branches by adopting prohibition. Let us totally destroy the infamous traffic which darkens our land."

Insurance Man Under Bond.

NEW YORK, May 6--Charles S. Fairchild, former president of the New York Security & Trust Company and former Secretary of the Treasury, who with George W. Perkins, was indicted for forgery as a result of disclosures made in the insurance investigation, pleaded not guilty today and was held in $10,000 bail for trial. It is not probable that the case will be called for trial before next Autumn.
